BIG EARTHQUAKE RECORDED AT WASHINGTON

Be Sure You Are REGISTERED

To-Night Is Your Last Chance

BOSTON AMERICAN

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY NEWSPAPER

NIGHT EDITION

WEATHER FORECAST. Fair To-day; To-morrow Partly Cloudy

VOL. 4—No. 208. Registered in U. S. Patent Office. 10 PAGES. BOSTON, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1907. 10 PAGES. PRICE ONE CENT.

Copyright, 1907, by the New England Newspaper Publishing Company.

A SHATTERED DREAM.

The man in this picture may be a jury fixer, or a lobbyist, or the proprietor of an illegal resort, or a plain, ordinary political grafter.

Whatever he is, the picture shows how he looked when he read in the daily paper that John B. Moran had been defeated for the Democratic nomination for District Attorney. It also shows how he looked when he found that Moran was going to be a candidate ANYHOW, regardless of the City Hall Democratic machine.

Moran has carried Boston TWICE IN TWO YEARS. In 1905 he carried it for District Attorney against a candidate who was supported by both the Democratic and Republican parties. In 1906 he carried it for Governor in spite of the attempts of the grafters to "knife" him.

Will he carry it in 1907?

The picture on the right shows the answer.

DELEGATES' "INTENTIONS" RULED OUT

Ballot Commissioners Make Important Ruling in Regard to Whitney Affidavits—Testimony Rushed To-day in Convention Probe.

The "intent" of 274 delegates to the Democratic State Convention, who made affidavit that they went to the Court Square Theatre in Springfield at 11 o'clock on Saturday, October 5, prepared to support Henry M. Whitney, but failed to get in, was ruled out in the Whitney-Bartlett contest for Democratic governorship nomination to-day by the Ballot Law Commission.

The 274 affidavits were offered by former Attorney-General Herbert Parker, chief counsel for Henry M. Whitney, along with the affidavits of 116 delegates who did get in and who took part in the Whitney convention, and the affidavits of fifteen others who came to the convention with typewritten credentials, but failed of recognition.

"The affidavits are all accepted," said Chairman Henry V. Cunningham for the Ballot Law Commission, "but, so far as the 274 and the 15 declare the 'desire' or the 'intention' of the delegates to vote for a certain candidate—in this case for Henry M. Whitney—they are not admitted for that purpose."

WHITNEY SIDE CLOSES CASE.

The Whitney side at once became perceptibly subdued. The Bartlettites across the long table were unable to conceal their jubilation.

Whitney's case was "in" soon after 11 o'clock. There was a five-minute recess.

The Whitney affidavits numerically do not show the comparative strength that has been claimed. They give Whitney 405 delegates out of 750.

If Bartlett had all the rest and the Whitney claim is here complete, Whitney tops Bartlett by 405 to 345, a majority of sixty.

"These affidavits," said George Fred Williams, during the five minutes' recess, "cannot now go as a declaration that 274 delegates failed to reach the convention hall. The only evidence to take cognizance of what these 274 men now say that they meant to do, had they got there. We admit that they didn't reach the convention. We admit that cheerfully.

"We've got them beat," said Congressman Joseph F. O'Connell. "These men, so far as it now appears in evidence, merely say that they didn't get into the hall. Why? They don't know. That's what it amounts to. Does the man who was ninth in that line, for instance, out on Elm street, know why he didn't get in?"

OLIN RUSHES MATTERS.

Secretary of State William M. Olin had a conference with Chairman Henry V. Cunningham of the Ballot Law Commission today, and asked that the commission give a decision in the controversy before 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

From Friday until the date of the election there will be only seventeen days, Secretary of State Olin pointed out, and it is necessary, according to law, to have the official ballot printed in every polling place five days before the election.

If he gets the decision by to-morrow afternoon, Secretary Olin said, this will leave him only twelve days in which to have the ballots printed, examined and posted.

"The Whitney lawyers have had four days in which to put in their cases," he said, "and we should be given a chance to put in all of our case. We have about fifty witnesses, but will probably not call all of them."

FEENEY, FIRST WITNESS.

The Bartlett folks will call as their first witness Hon. John F. Feeney, the boyish-looking chairman of the Democratic State Committee, who put the official who turned the gavel and the convention over to Daniel J. Kiley at Springfield. The Whitney people have put it up to Feeney strong. He is a fighter. His testimony was expected to be sensational.

Daniel J. Kiley, storm centre of the controversy, he man who nominated Charles W. Bartlett, will follow Feeney on the witness stand.

KILEY ORDERED 2,000 PINK SLIPS, PRINTER STATES

The first witness to-day was Edward W. Doyle, printer, of No. 185 Franklin street, who printed the pink and blue tickets by order of Daniel J. Kiley.

"The first day I saw Mr. Kiley," testified Mr. Doyle, "he gave me an order for 2,000 pink tickets. Kiley said, in ordering the pink tickets, 'I want them to agree with the credentials,' which I also printed by order of Mr. Kiley, and he said, 'I want the pink tickets printed so that they cannot be counterfeited.'

Mr. Doyle identified pink and blue tickets used at Springfield as the ones he printed.

"A day or two later," continued Mr. Doyle, "Mr. Kiley told me he wanted another kind of ticket printed, and left me an order for 1,500 blues.

"I printed 1,950 pink tickets and then my stock ran out. I printed 1,500 blue tickets and delivered all to Kiley at the Democratic headquarters, No. 85 State street, the Thursday before the Springfield convention."

Mr. Mayberry—Did you have a subsequent conversation with Mr. Kiley? A.—Yes, on the morning of the Thursday before the convention. Kiley called me on the telephone and asked me how many tickets he had ordered. I told him 2,000 pinks and 1,500 blues. He said he was afraid that he had ordered too many. I told him it was too late then to change the order, because the pink tickets had been printed and the stock cut up for the blues. Kiley said, "Well, all I want is 1,000 blues. I don't need 1,500." I replied "You had better take them all. You will be charged for them, anyway. I don't care what you do with them." I delivered 1,954 pinks and 1,500 blues.

Mr. Parker—Did Kiley at that time over the telephone state that 1,000 pink tickets would be enough? A.—No, he said nothing about pink tickets.

MASSED KILEY MEN STARTED UPROAR, HAMLIN DECLARES

Charles S. Hamlin of Boston and Matthew Poisett, called to the stand as a Whitney witness and questioned by Mr. Parker, said he was a substitute delegate from Matthew Poisett at the Springfield convention.

Q.—When did you receive any information relative to the ticket when you afterwards found was required? A.—I did not receive any information until I was following at the door of the convention hall.

Q.—Will you now tell of your observations and what took place the moment you went to the convention? A.—I left the Massasoit House in company with a number of other Whitney delegates just before 11 o'clock and started to walk to Boston. When we reached the theatre it entrance was packed with people. With my credentials in my hand I started to push my way through the crowd. I did so and at the door of the convention hall.

Q.—Will you now tell of your observations and what took place the moment you went to the convention? A.—I left the Massasoit House in company with a number of other Whitney delegates just before 11 o'clock and started to walk to Boston. When we reached the theatre its entrance was packed with people. With my credentials in my hand I started to push my way through the crowd. I did so and at the door of the convention hall.

Q.—Will you now tell of your observations and what took place the moment you went to the convention? A.—I left the Massasoit House in company with a number of other Whitney delegates just before 11 o'clock and started to walk to Boston. When we reached the theatre its entrance was packed with people. With my credentials in my hand I started to push my way through the crowd. I did so and at the door of the convention hall.

Beer took hold of me, told me that I could get in on my credentials and that I must exchange it for a ticket at the box office.

150 Cheered for Kiley.

"I turned to go towards the end of the line when Thomas Hamlick gave me his place. I waited in line about one minute, and as I stood there I could hear cheering. As I got to the door I got I Feeney was putting the motion substituting the name of Mr. Kiley for temporary chairman. There was a reply of ayes and as these arose 150 men massed in the front seats all rose up and began shouting Kiley, Kiley.

"There was a very short pause. Mr. Feeney made a brief statement and such I threw his hands up in the air. Then Mr. Kiley darted across the stage in a very dramatic manner, and the moment I got to the chair began to read from a paper which he had in his hand."

Q.—How many people do you estimate

Continued on Page 2, Column 3.

HELD ON $1,000 THEFT CHARGE

Jerome J. Pastene, thirty-five, of No. 1 Elmwood street, Roxbury, was arrested to-day by Inspector Gaddis on the charge of larceny of $1,000 from Rosino Pilato of the same address.

Jerome J. Pastene is a brother of Joseph N. Pastene, a well-known Boston lawyer, for whom the police have been seeking. Joseph Pastene, who is said to be in Montreal, notified the police through counsel that he would return and clear up the several charges of larceny filed against him in the last few weeks. Efforts were meanwhile directed to Governor Guild asking for his removal as administrator of certain Roxbury estates.

NAVY HEAD INSPECTS SHIPS FOR PACIFIC

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Secretary of the Navy Metcalf is at the New York Navy Yard to-day inspecting the yard and particularly the battleship that are there for repairs for the Pacific cruise.

Anything Well Advertised Is Half Sold

The best place to advertise is where you will reach the greatest number of readers.

The AMERICAN Gives You More than 300,000 Daily and Sunday

Which is more than any paper in New England gives you.

If you want anything, or want to sell or exchange anything, bring or send an adv. to

80 SUMMER STREET

—OR—

264 Washington Street

Our Down Town Office

See premium offer to Sunday Advertisers.

THE WEATHER.

Fair to-day and Thursday; light westerly winds.
High tide 6:37 A. M., 7:03 P. M.
Sun rises 5:58. Sets 5:02.
Moon sets 12:13 A. M.

TAFT SPEAKS AS FILIPINO HOUSE OPENS

MANILA, Oct. 16.—With impressive ceremonies and a significant speech by Secretary Taft, the first Philippine Assembly was opened to-day.

"President Roosevelt has sent me to convey to all Filipinos his congratulations upon this, another step in the enlargement of self-government," said the Secretary. "His message is intended for every Assemblyman, irrespective of his views in the electoral campaign.

"The national administration's avowed policy under President McKinley and President Roosevelt has been and is to safeguard the interests and welfare of the Filipinos and by the spread of general prosperity and industrial education, and the practice of partial political control, to fit the people to maintain a stable government.

"What is the supreme test of the wisdom of the Big Four Railroad, who thought of this approaching night. He telephoned Governor Hanly asking that the State provide its emergency tents and rations. The Governor acted immediately on the suggestion and the Big Four Railroad furnished special cars for the purpose. The cars were run on a siding here and used for shelter by those who could not be provided with tents. The heavy rain which fell all day made the suffering more intense.

Ashes Mark Mill Site.

Only scattered piles of ashes and a thin veil of smoke mark the place where the powder mills stood. The buildings were grouped around a star-shaped thickly-wooded piece of land. Scores of trees stand on the hills above without single leave. The ground is littered with splintered limbs. Even the soil was mixed into the finest loam, into which the rescuers dig to the above bodies.

The exact number who were at work in the mill is uncertain, as Superintendent Monahan, who assigned the men, is dead.

Monahan himself told a friend only week ago that he had written two letters of resignation to the Dupont Company.

POWDER MILL EXPLOSION DUE TO GREEN HAND?

Governor and State Militia Take Charge of Wrecked Fontanet.

By Boston American Leased Wire.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 16.—Governor Hanley and the State troops have taken charge of the situation at Fontanet, where sixty are known to be dead and hundreds injured, as the result of 40,000 kegs of powder and fifty tons of dynamite exploding in the Dupont Powder Mills.

An extra detail of workers is hunting for more bodies to-day. Every house in the village was destroyed and the 1,200 inhabitants are camping in tents. Both hospitals here are full, and surgeons were rushed to Fontanet from all towns and cities within a radius of 100 miles.

The mills occupied three acres of ground half a mile south of the village of Fontanet which is a coal mining center and depends largely upon the powder mills for its successes.

It is believed that some green workman unacquainted with the precautions necessary in such dangerous employment is to blame.

Care for Homeless.

Thirty bodies have been identified, ten probably never will be, and 250 persons are in hospitals. Probably 400 others, not so seriously injured but with some part of their bodies bandaged, are helping those more dangerously hurt.

With the excitement of the day yesterday, it was Superintendent Houghton of the Big Four Railroad, who thought of this approaching night. He telephoned Governor Hanly asking that the State provide its emergency tents and rations. The Governor acted immediately on the suggestion and the Big Four Railroad furnished special cars for the purpose. The cars were run on a siding here and used for shelter by those who could not be provided with tents. The heavy rain which fell all day made the suffering more intense.

Ashes Mark Mill Site.

Only scattered piles of ashes and a thin veil of smoke mark the place where the powder mills stood. The buildings were grouped around a star-shaped thickly-wooded piece of land. Scores of trees stand on the hills above without single leave. The ground is littered with splintered limbs. Even the soil was mixed into the finest loam, into which the rescuers dig to the above bodies.

The exact number who were at work in the mill is uncertain, as Superintendent Monahan, who assigned the men, is dead.

Monahan himself told a friend only week ago that he had written two letters of resignation to the Dupont Company.

SEISMOGRAPH SHOWS GREAT EARTHQUAKE

WASHINGTON INSTRUMENT RECORDS MOST VIOLENT SHOCK EVER KNOWN.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The most violent earthquake record ever made on the seismograph at the weather bureau started at 9:14 a. m. to-day. The vibrations of the needle were even greater than those caused by the San Francisco earthquake. Weather bureau officials are momentarily expecting news that somewhere in the world an unusually severe disturbance has occurred.

Earthquake shocks in the Merrimac Valley about 7 o'clock last night, accompanied by startling rumblings, roars and quiverings, startled the inhabitants of Lowell, Haverhill, Pepperell and other towns in this State, and Manchester, Derry and other parts of Southern New Hampshire. Crockery rattled, buildings trembled and people rushed to the streets in alarm in hundreds of cases, but little or no damage was done. The duration of the shocks averaged from three to five seconds in the different localities.

Haverhill and Lawrence reports indicate that the severest disturbances were manifested there. In the Highland district of the former city people at dinner were so alarmed that they rushed outdoors, and dishes were thrown from tables.

From some towns it is reported that a noise like a sharp explosion followed the rumble of the quake. Rumors of gas explosions, powder works disasters, etc., spread like wildfire in the affected sections and telephone wires were kept busy until late at night through the northern part of the State and in Southern New Hampshire. It was decided that the disturbance was due to an earth tremor.

The noise, in different localities, was likened to that of thunder, a snowslide, a passing train, a heavily loaded wagon, etc., according to the varying fancy of observers.

Beyond the shock to nervous people and the resulting loss of sleep the earthquake passed on harmlessly, apparently spending its force in Central New Hampshire.

LIKE DISTANT THUNDER.

DERRY, N. H., Oct. 16.—An earthquake was felt here just after 7 o'clock last night. It resembled the roll of distant thunder. Buildings were slightly shaken, but no damage was done.

LAWRENCE IS SHAKEN.

LAWRENCE, Oct. 16.—People were startled last night by a jarring which shook houses and some persons ran into the street to ascertain the cause.

A South Lawrence man said that houses there shook and that there seemed to be a report accompanying the jar. A man standing in the doorway of The Bay State building, the largest office structure in town, said that he plainly felt the jar.

In the high section of Methuen the shock was noticeable, being sufficiently heavy to make dishes on shelves and cause coal to rattle in the bins. North Andover also reports having felt it.

WEAK AT MANCHESTER.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 16.—A slight earthquake was felt south of this city at 7:16, the vibrations being apparently north and south.

In Londonderry, five miles south of Manchester, it was noticeable to a marked degree, and is said to have resembled the passing of a railroad train. Accompanying the noise was a trembling motion sufficiently pronounced to rattle dishes and windows. Salem also felt it, but Portsmouth was not disturbed.

SCARED FROM DINNERS.

HAVERHILL, Oct. 16.—A shock of full three seconds was felt in this city at 7:09 o'clock this evening, a dull rumbling being accompanied by a tremor which in some places was sufficient to jar tableware and pictures.

The shock was felt in all sections of the city, but was more noticeable in the Highlands section, where houses trembled and people were frightened. In the Bradford district houses on Elm and Webster streets were shaken sufficiently to arouse the inmates, and a report was received from Eastern avenue in the eastern section of the city proper that houses were jarred sufficiently to awaken infants which had been put to bed.

MANY CALLED IN FINANCE PROBE

Several prominent city officials whose names have not been divulged have been served with summonses, requesting them to appear before the Finance Commission at an executive session, which will be held to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Tremont Building offices.

The session to-morrow, it is expected, will take up matters pertaining to the sewer and supply departments. The commissioners will at this time decide when the public hearings will be taken up. In all probability no public hearings will be held during the next fortnight.

Prize Winners in Trading Stamp Contest Announced in Next Sunday's American

Another Big Prize Offering of Stamps Given with the American Next Sunday

HISGEN FIRES FIRST SHOT IN CAMPAIGN

The active speaking campaign of Thomas L. Hisgen, candidate for Governor on the Independence League ticket, begins this evening at Haverhill and from then until the eve of election the fight will be kept up in every section of the State.

The campaign force of the League in the Old South building, on Washington street, Boston, has been busily engaged since the convention in arranging rallies to be held in all of the cities and towns of the Commonwealth.

Demands have been so numerous for Mr. Hisgen and others of the ticket to speak that it has taken almost superhuman work to arrange the schedule. The encouraging information has been received at League Headquarters as to the interest in the campaign of the Independent, Mr. Hisgen as the standard bearer.

Support Promised on All Sides.

Within a few days the League will be able to forward literature bearing upon the issues of the campaign that will be of great interest to those who appreciate the critical situation in this State at the present time. Mr. Hisgen comes to Boston from his home in West Springfield to-day and is busy with the office force speaking with the world of enthusiasm and confidence.

The meeting in Haverhill this evening will be called to order at 8 o'clock in Tannery's Hall on Merrimack street. The indications are that there will be a large crowd present to hear the first regular speech of Mr. Hisgen in the campaign.

William A. Wood, the candidate of the League for Attorney-General, who was the permanent chairman of the convention at Faneuil Hall, will also speak. Those who heard Mr. Osgood's ringing address at the convention will never lose a chance to hear him again.

Another of the orators for the Haverhill rally will be W. J. Bundell, formerly Mayor of Lynn. He is a splendid speaker, and for years has held a high place in Essex County.

Ward Rally in Somerville.

The Rev. Roland D. Sawyer will preside at the meeting. The ordination of the clergyman seconded the nomination of Hisgen at the convention. With this fine array of speakers the managers of the Haverhill rally expect to have a crowder.

People of all political faiths are invited by the League certainly to be present and hear the issues of the campaign discussed from the standpoint of the Independent.

At Somerville the second ward rally of the League will be held this evening in the Bingham School building. One of the speakers will be Thomas Hooper, League candidate for councilor in the Fourth District, and another, John T. Dubbins of Ward 13, Boston. The Leaguers of Somerville are very enthusiastic and will pull up a large vote for Hisgen, they declare.

Arrangements have been made for a stirring rally at Fall River to-morrow, Thursday evening, at which Mr. Hisgen will make his second speech of the campaign. The meeting will be in Ark-Kniley Hall, Weavers' building, No. 142 Second street.

Hisgen in Waltham Friday.

Mr. Osgood, Mr. Ramsdell and Anson B. Edgerly will also speak at Fall River. Mr. Edgerly made one of the best speeches that was heard at the State convention.

On Friday evening, October 18, Mr. Hisgen will speak at Waltham in Lindicott Hall, on Moody street. This hall is in the A. O. U. W. building, the other speakers scheduled for Waltham are Mr. Osgood, Mr. Ramsdell and Clement L. Pelloch.

On Saturday evening, October 19, there will be a number of rallies in various cities and towns. Arrangements have been completed for one at Auburn at which Gen. Charles S. MacFarland, W. J. Bundell and Anson B. Edgerly will speak.

It is probable that Mr. Hisgen will meet friends in North Plymouth on Sunday. One of the strong supporters there is Herbert K. Bryant of the Moulders' Union.

An informal meeting will be held. Mr. Hisgen will be accompanied by Charles O. Pope, executive secretary of the League, and Mr. Pollock, who will make addresses.

List of Other Meetings.

Other meetings already arranged are as follows:

Monday, October 21, at Newburyport—Speakers, Mr. Hisgen, Mr. Osgood, Mr. Brown and Junius T. Auerbach.

Tuesday, October 22, at Gloucester.—Speakers, Mr. Hisgen, Mr. Auerbach and Mr. Pollock.

Wednesday, October 23, at Pittsfield.—Speakers, Mr. Hisgen, Mr. Brown and others.

Wednesday, October 23, Quincy—Mr. Osgood, Mr. Auerbach and Mr. MacFarland.

Thursday, October 24, West Springfield —Speakers, Mr. Hisgen and others. This will be a meeting getten up by the personal friends of Mr. Hisgen in his home town and promises a large crowd. It will be a very enthusiastic meeting from indications. On the same evening a meeting will be held at Chicopee at which Mr. Hisgen will speak.

NEW STORE OPENED BY KEILTY FIRM

Keeping ever abreast of the times, meeting the demands of the public for the best in all lines, the Keilty Company, which has just completed enlarging and remodeling its large store rooms at No. 785 Washington street, announces its Fall and Winter opening next Saturday, when an assortment of men's, women's and children's wear, the like of which for variety, style and moderate quality has never before been seen before, will be temptingly displayed.

The Keilty Company has employed the best efforts of the carpenters and decorators to make the handling of the large stock which are now practically new, for no expense has been spared in the undertaking.

Two New Show Windows.

Two fine, capacious show windows have been made in the front of the store and those are now full of the latest in wearing apparel disposed to the best advantage by the window-dressing department.

Every department of the Keilty store has been kept up to date. Effort has been paid probably the greatest attention to its millinery department and in the most fastidious woman will find something to her taste.

In the department of men's clothing the stock is all that anyone could desire so far as variety, fashion and worth is concerned. Everything in children's wear has a place in the great Keilty Company stores.

Credit System Adopted.

Not only is all the clothing of the whole family kept in the great stock, and show rooms of the store, but the credit system, by which garments may be secured, makes purchasing a delight, for the Keilty company treats all of its customers with the greatest consideration and is willing to accommodate those who may not at the time be prepared to pay cash for their purchases.

COAL SHED IS BURNED.

WINSTED, Ct., Oct. 16.—Fire early today destroyed a large coal and wood shed owned by Selectman A. B. Hurd on John street.

Hisgen and Others to Speak at League Rallies

Rallies will be held as follows at which Thomas L. Hisgen, candidate for Governor on the Independence League ticket, and other orators will appear during the week beginning this evening:

HAVERHILL, THIS EVENING, Tanner's Hall on Mechanic street.

FALL RIVER, tomorrow, Thursday evening, McKinley Hall, Weavers' building, on Second street.

WALTHAM, Friday evening, October 18, Endicott Hall, on Moody street.

FOXBORO and other places on Saturday evening, October 19.

NEWBURYPORT, Monday, October 21.

GLOUCESTER, Tuesday, October 22.

PITTSFIELD, Wednesday, October 23.

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Thursday, October 24.

COMMISSION RULES OUT "INTENTIONS."

Continued From First Page.

were in the hall at that time? A—From 250 to 400.

Q—If you see or hear the motions and actions of Mr. McNary and his following? A—I saw a great deal of noise and everything was confused. I remember someone standing up in one of the middle seats, then I remember Mr. Sullivan's crossing over a row of seats, and I have a recollection of a scuffle in the rear of the hall. Someone had hold of a table and was trying to prevent their taking it away.

200 Rallied to Conry.

Q—Did you make an estimate later of the number of people in the main part of the hearing? A—I asked Gilmore and some others to count the gentlemen in the crowd.

Q—Did that coincide with your judgment? A—It did.

Q—How many were there? A—About 600 on the floor—participants of the hearing and members of the press—which was about what Mr. Gilmore made it.

Q—How many did you estimate in the so-called Conry organization? A—About 200.

Q—Did you participate in that convention? A—I did. I was chairman of the committee on resolutions.

Q—Had the nominations been made in the Bartlett convention before you left? A—Notes that I took at the time tell me that at 11:57 Bartlett and Thayer had been nominated. My notes also show that there was a long line of men waiting outside.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mayberry, Mr. Hamlin said that it was about 11:45 when he invited Mr. Gilmore to come to the platform and be one of people in the theatre.

Q—That was about twenty-five minutes after you got in? A—Yes.

Q—And 200 men came in in that time? A—Yes. Hundreds were passing in on pink tickets without going to the box office.

Denies Hearing of Bolting.

Mr. Hamlin then denied that he had told a Frank Richardson of Gloucester yesterday that he wasn't sure whether Mr. Feeney called for the noes or not on the first motion.

"On the contrary," said Mr. Hamlin, "Mr. Richardson brought that they were called for, and I told him that I was sure that they had not been.

Q—Don't you think it possible with all the noise in the hall that the noes were asked for, but that you didn't hear them? A—That is conceivable.

CROWD SHOUTED TO PUT KELIHER OUT WHEN HE PROTESTED

Congressman John A. Keliher, who followed Congressman Peters as a Whitney witness, said that he went to Springfield the night before the convention and that his first intimation that Bartlett would be used to adjust to the hall was at 9:30 on the morning of the convention. He testified that he went to the theatre, but was refused admission on his credential and was pushed back by a policeman.

"I am Congressman Keliher, I told to the policeman," testified Mr. Keliher. "It is very necessary for me to get in the hall early, as I am to participate in the convention. The policeman replied, 'I don't help that. You will have to go back. There is no difference who you are.' Then he sent me back. I finally exchanged my credential for a pink ticket which a friend of mine had, telling him I could not wait in line.

Few Bartlett Men in Line.

Mr. Keliher said that he went into the convention and came out again about 11:45 o'clock, when there was a long line of delegates extending from the theatre to Elm street.

"There were eight Whitney men to one Bartlett man in the crowd," said the Congressman.

"I told the Whitney delegates to stick, and that perhaps they would get in. I went out again after Bartlett and Whitney had both been nominated and advised the Whitney delegates not to give up their credentials.

In describing the Bartlett convention Mr. Keliher said: "When Mr. Feeney started to read the call I addressed him. I was not more than ten feet away from the stage. I said to him: Mr. Chairman, I want to call your attention to the fact that there is a large line of delegates outside. Do not proceed the opening of the convention until they are admitted. He paid absolutely no attention to me.

Q—Did you hear any outcry near the stage when you addressed Mr. Feeney? A—Yes. A number of the men cried, "Put him out," and some others cried "Yes, and they will stay out."

Q—Did you hear any cries of Kiley's name before he was mentioned for chairman? A—Yes. There were several calls of "Kiley, Kiley, Kiley."

Mr. Keliher said that on the vote for temporary chairman Mr. Feeney did not call for the noes.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mayberry. Q—At the theatre that day did you make a remark to Mr. Harvard, of Ward 8, Boston, that the whole thing was a farce, but that you would have to go through it? A—I did characterize it in that way, but had in mind the actions of the Bartlett people. I did not refer to the Whitney convention.

Q—Did you go into the lobby with Mr. Kiley and ask him to admit Mr. Whitney's son? A—Yes. I went to the door and asked Mr. Kiley to admit Mr. Whitney's son as a spectator.

Q—Did you hear any men making notices with megaphones? A—Yes. They were crying, "Sell Whitney and buy Trinity."

Q—When Mr. Bartlett came in to accept the nomination was he interrupted in his speech? A—He was. All the speakers were.

BUSINESS NOTICE.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

SEVEN BRIDES WED TO-DAY IN SAME CHURCH

St. Francis de Sales in Charlestown Scene of Nuptials Unequalled in Many Years.

MAYOR IN ATTENDANCE

Never in the history of Old Charlestown has there been such a marrying and giving-in-marriage as is taking place to-day in St. Francis de Sales Roman Catholic Church, where no less than seven couples are being united in bonds of wedlock. Two of the marriages took place this morning, while three others take place this afternoon and two this evening.

The marriage of Miss Katherine M. Keating, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Keating of No. 322 Bunker Hill street, and Francis F. Sweeney, an attorney of New York City and until four years ago a resident of Charlestown, took place at 9 o'clock.

The bride is a niece of former Superintendent of Supplies Michael J. Mitchell, and had been employed in the registration department of the city at City Hall. On this account Mayor John F. Fitzgerald and other city officials and their wives were either present in the church or at the wedding reception and breakfast which followed the ceremony at the bride's home.

Bride's Brother Sings Mass.

The wedding was performed by Rev. James Keating, assistant rector of the church, while the nuptial high mass was sung by the bride's brother, Rev. John S. Keating, S. J., of Loyola College, Baltimore, Md.

Miss Veronica Keating, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Joseph Melley of Roxbury was the best man. The ushers were: Michael J. Mitchell, Thomas J. Keating, Francis T. Keville, Joseph H. King and John J. Keville.

Ducey—Leonard.

At 10 o'clock the marriage of Miss Julia Frances Leonard, daughter of Mrs. Mary Leonard, of No. 21 Polk street, Charlestown, and John J. Ducey, of East Cambridge, son of the late Captain Lawrence Ducey, of the Cambridge Police Department, took place. The Rev. James Supple, pastor of the church officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Catherine T. Leonard, sister of the bride. The best man was William Ducey, brother of the bridegroom. After the ceremony a reception took place at the bride's home.

Weddings in Afternoon.

The afternoon weddings are those of Dr. William J. McDonald, son of Dr. James McDonald of Main street, to Miss Margaret M. Finnigan of No. 296 Bunker Hill street, and Neil F. McDonald and Miss Helen T. Gee, daughter of Thomas F. Gee of No. 20 Tufts street, all of Charlestown. The Rev. James N. Supple will perform the nuptials of Neil McDonald and Miss Finnigan.

An hour later comes the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Rose Coughlan, daughter of William H. Coughlan of No. 394A Bunker Hill street, to John A. Breen of Charlestown. The Rev. James N. Supple will officiate. Miss Catherine T. Coughlan, sister of the bride, will be bridesmaid, and Dr. John A. Breen of Charlestown best man.

The weddings of Miss Phoebe Gertrude O'Donnell of No. 58 Baldwin street and Daniel Edward Sweeney of Cook street, and Miss Alice Dunford of No. 67 Baldwin street and Michael Maher, all of Charlestown, take place at the church this evening.

WARD 9 BACKS 'JIM' DONOVAN AS ONE MAN

Popularity of Former Street Superintendent Brings Democratic Factions Together.

SHERIFF CAMPAIGN OPEN

The Ward 9 Democracy united last night at a meeting in Wells Memorial Hall as it has not done for years. All the factions came together in peace and harmony to indorse the candidacy of James Donovan for Sheriff of Suffolk County. Donovan, who is the regular Democratic nominee for the office, was superintendent of streets during the two Collins administrations and for a long time was the executive head of the Democratic city organization.

He has always had a great personal following and in his ward every Democratic district was looked upon as practically invincible at the polls. But this is the first time he has ever been before all the citizens of Boston as a candidate for office. He is fighting the mighty county ring.

Whole Ward for Him.

While Ward 9 has recognized Donovan as its Democratic leader for years there has almost always been a fight on there between party factions as man could control. Sometimes these factions fought. Donovan or his candidate. But now that he is seeking an election office himself the ward rallies to his support.

The meeting last night was a great tribute to Donovan's personal popularity. Its following includes people of Irish, Jewish, German and American ancestry, and the meeting was about as cosmopolitan as any ever known in Boston. The crowd was wild with enthusiasm. Charles J. Brady was chairman. James F. Grey was secretary, and among the speakers were Joseph F. Sheehan, former Alderman David F. Barry, former Aldermen Patrick Bowen, Alderman Flannagan, Councilman Leonard, Richard Hayes and Nicholas Quinn.

Robert A. Wood, settlement worker and sociologist, and Ellery Clark, who are adored by the pour in Ward 9 are going to support Donovan. Mr. Woods wrote Chairman Brady:

"My Dear Mr. Brady—I regret very much that an engagement of long standing prevents me accepting your invitation for to-morrow evening at Wells Memorial Hall. The record of Mr. James Donovan both in and out of office shows that he is well in the lead of those who associate with practical politics endeavor to make the public administration more and more serviceable to all the people of this great city and of the time they are called upon to bring the business of the city up to such a standard as all honest men approve.

"If elected sheriff, as I hope he will be, I am confident that he will apply those business principles for which the administration of Mayor Collins are based, an administration in which Mr. Donovan had, after the lamented Mayor himself, the most responsible part. I am, very sincerely yours,

"ROBERT A. WOODS.

Committee of Fifty at Work.

There will be a Ward 9 Donovan committee of fifty at work from now until the polls close. Among the fifty are David F. Barry, Robert A. Woods, Patrick Bowen, Alderman Flannagan, Richard Hayes, Daniel Mahoney, Hilary Clark, Nicholas Quinn, John Ryan, Michael Clarke, Joseph Sullivan, Thomas Dolan, Joseph H. Toronder, Sol Jacobs, Isaac Gordon and the three councilmen from the ward.

SABRE FOR CONNELLY.

Lieutenant Edward J. Connelly of Company A, Sixth Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia, was presented with a military sabre by his comrades of the corp. Charles F. Parker Spanish War Veterans of Wakefield, at their headquarters last evening.

SMOKE TALK OCTOBER 24.

The First Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Militia Veterans will hold their first smoke talk at their headquarters No. 2 Boylston place, Thursday evening, October 24.

FEARFUL ITCHING AFFLICTS FAMILY

For Six Months They Suffered Tortures—Patches of Humor Became Raw—Could Hardly Sleep—Medical Treatment Did No Good but

TWO SETS OF CUTICURA CURED THEM IN TEN DAYS

"Last February my sister broke out with a humor which gradually spread to the rest of the family. I being the last to take it. It manifested itself in patches varying from the size of a pea to that of a silver dollar. The joints of our limbs were most affected. The parts where the skin was tender soon became raw and irritated and we were able to sleep but little because the itching got so bad at night. My sister consulted a physician but he was unable to name the disease and the treatment he prescribed did no good at all. As the warm weather came on we were tortured worse than ever, the irritated parts causing us to scratch until they would bleed. In August, when it was at its worst, my sister was given a cake of Cuticura Soap. This she tried and it afforded so much relief that I bought the complete treatment, consisting of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. This we used according to directions and immediately W. Bunnell began to disappear. I then bought another set and the whole family were cured by these two, the clothes disappearing in ten days. After this we used the Cuticura Pills for an days more to be sure that the humor had gone to stay. We have not been troubled since and we all think that if it had not been for the Cuticura Remedies we would have been suffering yes. (Signed) W. Bunnell, 8 Union St., Rockland, Mass., Jan. 28, 1907."

DISFIGURING

Humors, Eczemas, and Itchings Cured by Cuticura.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and scratching of scalp, as in scalp itch, all demand a remedy of extraordinary virtues to prevent useless suffering. Hence, that Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills are such stands proven by testimonials of remarkable cures when all else has failed.

A single set, costing from one dollar, is often sufficient. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Mailed free, Cuticura Book on Skin Diseases.

Price is no criterion of value. You may pay your local dealer a dollar and a quarter or even more, but that is no guarantee that you get a better whiskey than

CALLAHAN-A-WHISKEY.

We sell this for 75 cents a quart, four quarts, prepaid, for $3 to any address in New England.

Compare it with any piece of goods that you are using and for which you pay more money. You will see instantly why we have to-day such a phenomenally large business.

Write for price list.

The House of John F. Callahan & Co.

50 Years a Liquor House.

160-168 Federal Street.

DR. MOODY

$3 THE BEST

NO MORE NO LESS

DENTIST

I am making preeminently the best set of teeth for $5. I will guarantee to please you. Teeth without plates, $8. Gold crowns, porcelain crowns, bridge work, painless extracting, 25c. Painless filling, 50c. Painless Extracting. 630 Washington St., Cor. Essex

LLOYD'S EYEGLASSES AND SPECTACLES

A very large variety of the different parts necessary to properly made glasses is one of the advantages of our business. Every customer is assured of glasses especially made for him—and not ordinary trade glasses.

ANDREW J. LLOYD CO.

2 Stores | Down Town, 318 Washington St. | Back Bay, 310 Boylston St.

LOST AND FOUND.

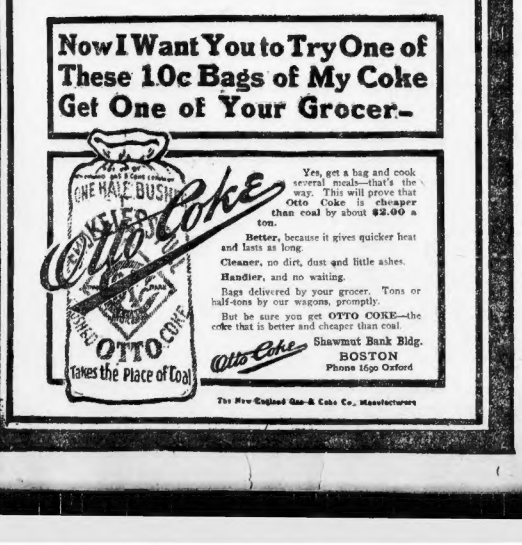
LOST—A fob chain. Would the finder please return to H. W., Boston American, reward of no value except to owner.



Now I Want You to Try One of These 10c Bags of My Coke
Get One of Your Grocer–
ONE HALF BUSHEL
KELLY'S
Otto Coke
OTTO COKE
Takes the Place of Coal
Yes, get a bag and cook several meals—that's the way. This will prove that Otto Coke is cheaper than coal by about $2.00 a ton.
Better, because it gives quicker heat and lasts as long.
Cleaner, no dirt, dust and little ashes.
Handier, and no waiting.
Bags delivered by your grocer. Tons or half-tons for wagon promptly.
But be sure you get OTTO COKE—the coke that is better and cheaper than coal.
Otto Coke
Shawmut Bank Bldg.
BOSTON
Phone 1650 Oxford
The New England Gas & Coke Co., Manufacturers

PARENTS READ THE AMERICAN WANT ADS. FOR POSITIONS FOR THEIR CHILDREN

Any day you go to a place of business advertising for help in the AMERICAN you will see fathers and mothers with their boys and girls waiting to talk with the employer. They are careful parents who read the AMERICAN WANT ADS., and their care is a guarantee both to the employer and their children of good help for good positions. An AMERICAN WANT AD. is the surest way of securing the best help. Send or bring your ads., daily or Sunday, to 80 SUMMER ST. or 264 WASHINGTON ST.

GLADYS'S FAMILY DIVIDED

Engagement to Wed Count Szechenyi Widens Breach Among the Vanderbilts.

NOBLEMAN IS SNUBBED

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 16.—There is trouble to-day at "The Breakers," the villa of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, where her prospective son-in-law, Count Ladislaus Szechenyi, found a retreat after having been left alone at the home of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, and the smart set is thrilled with excitement.

There remains no longer any doubt in the minds of possibly that the men of the Vanderbilt family are displeased with the Count, and it is said to-day that Mrs. Vanderbilt is rapidly inclining to their view. The big question here to-day is:

Reginald Vanderbilt, who does not approve of international marriage.

"Will the Count find himself alone at 'The Breakers' before the week is over?" The suggestion is given strength by the announcement from Lenox that Mrs. Vanderbilt and Gladys are expected in this week to visit Mrs. William D. Sloane.

The Count is said to have been in a fury when he found that Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt had gone to New York, leaving him as a guest at their home. Then Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt came to Newport yesterday and went away without paying their respects to the Count. Reports indicate that Gladys is still infatuated with the foreign nobleman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt and the Duchess of Marlborough will sail today from Cherbourg on the Kaiser Wilhelm II., and there is much interest in the attitude they will take toward their future heirs.

The report that the Count was ill, which was the reason given for cancelling entertainments in his honor, proves to be unfounded. He is well and was seen motoring yesterday.

May Widen Gulf.

When, last Sunday, Alfred and Cornelius shook hands and buried their eight-year quarrel, it was fondly announced that the long-standing breach was healed forever, and that, through the diplomacy of Mrs. Vanderbilt, the forthcoming marriage of Miss Gladys to Count Szechenyi had really proved to be the unifying salve.

But yesterday Reginald Vanderbilt declared himself utterly opposed to foreign marriages, and when he refused to say a word in favor either of Szechenyi or of his sister's betrothal, it became known that another Vanderbilt gulf had become "wide fixed."

That his aversion to the forthcoming marriage is so deep that he may not even attend it was declared very probable to his friends, and that such a slight would result in a more unfortunate family schism than ever is now feared as the most deplorable aspect of the Vanderbilt-Szechenyi match.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt arrived at the Holland House, New York, yesterday. They had avoided two dinners in honor of Count Szechenyi by declaring that they must attend a Southern horse show.

"Are you willing to make any statement regarding the report that you are opposed to the marriage of Miss Gladys to a foreign nobleman?" was the direct question put to Reginald Vanderbilt.

"I—I do not think I will say anything about that," replied Mr. Vanderbilt.

Doesn't Like International Unions.

"Is it true that you have found it convenient to avoid dinners given in the Count's honor?"

"I have nothing to say," replied Reginald. "I found it necessary to omit several engagements in order to meet previous engagements in the city."

"What do you think of the Count?"

"I will not say anything about that subject."

"Do you approve of foreign marriages as a general rule?"

"No, I do not." Mr. Vanderbilt returned with a little smile, "but I will not talk about the matter."

Mr. Vanderbilt and his wife have only seen the Count once and probably will not see him again for some time, as they

Cross English Handsewn Gloves FOR Men and Women

$1.25 and $1.50 the Pair

Mark Cross Co.

20 Summer St.

New York:

310 Fifth Avenue. 255 Broadway

SZECHENYI IN HUSSAR UNIFORM.

Austrian Count, over whose betrothal to Miss Gladys the Vanderbilt family are divided.

Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt.

have arranged to go aboard this Winter and will sail late in December.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt was also seen at the Holland House upon the arrival of his cousin from Aridley. He was asked directly regarding the Newport rumor that he was opposed to the marriage of Miss Gladys.

Met the Count Twice.

"I met the Count twice while I was abroad," said Mr. Vanderbilt, "and met him once in Newport. That is all I will say regarding the newspaper rumors.

"Why have you and Mr. Reginald come to New York when the Count is being entertained elsewhere?"

"I had engagements here."

"There is another rumor current in Newport that a complete reconciliation has taken place between Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt and the other members of the family. Is that correct?"

Alfred at once waxed enthusiastic. "Everything is splendid—perfectly splendid," he declared. "Yes, I met Cornelius, and, as I say, everything is splendid. You can say that as much as you like."

MRS. COLLINS, CUT BY VANDERBILTS, LEAVES NEWPORT

NEWPORT, Oct. 16.—The departure of Mrs. Nathalie Collins with her handsome son George, known as "Sunny George," and her mother, Mrs. Spotswood Sedgwick, for New York on Monday of this week has given rise to many reports.

That Mrs. Collins was not invited to the dance given by Mrs. Vanderbilt on Saturday night in honor of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, to Count Szechenyi, is clearly proved, for she attended the performance of "The Red Mill" at the Opera House with her mother and Mrs. Brady Hall, who came in after the first act was half over.

RUMOR OF BROKEN TROTH IS DENIED BY COUNT'S FAMILY

BUDAPEST, Oct. 16.—Rumors that the engagement of Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi had been broken reached this city yesterday. The report was positively denied by members of the Count's family and by his close friends.

A dispatch from Vienna says that the Vanderbilt gothe in the nuptials and scandaling of the Szechenyi family will be gratified to learn that the Count's eldest brother, Count Dionys, will soon be gazetted Austrian Minister to Copenhagen.

ACTRESS CAPTURES MAN UNDER HER BED

TAUNTON, Oct. 16.—Peering under bed, as has been her custom, in the fear that a man might be hidden there, Miss Marie D. Shotwell, leading lady of "The Lion and the Mouse" company, found one at the City Hotel. He was a little black man, and Miss Shotwell pulled him from his hiding place and held him while she alarmed the hotel by her screams. In police court he was held for the Grand Jury on a charge of breaking and entering, to which he pleaded guilty. He gave the name of George Lyons, and had been working as an assistant to the steward of the hotel. The police believe he was after Miss Shotwell's diamonds.

SAILORS AS MINSTRELS.

Seamen and Marines at the Chelsea Naval Hospital are to be treated to song and vaudeville entertainment at the Sailors Haven, No. 46 Water street, Charlestown, on Thursday evening. All sailors of the navy and merchant vessels in port have been invited to attend. One of the features of the entertainment will be an act by the U. S. Navy Quartet, minstrel troupe. Other entertainers will be J. N. Stanley, C. P. Messenger, B. G. Enstrom, D. E. McMath, the Wilson Sisters and Fitzroy Louna and Sedgwick.

An exhibition boxing contest will be refereed by J. N. Stanley.

TO-NIGHT LAST OPPORTUNITY TO REGISTER

If You Are Not on the Lists for Coming Election You Will Have but One More Chance.

REGISTRATION IN TOWNS

To-night is the last opportunity for registration in Boston.

If you do not register to-night or have not done so before—you will have lost your vote in this State election.

Be SURE you are registered.

You may be on the list and you may not. The ONLY WAY is to GO AND SEE.

Remember that to-night is the last chance. The registration department of the Election Commissioners in the Old Court House will be opened from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and from 6 p. m. to 10 p. m.

In all the cities registrars of voters will have daily sessions, ending at 10 o'clock to-night. If you live in any other city YOU MUST REGISTER BY TO-NIGHT.

The legislature in the towns closes October 28.

It is particularly necessary that members of the Independence League, those who intend to vote the League ticket, should see that their names are on the registration list.

It is the first duty of the voters to register, if you do not register you cannot vote.

The following are the places in Boston where you can register to-day:

Ward 1, Booth, Saratoga street, near Prescott street.

Ward 2, ward room, Maverick street, corner Bremen street.

Ward 3, booth, Lexington street, near Bunker Hill street.

Ward 4, Bunker Hill Grammar School house, Baldwin street, corner Bunker Hill street.

Ward 5, City Hall, City Square, Charlestown.

Ward 6, booth, Parmenter street, near Hanover street.

Ward 7, booth, Nassau street, near Hanover avenue.

Ward 8, booth, McLean street, near Blossom street.

Ward 9, old Franklin schoolhouse, Washington street, near Dorer street.

Ward 10, booth, Appleton street, near Columbus avenue.

Ward 11, Prince schoolhouse, Exeter street, corner of Newbury street.

Ward 12, booth, West Concord street, near Newland street.

Ward 13, Booth, B street, corner West Broadway.

Ward 14, Booth, East Fourth street, near Emerson street.

Ward 15, court room, South Boston, Dorchester street.

Ward 16, Municipal building, Columbia road.

Ward 17, Booth, lot, Vine street, near Dudley street.

Ward 18, Booth, lot, Whittier street, corner Hampshire street.

Ward 19, Booth, Elmwood street, near Roxbury street.

Ward 20—Booth, Hamilton street, near Bowdoin street.

Ward 21—Dudley Street Opera House building, Dudley street.

Ward 22—Booth, Lamartine street, near Boylston street.

Ward 23—Minton building, Hyde Park avenue.

Ward 24—Booth, Leonard street, near Adams street.

Ward 25—Ward room, Old Town Hall, Washington street, Brighton.

AT 61, FINDS NUTS HEALTHIEST DIET

George R. Sylvester, sixty-one-year-old bachelor of No. 27 Montrose street, Roxbury, eats nuts and nothing else the year round. The only liquid that he drinks is warm water that is taken after half of the meal of nuts is consumed. He began to live on nuts two and a half years ago, finding a cheaper way of living, and enjoys the best of health since he stopped eating other food. Occasionally he breaks his diet is Christmas and Thanksgiving.

MILK TRUST METHODS UNDER MORAN'S PROBE

GRAND JURY TAKES UP INVESTIGATION OF MONOPOLY BY CONTRACTORS IN HUB.

District Attorney John B. Moran is to-day investigating before the Grand Jury the conditions under which the wholesale and retail milk business is being conducted in Boston. The Boston milk contractors are under fire and many of their officials have been summoned to appear before the Grand Jury.

And just at the same time that the legislative committee of Suffolk County begins its probe into the milk business in this city the farmers of Worcester County petition Governor Guild to conduct a State examination into the milk business to determine if the farmers are not at the mercy of the contractors, through agreement, contrary to law, with the railroads which transport the milk.

Examine Trust Methods.

Under District Attorney Moran the inquiry in the Suffolk County Courthouse to-day into the conditions of the milk business here, the alleged existence in reality of a milk sellers' trust, the absolute controlling of the prices paid the producers and those demanded from the private retail consumers and the alleged co-operation of the railroads with the contractors, are all subjects of the Grand Jury's probe.

The farmers' committee which has just petitioned the Governor to investigate the milk business of the State, was appointed at a mass meeting held in Worcester on October 1. It is declared that 80 per cent. of the milk supplied to Greater Boston is controlled by five contractors.

It is asserted that the producers must all deal with these five contractors in Boston, and that the railroads control their business so that independent producers have no chance to enter the Boston market and compete on even terms.

What Farmers Ask.

The farmers' committee, composed of Charles W. Wood of Worcester, Jonas Bemis of Charlton, Charles H. Reed of Southboro, A. E. P. Rockwell of Worcester and Elmer C. Potter of Worcester, in their petition declare that the dairy interests of the State are not receiving consideration and protection of the Commonwealth, because of the restriction imposed by the present laws.

That eighty per cent. of the milk consumed in Boston and the metropolitan districts receives its distributing over several lines of railroads radiating from the city.

That eighty per cent. of the milk consumed in Boston and the metropolitan district is controlled, directly or indirect-ly, by five contractors with some one of whom the Massachusetts farmer producing milk in the dairy section of Massachusetts must deal.

That a division of the territory producing milk for the Boston market has been made so that one of these contractors has been enabled to maintain absolute control without competition of the product of that particular section.

Monopoly in Transportation.

That the cars which are leased from the railroads of the Commonwealth for the transportation of milk by these contractors are the only means afforded by the Massachusetts railways for the proper transportation to the best market of their product.

That it is the duty of the State to establish reasonable, safe and clearly defined regulations under which milk for consumption and sale shall be produced, and the enforcement of such regulations and the prosecution of offenders is demanded not only for the consumer, but for the honest producer as well.

That the dairy of the Massachusetts farmer is subjected to inspection by the State Board of Health, the local Boards of Health, the chief of the Cattle Bureau, the Federal government and by the contractors.

That milk produced outside of this State, under whatever conditions, is brought here, and whether or not it conforms to the bacterial test, is mixed with the pure Massachusetts milk, and this blend is then subjected to the pasterization process and thus made to conform to the admittedly inadequate bacterial test.

Standard of Milk.

That the Massachusetts commercial standard of the quality of milk is not a standard of purity.

That the commercial standard of milk in Massachusetts is arbitrary and unjust.

That the Governor is asked to determine whether the railroads of this Commonwealth furnish proper facilities at reasonable rates for the transportation of milk to a competitive market, whether there is a combination or combinations between contractors or between carriers and contractors to control the market for the sale of milk and whether the restrictions which are imposed upon the Massachusetts farmers are unreasonable or detrimental, in view of the fact that no such restrictions are imposed upon the producers in adjoining States whose milk comes into the markets of this State.

AGED CYCLIST TAKES HEADER AND MAY DIE

A dog caused Charles G. McLeod, aged 80, the oldest bicyclist in New England, to lose control of the machine on Minot Beach hill, Beverly, causing possibly fatal injuries.

He was found by the roadside unconscious. His head was covered with cuts and bruises. His entire side is aganst recovery.

He regained consciousness for a few minutes, and told the circumstances of his mishap, after which he relapsed into a moribund condition.

HONOR FOR SZECHENYI.

VIENNA, Oct. 16.—The Vanderbilt-Szechenyi family will be gratified to learn that Count Dionys Szechenyi, the Count's brother, will soon be gazetted Austrian Minister to Copenhagen.

KAISER CALLED IN LIBEL SUIT

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—Kaiser Wilhelm has summoned to the witness chair—and in a most unusual case, too—as one of a long list of royal and aristocratic personages on whose testimony editor Maximilian Harden, of a Berlin weekly newspaper, relies to win the libel suit brought against him by General Count Cuno Moltke.

The royalties cannot, indeed, be compelled actually to appear in the court room, the law permitting them to testify privately. The Kaiser is said to be furious and all Berlin is open-mouthed with astonishment at Editor Harden's boldness.

His leading witnesses are as follows:

Kaiser Wilhelm, of Germany; Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm, of Germany; King Friedrich August, of Saxony; ten other minor German royalties; Chancellor von Buelow, of Germany; Prince Philipp, of Eulenberg; seven counts holding high positions in the German court; Frau von Elbe, Moltke's divorced wife, and Baron Kraus.

BOVA'S ITALIAN RESTAURANT

For Ladies and Gentlemen

Opens To-day, October 16

Special a la carte lunch from 11 A. M. to 3 P. M. Popular prices. Italian table d'hote 5:30 to 7:30 P. M. 75c. Excelling wine. Seating capacity 400. Private booths for small and private rooms for large gatherings. Music during lunch and dinner. Seats reserved for table d'hote by telephone, Fort Hill 1612.

LEO. E. BOVA & CO.

96-98 Arch Street, 15-17 Otis Street

Near Summer and Franklin Sts., 2 minutes from Park St.

Arch St. is off Summer St., two blocks from Washington St.

Vorenberg's

Washington, Hanover and Elm Streets

$15 Suits for $12

WE have just completed an important purchase of men's high-grade suits greatly under the regular price. About 700 suits in all—all new, handsome styles and three dollars saved on each suit.

New Fall Suits

In ten styles of fancy worsteds, overplaid cheviots, cassimeres and tweeds. Also black and blue serges, all sizes in double and single breasted models, worth actually $15, at $12

New Business Suits

At $10 these suits are unusual values. They are not regular $10 suits, but clothes sold as high as $13.50, bought low for cash. Fancy mixtures and worsteds, actual value $12 to $13.50, at $10

$3.00 Fall Hats $1.85

Bought 200 sample hats in soft and stiff shapes—all shades of brown and pearl. Worth $3 and $3.50—mostly 6¾, 7, 7⅛ sizes, a great opportunity to save a dollar. Hats at 1.85

OSGOOD

WHEN IN DOUBT BUY OF

744 to 756 WASHINGTON ST.

AMERICA'S LARGEST LIBERAL HOUSE FURNISHER

Member of Home Furnishers' Association of Massachusetts.

Our Special

For Week Ending Oct. 19

Here is a dresser that is exceptionally well made, golden oak, divided top drawers and bevel plate mirror 18x20—it's a quick seller. Regularly $14.50.

THIS WEEK 10.45

SIX MONTHS' CREDIT IS CASH WITH US

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

Going Out of Business

EIGHTEEN DAYS from Monday we must be sold out completely. All the Coats, Suits, Waists, Millinery, Corsets, Furs and Costumes in our 4-story building will have to go regardless of cost. Fixtures, forms, show cases, tables, chairs, rugs, mirrors of all sizes and wall cases at your own prices—THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME!

$15 and $20 broadcloth suits...$8.75
$28, $30 and $35 suits go for $14.90
$15 to $20 epon suits, light and dark colors, go for.....$5.90
$10, $12.50 and $15 covert and silk pony coats.....$5.75
$10 black and mixture coats, 50 in. long.....$4.95
$25 all satin lined coats, all colors, go for.....$12.95
$5.00 mixture coats, sizes 6 to 14, new goods, go for.....$2.45
$30 and $40 silk costumes, go for.....$15.75
$1.00, $1.50 and $2.00 lawn waists, go for.....65c
$6.00, $7.00 and $8.00 silk waists, go for.....$3.65
$1.00, $1.50 and $2.00 corsets, all popular makes.....79c
$2.00 and $3.00 trimmed hats go for.....95c
$5.00, $6.00 and $7.00 hats go for.....$2.90
$10 and $12.50 hats go for.....$4.90
$2.00 feathers go for.....1.19
$1.50 and $2.00 children's fur sets, go for.....79c
$6.00 Isabella opossum muffs go for.....$2.90
$15 dark Russian squirrel sets, extra large size.....$7.75
$65 genuine black lynx sets go for.....$32.50
$70 genuine mink sets go for $37.50
$15 Isabella opossum sets go for.....$6.90

All $8.00, $10 and $12.50 white linen, also linen suits, go for.....$1.90

Plenty more bargains too numerous to mention will be offered daily until we close our doors for the last time on Oct. 31st.

On Account of Limited Time Open Evenings

THE MODEL 12 and 14 WINTER STREET

Extra Saleswomen Wanted, Also Alteration Hands

Toilet Preferences.

Nearly every woman has her preference regarding toilet preparations—and few stores carry a truly complete enough to assure you getting what you want.

But Jaynes' stores do such an immense business, with so many thousands of regular customers, that they carry practically everything that is known to be of reliable quality.

We scarcely ever have to say "we don't have it." And we are always able to prove that our prices are lowest. Take these items for example:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Parker's Cold Cream | 19c | Knowlton Massage Cream | 39c |
| Klein's Cold Cream | 19c | Pompeian Cream | 39c |
| Cucumber Cream, C. & M. | 39c | Malvina Cream | 39c |
| Cucumber Cream | 19c | Melvina Cold Cream | 39c |
| Marshall's Camphor Cream | 39c | Melvina Complexion Cream | 39c |
| Doggett & Ramsdell's Cold Cream | 39c | Hinds' Honey & Almond | 39c |
| Magda Cream | 49c | Hinds' Honey & Almond | 79c |
| Orena Cream | 49c | Woodbury's Facial Cream | 19c |
| Jaynol Cream | 49c | Fiddle's Lotion | 39c |
| Larkin's Cream | 39c | Malvina Lotion | 39c |
| Kosmeo Cream | 39c | Palmer's Lotion | 39c |
| Enthroned Cream | 19c | Sullivan's Quinee Lotion | 24c |
| | | Weed's Lotion | 19c |

Huyler's Chocolates—The 80c Kind—60c lb.—35c 1-2 lb.

Mail orders promptly filled at above prices. Charge accounts solicited.

THE RIKER-HEGEMAN DRUG STORES

JAYNES

8 in Boston. 9 in New York.

King's Bohemian Beer

THE BEST DINNER IS IMPROVED BY KING'S BOHEMIAN BEER. IT LENDS ZEST TO THE APPETITE.

SHEA EXPLAINS CALL TO UNITE ON HISGEN

Democratic Candidate for State Auditor Points Out League Principles as True Ones.

Daniel L. Shea of Chicopee Falls, nominee for State Auditor on the Bartlett Democratic ticket, who wrote the remarkable letters to the Bartlett and Whitney leaders suggesting that both sides retire and support Thomas L. Hisgen, the Independence League nominee for Governor, is in Boston on business.

To a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter he explained why he had written the letters and why he believed that the Democratic factions should retire rather than fight, and support the Independence League ticket.

In the course of a very strong interview, Mr. Shea declared that he would not run on an independent ticket. "I will run on the regular ticket or none," he said. That statement means that if General Bartlett is not recognized by the Baldwin Law Committee as the regular Democratic nominee, Mr. Shea will not run. In that case, he will be the third member of the Bartlett ticket who has withdrawn since the Springfield convention.

Always a Democrat.

Daniel L. Shea gave his interview with manifest sincerity. He was frank and outspoken. "I am not going before the public for publication," he declared. "But I believe in saying what one thinks. I am not a politician, but a business man."

He is an expert accountant of Western Massachusetts. He is a young man, quiet spoken but to the point and with firmly established ideas on certain matters of public interest. He has always been a Democrat—"I know no other political creed," he said in his letter—and strongly anti-merger.

Praise League Principles.

"It is a matter of principle with me, he said, "Principle must stand above party, and party above the interest of any individual.

"The principles of the Independence League, as embodied in the platform, are purely principles that every Democrat can stand on—certainly any Democrat who is opposed to the Maine-New Haven railroad merger.

"They are principles for which the Democratic party has always stood, and always been a Democrat, but I can conscientiously support these principles.

The question of party comes second. Nothing can be gained by fighting among ourselves, and rather than that the interests of the Democratic party would be much better subserved by both factions retiring and supporting the Independence League candidate and platform than by both running separately, a party divided against itself—particularly a minority party divided—must fail."

Danger Signal for Democrats.

"I can see only trouble for a long time to come in this split in the Democratic party. If it is continued by both sides figuring it out at elections, not only will it injure the party in the State, but in every town in the State.

"It will endanger districts heretofore strongly Democratic. It will cause a split in branch that will grow wider and which it will take years to heal.

"Rather than that, if both candidates would withdraw, and the Independence League candidate might be supported and all could agree to be satisfied, the Democratic party would be the gainer.

"It seems to me gentlemen that both of the ability and fair-mightedness of Hon. M. Whitney and General Bartlett should carry this struggle to the limit. I am sure they would not. Neither of them has anything to gain by it, and both would earn their party's gratitude by not going to that extreme.

From Business Man's Standpoint.

"I say this as a business man and not as a politician. I have always been that; I have never been a politician. I am an accountant, that of an expert accountant."

In his letter, Mr. Shea said that the Independence League declarations of principle were those which the Democratic party had indorsed in years gone by, and that he believed Mr. Hisgen was earnest and sincere in his beliefs. He was asked upon what foundation he made that statement and replied:

"You ask me if I know Thomas L. Hisgen, the Independence League candidate. I do. He and I are members of the Hamden County Trade Association, a business organization—not political—composed of large shippers and with the object of promoting the trade conditions of Hampden County.

Says Party All Oppose Merger.

"Mr. Hisgen is well thought of in Massachusetts. He has demonstrated that he is a capable business man by his own success. I have always been a Democrat, but I would much rather see Hisgen than to supporting Mr. Hisgen for Governor. As I have pointed out, I am only injured in this by seeing confusion. In the branch which more nearly affects my own business, both sides alike suffer.

"I certainly think that the following of General Bartlett should stand on the Independence League platforms and, except for the merger, as I could all other Democrats. I believe the Democratic party itself is opposed to the merger."

Mr. Shea went to Springfield to oppose the merger and he made it clear that he believed it to be the principal issue now before the voters of Massachusetts. He said:

Points Out Perils of Merger.

"It affects every town in Massachusetts. If it goes into effect to-day it will stand. For instance, take the city of Chicopee. Some time ago, persons in whom the city has confidence gained control of the Board of Aldermen and asked for a franchise for a line in competition with the city in Springfield. It was granted.

"I favored that grant. The effect was very good, establishing competition with the Boston & Maine.

"Finally the Consolidated Railway, controlled by the New Haven, got that road. The Consolidated could never have had the franchise in the first place. If the Boston & Maine and the New Haven combine it cannot but be of ill effect upon the interests of this section.

Railroad Ridden States.

"It is easy to see the effect of railroad combination in the New Hampshire legislature. The railroads of that State are monopolized and they control the State. Connecticut is railroad ridden, and Pennsylvania. Massachusetts has heretofore been reasonably free from this evil and it would be a calamity if it comes now.

"Those who favor the merger say that it might be done with 'proper safeguards.' One might as well suggest that the United States Treasury and the Standard Oil Company be merged under the control of John D. Rockefeller—with proper safeguards.

"Or that the Department of Justice might be merged with the Union Pacific under the management of Mr. Harriman—with proper safeguards."

"It is your idea that the independence league platform is not consistent with the purpose of the voters in this respect?" was asked.

League Platform for Voter.

"I certainly do. If the Democratic party, a minority party, continues its fight it cannot but be antipathy to everything. Rather than that, I think that it would serve the best interests of the public and of the party for both sides to withdraw and support some candidate upon whom all could unite.

Mr. Shea added with a smile:

"Since the letters to Mr. Whitney and Mr. O'Connell were published I have been told by some politicians that they looked as if they had been written in the offices of the Hearst newspapers.

"I told them that that was certainly not so—that I wrote them entirely independently, and that I had never been in the offices of the Hearst newspapers and had not the pleasure of the acquaintance of their owner."

Regular Ticket or None.

"Will you run as an independent candidate?"

"Under no circumstances," replied Mr. Shea. "I will run on the regular ticket, or none. The circumstances of the Springfield convention are by no means such as to require any comment.

"There is a strong, and in the best interests of the party can be secured as I have said. Nothing can be gained by division."

DANIEL L. SHEA, OF CHICOPEE, CANDIDATE FOR STATE AUDITOR ON DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

LEAGUE MEN OPEN BATTLE ON SHEENAN

Charles J. Kidney and James F. Doman, the candidates of the Independence League in Ward 17 who are opposed by Democrats, have taken up war on the Tammany Job candidate for the Legislature, and have issued handbills for opposition on the claim that the man is a resident of Ward 9.

They have interrogated the letter carrier who is up to now the only one where the many candidate is alleged to live and they have found out, both declare, that he never has a mail delivered at No. 153 Dudley street for Frederick M. J. Sheenan, who is now serving Ward 17 in the County Council.

The carrier for the BOSTON AMERICAN Mr. Kidney said:

"The law of this Commonwealth reads that man must be an inhabitant of a ward he represents in the Legislature. It does not say that he must live there May I have positive proof that Mr. Sheenan lives on Holliday street in Dorchester, in Ward 20, with his parents. He can be seen any morning in Dorchester taking a car into the city.

"I believe that there are hundreds of people in Ward 17 who are eminently qualified to represent Ward 17 in the House, without going to Ward 20 for a candidate. This is an issue which the people in the district must decide upon in the coming election."

RECORD VOTE FOR HISGEN IN CLINTON

CLINTON, Oct. 16.—Peter F. O'Malley was the choice of the Independence League convention for this town, last night. Representative in General Court from the fourth Worcester district. He is the secretary of the League Town Committee and one of the prominent merchants of Clinton, being proprietor of a jewelry store. He is thirty-five years old, was born in Clinton and educated in its public schools. He has for years been prominent in politics, and says he expects to be elected as a League nominee on the Hisgen ticket.

Thomas E. Flaherty, the League candidate for State Auditor, in discussing the League situation in Clinton, said:

"We will carry Clinton for Tom Hisgen, and the whole State ticket is going to run exceptionally strong in Clinton. There are but two parties in Clinton at this time, and this being an industrial town, there is no question with which party the majority of the voters will go on election day. I repeat that I am confident that Hisgen will carry Clinton."

SPRINGFIELD MOB BACKED BY G. O. P. CASH

—E. GERRY BROWN.

Brockton A. F. of L. Delegate Pleads with Big Assembly to Down Bosses by Ballots.

DEFI HURLED AT DRAPER.

Special to the Boston American.

MILFORD, Oct. 16.—"Republican money was used in the contest saturday at Springfield," declared Labor Leader E. Gerry Brown of Brockton in an impassioned outburst, while the thousands of union workmen cheered and applauded the sentiment at the labor rally held in the Town Hall.

Enthusiasm ran riot and the cheering outbursts were frequent when the veteran labor leader, who is the candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the Independence League ticket, spoke.

The reference to Springfield occurred during a strong denunciation of the moneyed interests which try to control the political situation by forcing candidates on parties in order that the labor interests may be defeated.

The speech of Delegate Brown and the challenge of Secretary-Treasurer D. D. Driscoll of the State Branch, American Federation of Labor, to Lieutenant-Governor Eben S. Draper, the ruler of Hopedale, to debate his record were the most exciting incidents of the labor mass meeting that crowded the large Town Hall to overflowing.

"Labor Made Capital Tremble."

Labor men, and especially union men, many of whom thronged the hall, were urged to select the best candidate at the polls to represent them at the State House, irrespective of political party affiliations.

"When the future history of this country is written," said E. Gerry Brown, "it will show that the Republic was saved by organized labor, which knows neither race nor creed.

"Capital trembled when labor won its first eight-hour fight and it shuddered last Fall when the votes were counted in this State, so much so that an eight-hour day was granted at Washington, D. C.

"Capital has quite often succeeded in dictating candidates to the dominant political parties and the control of Springfield shows it has no other way to stop the great onward march of labor. But labor has learned its lesson and knows what it wants to get, and that is by intelligent use of the ballot."

Child Labor in Milford.

"We should sweep aside every obstacle and bring about an effective disruption of our organizations. The union preaches the practical uplifting politically and socially of the country.

"Talk about child labor in the South? Why not go into Milford at 6 p. m. fight here in Milford and you can see boys in their knee breeches on their way to work. But you don't read that fact in the papers, when a mere child can earn a dollar a man per line, the way Draper advertises. You have got to organize for your protection, liberty, home and comfort.

"They raise your wages and up goes the price of living. Judge Sheldon fined Ayl Oil $20,000,000 and up goes the price of coal, but they don't pay the fine.

"To remedy this condition we must pay attention to our political duties and instead of sending men who enact laws allowing trusts and graft to plunder, send men who will see that the man who produces the wealth gets a square deal and not give it all to the capitalist who does not produce a thing. Organize use of the ballot will right matters."

"Shyster Lawyers Tools of Trusts."

John E. Potts, president of the Carpenters' Trades Council of Boston, declared amid applause that labor men should be put on guard in the Legislature, "not because there are no honest men there, for all and emest laws than others."

Mr. Potts said that labor has men of more brains and honesty than these self-made cheap lawyers acting in the interests of wealth."

President A. M. Haddell of Boston C. L. U.; Miss Mary C. Crawford, of the Women's Trades Union, and State President Edward Cohen, A. F. of L., also spoke. Resolutions were adopted approving the attitude of the Douglas Shoe Company in observing the terms of its contract against the attack of a hostile body calling itself a trade union.

EVERETT HEARS BARNES ACCUSE HIM AS SLAYER

Government Opens To-day in Sensational Murder Trial at South Paris, Me.

ATTACK ON MAN'S RECORD

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Oct. 16.—Alleging that after a desperate struggle for his life, Edgar L. Radcliffe was overpowered, was stabbed in the throat with his own jackknife and his body thrown into the powder house and blown up with dynamite, County Attorney Charles P. Barnes, to-day, makes the opening address for the State in the case of Wallace G. Everett, who is on trial for the murder of Radcliffe, who was killed at Crocker Hill mine on Thursday night, June 13.

County Attorney Barnes has expressed his purpose to "show up the record of this man Everett," listing back fifteen years or more the stone sledge that while the two men were apparently friends Radcliffe lived in constant fear of Everett, and for this reason did not dare to testify against him when he was arrested charged with dynamiting Bert Cummings's well.

The State further charges that by invitation of Everett, Radcliffe visited him at the mine of which he was caretaker on the night of June 13; that a quarrel ensued and that after a hand-to-hand struggle Everett, who is a powerfully built man, struck Radcliffe down; that while the victim was still unconscious he took the knife from Edgar's own pocket and drove the long, slender blade deep into his throat. Then to cover up the crime, the body was thrown into the powder house and blown to pieces.

Everett was very nervous throughout the proceedings yesterday. Before the clerk had finished reading the indictment, the respondent, in a shouting voice, cried out:

"I am innocent. I tell you I did not kill Edgar Radcliffe."

This caused a slight commotion in the court, but quiet was soon restored. At the suggestion of the County Attorney the prisoner in the custody of two deputy sheriffs accompanied the jury and attorneys to Crocker Hill Mine yesterday afternoon, where a couple of hours were spent in studying the scene of the tragedy. Everett was led to the spot where the stabbing is charged to have taken place and there stood surveying the surrounding country and breathing the pure, fresh air.

As the details of that fatal night were gone over in his presence, he manifested no emotion.

The jury is composed of the following: N. Dayton Bonsey, Paris, foreman; H. W. Cox, Hebron; George H. Barrows, Sumner; W. L. Frost, Sweden; C. P. Berry, Buckfield; Charles A. Herrick, Byfield; Elvin F. Whitney, Woodstock; George B. McClennanan, Rumford; Roscoe A. Stevens, Sumner; Oscar G. Chandler, Sumner; A. D. Wight, Gilead; S. Dana Dudley, Woodstock.

SEEK REQUISITION PAPERS.

Requisition papers are being sought of Governor Guild to bring from Middleton, O., one of the three alleged murderers of Daniel Mason, who met his death at Newton May 23 last.

The Critic.

The critic is of an analytical temperament, and is happier when he can dissect an act or person than when he can praise. He has dead-head the hidden motives of his fellowmen.

He derives a flaw in a previous bowl, spoils his digestion and the rest of the day has gall pills in tender fingers, and waxes eloquent on the imperfect diction of a famous poet. The greatest critics in the world have been unable to discover the slightest defects in Dr. Burkhart's Vegetable Compound, the famous remedy being above every criticism. The action is so perfect and the results so satisfactory that all criticism immediately ceases; that they have only words of praise for that remedy which renders invaluable services in cases of rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, female complaints, indigestion, etc. Thirty days' treatment 25c. All druggists.

Teeth Restoration

Dr. King's Restoration Method of replacing your teeth does away with the artificial plate, and is superior to the old style mechanical and artificial looking work.

By the Restoration method the natural duplicates of your lost teeth are inserted in your mouth so naturally that they bear the same relation to your gums as did your own natural teeth.

There is absolutely no artificial showing—no rubber, paste of plate, or false looking teeth.

Call, or send for Dr. King's Restoration Method when you call. It pro- duces one of the most beautiful and natural effects in dentistry.

No Old Style Dental Work

Done! let our dentist put old-style teeth in your mouth, either on a set, crown or bridge, they will surely look false. Before having dental work done investigate Dr. King's Natural Gums. They are the crown and bridge work of the future, known to dental science that look absolutely natural, even in color and shape. Write for prices and our longer paying offer to old-style denture-ty. See Dr. King and get the latest.

Full set teeth, gold crowns, bridge work $5; gold filling, $1 up; other fillings 50c.; painless extraction free with sets ordered. Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sundays 10 to 2 p. m. Consultation and advice free.

THOMAS JEFFERSON KING, D. D. S.

Graduate of Dr. King's Restoration Method for Replacing Lost Teeth, and Originator of the Only Safe System of Painless Extraction. Specialist in Crown and Bridge Work, Gold Fillings and Artificial Teeth, etc. All cricles reserved.

DR. KING

478 Washington Street

Our Area 8c. 1098 Temple Pl.

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

OLD CROW RYE

Delicious flavor. Sold only in our registered bottles. Never sold in bulk.

All Dealers

H. B. KIRK & CO., Sole Bottlers, N.Y.

Get Well

MUNYON'S 3X RHEUMATISM CURE

seldom fails to relieve in one to three hours, and cures in a few days.

Munyon's Paw-Paw Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of kidney disease in from 1 to 20 days. Price, 25c.

Munyon's 3X Kidney Cure speedily cures pains in the back, loins or groins and all forms of kidney disease. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Headache Cure stops headache in three minutes. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Blood Cure eradicates all impurities and cures any blood disease. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Cold Cure prevents pneumonia and breaks up a cold in one day. Price, 25c.

Munyon's Vitalizer restores lost powers to weak men and women. Price, $1.

Munyon's Remedies at all druggists, mostly at 25 cents a vial.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good. I was a sight, my face was full of pimples and black heads, and I was ashamed to look at myself. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. They are the best I ever took in my life. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."—Fred C. Wilson, 76 Elm St., Newark, N. J.

Best for the Bowels

Cascarets

CANDY CATHARTIC

THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Pleasant. Palatable. Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c. 25c. 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped CCC. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.

Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N.Y. 595

ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

DEATH NOTICES.

BARRINGER—In Dorchester, Oct. 15, Mary Barringer, widow of Rufus Barringer. Funeral from her late residence, 50 Pond st., Thursday, Oct. 17, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

COLLINS—In Malteman, Oct. 15, Margaret A. Collins.

Funeral from residence, 1849 Blue Hill av., Thursday, 9, services at 10 in St. Angela Church, Dorchester. Lower Mills. Relatives and friends invited.

COUGH—In South Boston, Oct. 15, Patrick, husband of the late Bridget Cough.

Funeral from his late residence, 12 Dale st., Tuesday, at 8:30 a. m., thence to Church of Providence at the Gate of Heaven, at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

CRAY—In Dorchester, Oct. 14, Catherine D., beloved daughter of Richard and Mary Gray.

Funeral from residence, 1 Bowdoin Park, Dorchester, Oct. 17, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

DUNN—In Dorchester, Oct. 15, Margaret A. Collins.

Funeral from residence, 1849 Blue Hill av., Thursday, Oct. 17, at 9:30 a. m., thence to the Church of Providence at the Gate of Heaven, at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DUNN—In Dorchester, Oct. 14, Ann Dunn, widow of Stephen Dunn.

Funeral from her late residence, 44 Medford st., Thursday, Oct. 17, at 8:30 a. m., thence to Church of Providence at the Gate of Heaven, at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited. New York papers please copy.

DUNN—In Dorchester, Oct. 14, Catherine L., beloved daughter of the late Timothy and Nellie Dunn, aged 25 yrs.

Funeral from residence of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Collins, 1849 Blue Hill av., Thursday, at 9:30 a. m., thence to Church of Providence at the Gate of Heaven, at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

MORGAN—In Roxbury, Oct. 14, Margaret, widow of Arthur Morgan.

Funeral from her late residence, 56 Belle av., Thursday, at 8:30 a. m., thence to St. Patrick's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

NORTHGRAVE—In Hyde Park, Oct. 14, William A., son of the late William H. and Adelaide Northgrave, aged 23 yrs.

Funeral from said Fuller Hall, Friendly Open House Hall, Hyde Park, Thursday, Oct. 17, at 2 p. m. Friends invited.

STEVENS—In Dorchester, Oct. 14, Catherine, Gertrude Maud, daughter of the late General Ingo L. Stevens.

Funeral services at 8 Bowdoin av., on Thursday at 2:30 p. m. Interment private.

TURNROSE—In South Boston, Oct. 14, Anna L., wife of Otto Turnrose.

Funeral from her mother's residence, 40 Ward Street av., Roxbury, Thursday, Oct. 17, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited. Burial at Woodlawn.

WRIGHT—At Boston City Hospital, Oct. 14, Abigail A., widow of Joseph Wright, aged 74 yrs. Funeral from her late residence, 11 Bullard st., Tuesday, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Relatives and friends invited.

Established 1849 Telephone 668 Oxford

LEWIS JONES & SON

UNDERTAKERS

No. 80 LAGRANGE STREET

Reasonable prices, prompt service, Graduated embalmers. Entire building containing every facility, devoted to our business.

No charge for Chapel.

REMOVAL

to 24 Tremont St., Kimball Bldg.

J. NEWMAN & SONS, Inc.

FLORIST.

FORMER LIEUT. GOVERNOR DIES

BRISTOL, R. I., Oct. 16.—After an illness of several months, former Lieutenant-Governor William Thomas Church Ward died at his home in Bristol early today. For the past ten years Mr. Wardwell has not been in the best of health, although he had for the greater part of the time been able to attend to a few business cares. The cause of death was a kidney affection.

Mr. Wardwell was born in Bristol September 20, 1835. He received his school education in Bristol. For many years he had been engaged in the retail lumber business.

He served several years in the Legislature, and in 1882 was elected Lieutenant-Governor on the Democratic candidate.

ELOPING GIRL HELD IN HOME

PITTSBURG, Oct. 16.—Miss Ida Scott, the schoolgirl sister of Mrs. Mary Scott Harrle, who was dragged into the notorious divorce case through the publication of letters written by Howard Lappe, to Lappe, is here at the home of her father, John F. Scott. It is believed here that she was released from New York fashionable schoolgirl Morristown, N. J.

Detectives went to the school to see that the girl did not elope with young Lappe again. The people in charge of the school notified the detectives and said Mr. Scott that she must be taken back home. She refused to go with her father.

Miss Scott is being held a prisoner in the Scott home, and not even her most intimate girl friends are allowed to see her.

Avoid a Breakdown

INSOMNIA

Quickly Cured By

Ada-lur-iem

(TRADE MARK)

A nerve-fulfilling remedy for the most frequent cause of Nervous Breakdown.

Nervous Exhaustion

easily made to wonderful health.

Ada-lur-iem

(TRADE MARK)

restores and strengthens the whole nervous system and prevents nervous prostration.

Thousands of Physicians use Dr. Neve Specialties exclusively.

Ada-lur-iem

(TRADE MARK)

(Formula of Dr. W. W. Neve, Brandreth) because its results are permanent and it contains no chloral, morphine, or other habit-forming drug. It is a genuine tonic-builder. Sold by druggists, or sent (sealed) by Adalur-iem Medicine Co., 741-745 80th Ave., New York.

Booklet on "Nervousness" (mailed) free.

The oyster season begins with September and ends with April.

The soup season begins with January and ends with December. Therefore are in season every day in every month of every year.

Oysterettes

Oysterettes—oyster crackers with a taste that improves the flavor of oysters, soup and chowder.

Always fresh in moisture and dust proof packages 5¢

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

PRAY FOR MAN WHO STOLE THEIR $55,000

PUTNAM, Ct., Oct. 16.—Prayers were offered at the annual Connecticut Baptist convention for the salvation of William F. Walker of New Britain, the former treasurer of the convention, who absconded last Winter with $55,000 belonging to the convention.

Stolen from the Winchendon, Mass., Postoffice, a Registered Letter, Containing the Following Certificates:

No. 30, Peoples Gas Co. common in name of A. Mercier & Co., No. 1846, 100 shs. American Sugar Refining Co. common in name of L. Paul & Co., No. 1847, 10 shs. do. do. in name of A. Mercier & Co., No. 1848, 100 shs. do. do. in name of L. Paul & Co., No. 1849, 10 shs. do. do. in name of A. Mercier & Co., No. 1850, 100 shs. do. do. in name of George H. Burrows & Co., No. 1851, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1852, 2 shs. do. do. in name of George H. Burrows & Co., No. 1853, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1854, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1855, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1856, 2 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1857, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1858, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1859, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1860, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1861, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1862, 2 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1863, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1864, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1865, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1866, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1867, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1868, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1869, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1870, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1871, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1872, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1873, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1874, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1875, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1876, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1877, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1878, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1879, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1880, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1881, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1882, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1883, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1884, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1885, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1886, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1887, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1888, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1889, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1890, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1891, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1892, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1893, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1894, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1895, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1896, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1897, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1898, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1899, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1900, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1901, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1902, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1903, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1904, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1905, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1906, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1907, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1908, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1909, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1910, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1911, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1912, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1913, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1914, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1915, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1916, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1917, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1918, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1919, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1920, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1921, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1922, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1923, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1924, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1925, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1926, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1927, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1928, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1929, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1930, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1931, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1932, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1933, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1934, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1935, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1936, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1937, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1938, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1939, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1940, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1941, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1942, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1943, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1944, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1945, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1946, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1947, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1948, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1949, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1950, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1951, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1952, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1953, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1954, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1955, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1956, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1957, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1958, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1959, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1960, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1961, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1962, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1963, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1964, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1965, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1966, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1967, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1968, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1969, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1970, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1971, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1972, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1973, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1974, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1975, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1976, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1977, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1978, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1979, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1980, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1981, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1982, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1983, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1984, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1985, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1986, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1987, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1988, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1989, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1990, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1991, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1992, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1993, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1994, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1995, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1996, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1997, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1998, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 1999, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2000, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2001, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2002, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2003, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2004, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2005, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2006, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2007, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2008, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2009, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2010, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2011, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2012, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2013, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2014, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2015, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2016, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2017, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2018, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2019, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2020, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2021, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2022, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2023, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2024, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2025, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2026, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2027, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2028, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2029, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2030, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2031, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2032, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2033, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2034, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2035, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2036, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2037, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2038, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2039, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2040, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2041, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2042, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2043, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2044, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2045, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2046, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2047, 10 shs. do. do. in name of Burrows & Co., No. 2048, 10 shs. do

MOTHER WILL FIGHT FOR SON SHE KIDNAPPED

'I Could Not Do Without Him,' Declares Mrs. Clark, Now Mysteriously Missing.

WARRANT OUT FOR ARREST

Mystery to-day surrounds the whereabouts of Mrs. Adelaide G. Clark, who took her five-year-old boy, Carlton Clark-Kremer, from Miss Malvina Kremer, sister of Dr. Gerhard C. Kremer, of No. 857 Lexington avenue, New York, and fled to this city. Mrs. Helen Buchanan of Dorchester, mother of Mrs. Clark, who met her daughter and grandson when they arrived on the steamer Harvard, says she does not know where they are.

The last seen of the mother and boy was when they were hurried from the steamer into a cab and driven to the Copley Square Hotel, where they remained but a few moments and then disappeared.

Husband Won't Fight.

Although a warrant has been issued in New York for the arrest of Mrs. Clark, her former husband, Forest D. Clark, of No. 147 Harvard street, Dorchester, says he will take no steps here to deprive the mother of her son. Instead he says he will attempt to persuade Dr. Kremer, who adopted the child, to take no action against Mrs. Clark. Mrs. Clark's mother, too, declares, entitles her to her baby, and if she wishes to keep him with her he can see no one who has the right to take him away.

According to a message from New York this morning, an officer is now on his way here with the warrant for Mrs. Clark's arrest, and it is said he will try to persuade the mother to give up the child without legal steps. If Mrs. Clark can be found and agrees to this it is said Dr. Kremer will be entirely satisfied.

That Mrs. Clark will consent to such an arrangement is considered doubtful, as the only statement that she made during the hurried drive from steamer to hotel showed her readiness to fight to the end rather than to give up the boy. "I just had to take him," she declared. "He is my child, my boy, my love. I could not do without him. That is all there is to tell."

The young woman who assisted Mrs. Clark in securing possession of the child was arraigned in New York on a charge of assault on Miss Kremer and gave the name of Georgia Gordon of No. 200 West Eighty-fourth street, New York. She was released under bonds of $500 and then rearrested on a warrant charging her with aiding in larceny with Mrs. Clark in the kidnapping of the little boy.

At the Dorchester home of Mr. Clark it was said Dr. and Mrs. Kremer have at various times expressed their willingness to give back the boy to either of the parents, but that they failed to do so when their words were made.

...NAPPED BOY AND ...THER NOT NOW AT ...E IN DORCHESTER

Helen Buchanan of No. 7 Mountain avenue, Dorchester, grandmother of the kidnapped boy, said:

"I know I don't know where my daughter or her little baby boy are now. I am expecting them here every minute. When we left the Harvard to-day she was agreeing right to the Copley Square Hotel, while I came here to get the house ready for them.

"She has left the hotel, I suppose, expecting her to come right here. I think that she has gone to some friends who live near Boston and that she is afraid that the Boston police will be after her here.

"I think that she will soon learn there is little danger of that, and she will soon come home with her child.

Engineer on Big Steamers.

"I never knew or heard that my daughter had been married to Mr. Clark. My daughter lived with him after they were married for about one year. They couldn't agree, so she left him. I am told that Mr. Clark was a Protestant, and they were married by a Protestant minister of Dorchester about six years ago. For a time they lived with me, but later they removed to New York.

"Mr. Clark worked for the Metropolitan Steamship Line as chief engineer. He was on the Harvard when he first met Miss Kremer and then on the Henry M. Whitney. He never was on Harvard, I believe, that I know of and he never met Dr. Kremer there as far as I know.

Says Doctor Kept Baby.

"How my daughter and baby got acquainted with Dr. Kremer is like this. After my daughter left her husband she went to board at the house of Dr. Kremer, taking her baby with her. Dr. Kremer's family cared for the baby while my daughter worked as a stenographer. In the meantime Mr. Clark, after my daughter's husband, made a deal with Dr. Kremer to keep the child.

"When my daughter was leaving Dr. Kremer's home she went to get the baby and wanted to take the baby with her, but Dr. Kremer refused to allow her to do this. She actually demanded that she give him $500 for the baby's room, board and care. My daughter scraped together $200 in cash and gave it to Dr. Kremer and a note for $300.

Candidate for Alderman.

"The doctor refused to give up the child even then, and said that he would not do so until the note was paid. I went to New York myself twice within a week and pleaded with the doctor to give up the child, for my daughter was almost frantic with grief at the time that she was not allowed to have her baby boy, to whom she is devoted as only a tender hearted, loving mother can be.

Captain Forest C. Clark is a printer and runs an establishment in Federal street. He is a candidate for Alderman from Ward 20.

3 KILLED AS CAR TURNS OVER

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 16.—An Elberon avenue car jumped over at a curve on a steep grade to-day. Three persons were killed and twenty injured.

WORKMEN IN PANIC IN TRENCH; 1 DYING

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—One man was fatally injured and the lives of thirty more endangered when a rubber slide suddenly compressed air to the laborers at work in the north of the tunnel in Brooklyn opening plank to-day and trapped the men more than 100 feet under the East River at the foot of Jerolomon street, Brooklyn. A followed the cry that the supply of air was becoming exhausted.

FINED FOR POOR MILK.

Daniel Sweeney, driver of a milk wagon for D. Whiting & Son of Revere, pleaded guilty to-day to having impure milk before Judge Besson in the Chelsea police court and was fined $15. The fine was paid.

MRS. BURKE-ROCHE-BATONYI

Beautiful wife of society whip is the storm centre of a bitter marital quarrel, which is now exercising the tongues of Newport society gossips.

LABOR NEWS

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL 96 BOSTON, MASS.

The lumber dealers and the arbitration board of the Teamsters' and Handlers' Union No. 112 met at Young's Hotel last night and took up the matter of the agreement adopted early last year. After brief discussion adjournment was taken to the latter part of the week.

The agreement in force from Oct. 1, 1907, to April 1, 1908, calls for nine hours a day from Monday to Friday inclusive, and five hours on Saturday for inspectors, tallymen and regular yard men, teamsters and engineers to work the same number of hours and the additional time required to properly care for their horses. The question that two employers were not living up to the agreement will be discussed.

Labor Notes.

A special meeting of the bill committee of Boston No. 12, N. A. S. E., will be held next Monday. After a strike of twenty weeks the church organ workers have signed all but two firms. The strike has lasted since last week and $200 for the strike fund.

The United Textile Workers' seventh annual convention at Providence will not close until Saturday.

Roxbury Association No. 14, N. A. S. E., opens its educational meetings next Friday night at 8.

Benson Association No. 30, N. A. S. E., meets in Temple of Honor Hall, Cambridge, to-night. James Duncan speaks on "Pumps and Elevators."

An international congress of ship owners was opened yesterday to discuss, especially, the growing strength of the dock workers' unions.

Teamsters' Local No. 191 meets at Teamsters' Hall to-morrow night.

T. E. Connors, George R. J. Henry, William Wheeler, James Mullen, M. J. Dwyer, John Wall and George Hosier will represent the Packers' Protective Union as delegates to the Central Labor Union.

Stablemen's Union No. 497 meets to-night to consider action toward the Back Bay Master Stablemen.

Local 262, I. U. S. E., will hold its regular meeting Thursday night at No. 993 Washington street.

Twenty thousand shoe workers unanimously refused to accept the manufacturers offers in the West.

Laundry Wagon Drivers No. 650 will meet at the New Teamsters' Hall the second and fourth Wednesday. The last meeting at the old hall will be next Monday.

200,000 Trading Stamps are given away Free. A big allotment of prizes with next SUNDAY'S AMERICAN.

NO COCKTAILS FOR TAFT.

MANILA, Oct. 16.—Much discussion has been caused here by the fact that no liquors will be served at the functions in Mr. Taft's honor to be held at the palaces, which step is said to have been taken at the direction of the Secretary.

BAD LUNGS HEALED

It matters not what doctors you have consulted, what treatment you have used, we have a CURE, our INHALATORIUM AND INHALER. This treatment is a specific for all diseases of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. It is odorless, painless and is so full and complete in its results that we positively guarantee a cure. Proved healing is not a cure. There are all sorts of "cures" but they die or relapse. Our treatment is the only one that cures. The INHALATORIUM TREATMENT is the only one that is absolutely safe. Now don't argue against it. Don't say that Dr. Tells or Professor Test tried him and said that the open air is your only chance. This proves nothing except that they don't know what they are talking about. Don't say that Dr. Knowsall says something which will do all we claim, viz., Cure Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh. Asthmat and it is the only method which will do this work in any particular number of cases.

If you have a cough of any kind, don't take chances. Cancel to attend it. Only a cough now—if neglected may cause months of suffering or perhaps life. Don't suffer if Cardiac Consultation is free.

BOSTON CLINIC, Inc.

176 Tremont St., Boston

Suites 6, 7 and 8.

Hours, 9 to 8 daily; Sundays, 10 to 1.

NEWPORT IS NOW AFRAID OF BATONYI

Society Whip's Threat of Exposure is Worrying Former Friends.

PLANS BITTER FIGHT

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 16.—Newport residents, excitedly discussing the now famous Burke-Roche-Batonyi-Work episode are manifesting no little uneasiness over the threat made by the society whip to "expose" them. The bitterness of the quarrel between the beautiful woman, who was formerly Mrs. Burke-Roche, with her husband, Batonyi, and the unexpected turn of affairs when her millionaire father turned against her and refused to have anything to do with her, were vague materials for society gossip.

But Batonyi's bold declaration to meet his wife's charges in open court and "show up" Newport has brought consternation into many families here and developments are awaited with trembling anxiety.

This is the declaration by Batonyi last year which is worrying society:

"We will demand a jury trial of the divorce case, and the revelations will be as amazing to the fashionable world as were the details of the Thaw trial."

Batonyi's chief counsel, Edward A. Alexander, says that his client has not misrepresented conditions and that the suit of Mrs. Batonyi will result in an expose of American society conditions that will probably induce many social leaders to take a trip to Europe for their health.

1-CENT VERDICT FOR SCHOALES IN LOVE SUIT

Cambridge Man Sued Blind Musician for Alienating Wife's Affections.

A verdict of one cent for Alfred B. Schoales, who sued Harry W. Welch, blind musician for $10,000, was the sealed verdict rendered by a jury in the Cambridge Superior Civil Court to Judge Hardy to-day as the finish of a celebrated Cambridge alienation suit.

The verdict, it is understood, was found on the first count which charged Welch with gaining Mrs. Schoales's affections. The court offered another count thrown out and on the third jury found on grounds for damages, which accused the musician of enticing the woman from home.

The case went to the jury yesterday afternoon, and the jury locked in the room with the verdict after deliberating until after 9 o'clock last night.

It was a suit which inspired great interest. Mr. Welch, who is known all over the country, denied all the charges which Schoales made against him. Schoales and his wife are separated by divorce, and the woman was a witness in the alienation suit, testifying that she was but fifteen years old when she became a wife, and asserting that her husband soon became cruel and abusive. Once she said she came home while under the influence of liquor and locked her out of the house. She told the court that she had had to pass that night in an outbuilding.

According to the woman's testimony she first met the musician at a whist party and was amused at his skill in playing cards, which he could not see. Afterwards she visited the Schoales house to tune a piano, but he never, she said, was home with her but once, and that was in the kitchen, while her son was entertaining company in the parlor.

UNCLE SAM HEAVY LOSER.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Although treasury officials admit that the United States Treasury will be from $750,000 to $800,000 short as a result of the $1,000,000 loan to the Jamestown Exposition, the government will not take over the exposition.

Mr. Cortelyou sees no way to get back the loan, if he should seize the fair, and will allow it to run on and get back what he can. So far, but $125,000 of the loan has been repaid, and less than that amount more is expected.

TELEGRAPHERS TO ASK AID OF ALL UNION MEN

At Big National Convention Will Ask Universal Assessment of 10 Cents a Week.

SMALL TO BE DISCIPLINED

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—A national convention of striking telegraphers, to be held in Milwaukee October 23, and a universal assessment of ten cents a week upon every working union man in the country are the chief plans formulated by the leaders yesterday for the financing of the rejuvenated telegraphers' strike.

At the national convention of strikers President Gompers and the supreme officers of the American Federation of Labor will decide upon the question of calling out the railroad telegraphers in a sympathetic strike.

The convention will also take up the matter of the assessment, but from present indications the strikers' own union for funds, which, he says, are still available.

Unless that money is at once forthcoming, said Mr. Thomas, "I will go to Chicago and hold an investigation. Small has gone back there already, and we think we know the reason why. He will be relied at the Milwaukee convention for his weakkneed attempt to call off the strike."

1 HIGH COURT TO PASS ON COAL CONSPIRACY

Rhode Island Judge Refers Case of Indicted Dealers to Supreme Bench.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 16.—Judge Darius Baker of the Rhode Island Superior Court decided yesterday that the demurrers in the case of the coal dealers, indicted in February last on the charge of conspiring to regulate the price of coal, involve a question of law which the Supreme Court should decide before the case goes on.

In regard to the demurrers, Judge Baker says in his report:

"Law Is Confused."

"An examination of the numerous decisions of textwriters and of the cases in the briefs filed the case, while revealing two lines of authorities on some of the fundamental questions involved, show clearly that the law of criminal conspiracy in respect to cases alleging restraint of trade, a long-developing law, is in a very confused and unsatisfactory condition.

"The third ground of demurrer is the one upon which it is chiefly relied. It is contended by the defendants were independent dealers in coal or otherwise and had any power in the market to fix the price thereof or to restrain trade therein. As a matter of pleading all these allegations necessary?

"It is ill sufficient in such cases to allege the agreement only, or pleading allegations to do the act charged? If the latter be all that is required, proof of agreement will establish guilt. It cannot be material whether the defendants are coal dealers or not, or have power to perform the act agreed upon, and it is unnecessary as a matter of pleading, to allege such facts."

"To Stifle Competition."

"In most reported cases where combinations in restraint of trade have been held to be criminal the persons charged with crime have been independent dealers in some article of trade.

"And this seems an essential element of the crime, the charging that the purpose is to remain independent dealers, and by agreement to stifle competition by arbitrarily fixing the price of, or permitting it to be determined by competition."

HIGH CLUBS TO HAVE BIG CELEBRATION

Never in the history of Irish organizations in this city has there been such an awakening on the heed of stopping the draining of the old land by emigration as there is this year. Since the advent of the Irish County Clubs in this city there has been a revival of the industries of Ireland, the purpose of which is to stimulate trade between Irish manufacturers and Irish-Americans doing business in this way the members of the Irish County Clubs expect to check the exodus of the people of Ireland by providing work for them in their own country.

There are established in Boston some twenty five subordinate branches, each representing a county in Ireland, the members of which are actively engaged in promoting the industrial movement in Ireland. All these clubs are planning for a demonstration in the near future in this city, at which it is hoped to have present samples of Irish made goods and eminent Irishmen who are connected with their manufactures to demonstrate the practicability of enlisting the support of Irishmen homes in America in handling and selling such goods.

The Boston Central Council of the United Irish County Clubs, of which Marcus J. O'Brien is president, will meet shortly in Paine Memorial Hall, Appleton street, to take definite action on the present situation. The findings of the central body will then be forwarded to the other branches throughout the State.

HOOPER OPENS LEAGUE FIGHT IN SOMERVILLE

Thomas Hooper, Independence League candidate for Councillor in the Fourth District, opens his campaign in Somerville this evening by holding a smoke talk in the Bingham School, Lowell street, where he will speak, together with a number of other prominent speakers.

John T. Dockery, of South Boston, the well-known labor leader, will discuss the Anti-Merger Bill. He will point out the effects of the merging of the Boston & Maine with the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad companies. In addition to the speaking there will be an entertainment given. All Somerville voters are cordially invited.

200,000 Trading Stamps are given away Free. A big allotment of prizes with next SUNDAY'S AMERICAN.

RECOVER $6,375 FROM L

As a result of injuries sustained while boarding a train on the "L" at Haymarket square, September 20, 1903, Mrs. Catherine Hennessey, recovered in the Superior Court yesterday a verdict of $5,375. Her husband, John Hennessey, received a verdict of $1,000 for medical attendance.

50 YEARS BOSTON'S LEADING CLOAK & SUIT STORE

STARR'S

35 TO 41 WINTER STREET

New Autumn Suits $12.75 $15.00 Models at . .

Wednesday and Thursday Sale

THE economically inclined woman won't hesitate a minute to buy one of these $15.00 suits for $12.75 when she has examined the manner in which they are tailored and finished throughout—all made to our order, of excellent quality—brown, blue or black serge, French back, fly front or double breasted style, strong, serviceable satin linings, three pockets, turn cuffs, skirts the prevailing pleated style. The picture will give you an idea. Always $15. Wednesday and Thursday sale . . . $12.75

(Mail Orders Filled.)

Broadcloth Coats
First Floor.

Greatest value ever offered—50-inch length, fine broadcloth coats, beautifully satin lined throughout, silk velvet collar and braid trimmed, turn cuffs, $12.50 coats. Wednesday and Thursday. Sale Price $6.75

1, Starr & Co., 35-41 Winter St.

Petticoat Sale
Second Floor.

Black moreen petticoats, deep flounce, 11 bias bands and dust ruffle; extra wide for stout ladies, 75 inches around hips and over 4 yards at bottom. $2.00 value, Wednesday and Thursday Sale Price..... $1.25

1, Starr & Co., 35-41 Winter St.

WEDNESDAY DOUBLE STAMPS ALL DAY

At the following stores:

HOUGHTON & DUTTON CO.

GILCHRIST CO.--BUTLER'S

BRINE'S--WOLF'S "My Clothier"

(Afternoon Only)

Full Books of Legal Stamps are Redeemable at the Above Stores for $2.50 in Merchandise or $2.00 in Cash

W.L. DOUGLAS

THE BEST $3.50 SHOES

Men in every walk of life, in all professions and trades, the gentleman of leisure and the working-man—all wear W.L. Douglas $3.50 shoes because they are the best.

$25,000 Reward

To any one who can prove that W.L. Douglas does not make more $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer.

THE REASON W.L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are worn by more men in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy fitting and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater value than any other $3.50 shoe.

The only method of banding the bottom soles produces more flexible and longer wearing leather than any other tannage.

W. L. DOUGLAS $4.00 GILT EDGE SHOE

Cannot Be Equalled at Any Price.

W. L. DOUGLAS BOYS' SHOES $1.75 AND $2.00. JUST THE SAME AS MY MEN'S $3.50 SHOES. THE SAME LEATHERS, FOR $1.75 AND $2.00.

CAUTION. The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take no substitute. When in need of shoes, if not convenient to go to W. L. Douglas store, ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes mailed everywhere. Illustrated Catalog free. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass.

W. L. Douglas Shoe Stores in Boston:

635 Washington Street, 391 Washington Street, cor. School, 150 Hanover Street, 7 Summer Street, cor. Lincoln, 83 Court Street, cor. Howard

Boston American Daily Home Page

Dorothy Dix Shows It Never Pays to Have a Swelled Cranium in Her Last Parable of

THE FIVE FOOLISH VIRGINS

The Fifth Foolish Virgin Found That Men Fled From Her Air of Supreme Superiority

By Dorothy Dix

THIS is the parable of the Fifth Foolish Virgin:

There was a certain maiden, who was the daughter of Rich but Honest Parents. Now, the Parents had not always been thus, before the formation of the Butcher Trust the Old Man had worn a White Apron and cut Tenderloin Steaks from the shoulders of Gory Beeves, and the Old Woman had wrestled with her own Pots and Pans and Sewing Machine.

While they were in these Humble Circumstances a little Female Sunbeam had come to Bless their Home, and they named her Sally, for they never Dreamed that one day she would be a Head Liner in the Society Push and need a cognomen that Looked Well in Print.

All of that happened Long Ago, however, before Pa was let in on the Ground Floor of the Meat Price Boosters, and people had quit referring to the Fa Butcher's Family as some of the New Rich, for they had had their Money Almost Ten years.

Did as Sally Said

Being Good American Parents who had been Properly Brought Up, and who knew that it was Fathers' and Mothers' First Duty to Obey their Children, they always did as Sally told them to, without making one Fuss about it.

First they sent her off to a Fashionable Finishing School, where she changed her name from Sally to Gladys, and acquired the High Handshake and a Near-English Accent.

When She returned Home she Moved her Parents out of their Comfortable Home among the old Friends, in which they had Lived for Many years, up to a Great Mansion among the Swells, where they Felt like Fish out of Water.

Likewise she undertook to Half Sole their Manners, and Edit their Conversation, and every time her Father put his Napkin tucked safely in his Collar and Waded Audibly into the Soup he caught Sal-Gladys's eye, and somehow it Took Away his Appetite.

All of this, while Painful for the Parents, was no concern of the General Public, and would never have Attracted any Particular Attention, except for the fact that after a while Sal-Gladys acquired the Superior Habit which was her Finish, and that Entitled her to Qualify in Class A of the Foolish Virgins.

For while a Girl's Parents will submit to being Looked Down on because they are used to their children taking that Point of View, other People will not stand for it.

Especially Men, and More Particularly Eligible Men, who are Scarce enough to expect to be Treated Like Realists.

Unfortunately, Sal-Gladys did not know this, and so when one of these Preferred Risks came her way, instead of giving him the Glad Hand, and getting out the Best Preserves, and Cutting the Fruit Cake, she assumed the Cold and Haughty Demeanor of an Office Boy who Demands to know what is your Name and Business.

And the Man who was accustomed to being welcomed with a Rose Bud would suddenly discover that he did not have Any Business whatsoever in that Particular Farthest North Neighborhood and Pass on.

"I do not see," said Sal-Gladys to her Dearest Friend, "why Men take to the Woods as my approach, without Warning. I may say I carry a Very Superior Line of Attractions, and I do not think anybody can dispute it," replied the Dearest Friend.

Was the Best Ever

"As for Looks," continued Sal-Gladys, "I have gotten the Balance of the Bunch in this Ballwick beaten a City Block."

"You could start a Beauty Show," admitted the Dearest Friend, twitching her own Engagement Ring.

"And as for Talker-Talk," went on Sal-Gladys, "when I tackle Bean and Sudermann and reel off a few Lines of Lyrics on Browning I have few equals and no Superiors among the Female Species."

"No one will dispute that you can Deliver the Conversational Goods," conceded the Dearest Friend.

"Why, then," demanded Sal-Gladys, "am I left to my Lonesome, while dubs of Ordinary Girls with Faces like the Illustrations in the Sunday Papers, and Intellects that are cut on the Bias, have Beaux to Trot them around to Places of Amusement, and Corral all the Good Chances?"

"Alas!" replied the Dearest Friend, "it is Because you are so Superior, and Superiority in a Woman is the Unpardonable Sin that No Man ever Forgives."

"But," protested Sal-Gladys, "I would be Willing to Lift the man I married up to my Level Topher."

"You will Never get the Chance to Hoist one to that Exalted Pinnacle, if he knows what is coming Beforehand," replied the Dearest Friend. "I have seen some Married Men with Clubs Chained to their Legs Lifted, and it is a Painful Process, that takes the skin off in spots and leaves the Vanity raw and Bleeding."

"Look what I have done for my Parents," urged Sal-Gladys.

Didn't Get Him

"That's the Trouble," the Dearest Friend answered, "they are an Object Lesson of what you would do to a Husband that scares Men off, for men are not such Fools about Women as they appear to be, and when they see a Girl that got her Father and Mother Hacked they have a Large, Life-Sized Portrait of a Despached Husband, whose Wife corrects his Grammar and Drags him around with her to the Places where she Speaks on Timely Political Topics."

"I should think a Man would be Proud of having a Superior Wife," said Sal-Gladys.

"When there's any Superiority lying Around, it is the Family the Man appropriates it for his own use," replied the Dearest Friend. "Anyway, What I am handing you is a load straight up, and that is that if men want to marry they get what you know, and get busy throwing handspikes at one Dark about what he knows. I have seen Cross-eyed and Red-headed and Lumpbackered Girls get married and girls who were tartars and Bitos catch good chances, but never have I had to pony up for a wedding present to a Superior young woman."

But the Superior one would not be convinced that men do not marry to get some one who they see is a Girl that got her Father and Mother Hacked they have a Large, Life-Sized Portrait of a Despached Husband, whose Wife corrects his Grammar and Drags him around with her to the Places where she Speaks on Timely Political Topics.

"I should think a Man would be Proud of having a Superior Wife," said Sal-Gladys.

"When there's any Superiority lying Around, it is the Family the Man appropriates it for his own use," replied the Dearest Friend.

THIS GIRL, TOO SUPERIOR FOR ANY EARTHLY USE, DIED AN OLD MAID. DO YOU WONDER WHY?

This parable teaches that the girl with the Swelled Cranium draws a Dead line around her that no man will cross, and that it pays to be kind to our parents, for we never know when they are being regarded as an awful warning.

The Ways of Women Are Not So Hard to Fathom, After All

By Beatrice Fairfax

"The Colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady Are sisters under the skin."

WHEN a man fails to understand a woman he blames it to her inconsistency. She never seems to think that possibly he may be a trifle dull of understanding.

All women are alike. They may have different roads of arriving at a conclusion, but eventually they all arrive at the same point.

The princess and the peasant suffer the same pangs, thrill with the same joys.

Social status makes no difference. The princess may hide her feelings where the peasant would give way to them, but the difference is just the same.

Same Emotions

A JEALOUS woman, for instance, is A just a jealous woman, be she princess or peasant. The same fury stirs her, the same longing for revenge.

The shop girl, trudging along the street, looks with envy at the girl, her own age, who flies by in an automobile.

"How lucky she is," sighs the little breadwinner, "and how happy she must be."

And yet she need not feel that way, for the chances are that the rich girl has just as many woes as the poor one.

A little more, a little less, makes no difference in the thorough life utterly free from sorrow.

The mere fact that you are a woman means that you must run the gamut of emotions.

You must take your turn at feeling glad, and sad, and mad.

Your individual trouble may be that you are not strong or that you are not successful, or that you may have an unfortunate love affair, and that last trouble, while it lasts, will seem the worst trouble of all.

And you will see no other woman ever suffered as you do, but they have just about ten thousand millions of them.

They have loved and they have been jealous and unhappy and desperate, and have gotten over it, and so will you.

All Alike

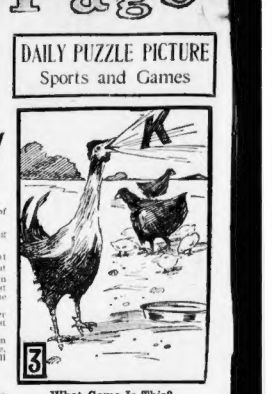
ANY woman who has ever felt jealous knows exactly how another woman feels in the same circumstances. And knowing this she should be very tolerant and sympathetic.

I never get over feeling sorry for my own sex. There seems to be no common plane for woman. She is always in the heights of bliss or in the abyss of woe. She wants love, sympathy and comprehension, and, alas! she rarely gets them.

Man takes it all on her complexity; says it is impossible to understand her, etc.

If he really understood one woman he would understand the entire sex, so perhaps it is just as well that he should continue in his ignorance.

Never think that because a woman occupies a high position socially she can dispense with love. She craves it just as much and feels the lack of it just as keenly as though she were earning $3 a week.



What Game Is This?

ANSWER:

ONE of these puzzle pictures is published daily in the BOSTON AMERICAN. Twenty dollars in prizes will be given weekly for the best answers.

The $20 in prizes will be divided as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| First prize | $10 |
| Second prize | 5 |
| Five prizes of $1 each | 5 |
| Total | $20 |

Cut out the puzzle picture each day, write your answer on each, and mail the complete set of seven to the Puzzle Editor, BOSTON AMERICAN. No. 3 in the picture will help your best suggestion as what the puzzles will be to use in the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

Where lists are equally correct the prizes will be given to those making the best suggestions.

The list of prize-winners of last week's contest together with the final picture in this week's series will be printed in next SUNDAY'S BOSTON AMERICAN.

THE TURN OF THE BALANCE

A Thrilling Romance of American Life---By Brand Whitlock

CHAPTER VII.—Continued

Copyright, 1907, by American-Journal-Examiner

TWICE a day they were fed on bogona and coffee and bread. At night they were locked in the cells, the lights were put out, and the place became a hideous bedlam. Men emerged from gross dissipations, vermin crawled and raced about, and the dregs of women, whose bodies from time to time were thrown into the place, went mad with terror when they awoke from their stupors, and cursed and blasphemed.

The crawling vermin and the scuttling rats, the noises that suggested monsters, made their delirium real.

The atmosphere of the prison was foul, compounded of the fumes of alcohol exhaled by all those gaping mouths, of the feculence of all those filthy bodies, of the foul odors of the slop-pails, of the germs of all the diseases that had been brought to the place in forty years. Archie could not sleep; no one could sleep except those who were overcome by liquor, and they had awful nightmares.

New Terrors

His few moments of relief came when the turnkey, a man who had been embruted by long years of locking other men in the place, opened the door at dawn with a curse and turned him over to Kouka. Then the respite ended.

He was subjected to new terrors, to fresh horrors, surpassing those physical terrors of the night by infinity. For Kouka and Quinn took him into a little room of the detectives' office, closed and locked the door, and then for two hours questioned him about the robbery of the post office at Ronico, about countless other robberies in the city and in all of the accused him of a hundred crimes, pressed him to tell where he had stolen the revolver.

They bent their wills against his, they shook their bodies under him, they struck fists in his face; they told him they knew where he had got the revolver, they told him that his companions had confessed. He was borne down and beaten; he felt himself grow weak and faint; at times a pauses overcame him—he was writhing with perspiration.

The first day of this ordeal he sat in utter silence, sustained by dogged Teutonic stubbornness. That afternoon they renewed the torture with all the old vigor.

The morning of the second day, though weakened in body and mind, he still maintained his stubbornness; that afternoon they had brought McFee, with a lighted candle, near on him.

By evening he told them he had stolen the revolver in Chicago. He did this in the hope of peace. It did gain him a little peace for long. The next morning they told him he had lied, and he admitted it; then he gave them a long explanation of his possession of the revolver, all different and all false.

Then, toward evening, Kouka suddenly fell upon him, knocked him from his chair with a blow, and then, as he lay on the floor, beat him with his enormous hairy fists.

Quinn, the only other person in the room, stood by and looked on. Finally, Quinn grew alarmed and said:

"Come, Ike, that's enough."

Kouka stopped and got up.

The Third Degree

Archie was weeping, his whole body trembling, his nerves gone. That night he lay moaning in his hammock, and the man in his cell under him and the man in the cell next to him, rousing at dawn the morning they took him again up to the detectives' office; this was the morning of the third day.

Archie was in a daze, his mind was no longer clear, and he wondered vaguely, but with scarcely any interest, why it was that Kouka looked so smiling and pleasant.

"Sit down, Arch, old boy," Kouka said, "and let me tell you about it."

And then Kouka told him just where he had stolen the revolver, and when, and how—told him, indeed, more about the hardware store and the owner of it than Archie had ever known.

Archie's mind did not seem surprised at this. He felt numbly that it was no longer worth while to deny. He wondered why he ever had denied it in the first place. It did not matter; nothing mattered; there was no difference between things—they were all the same. But immediately his mind became suddenly clear; he was conscious that there was one unanswered question in the world.

"Say, Kouka," he said, "how did you tumble?"

Kouka laughed. He was in fine humor that morning.

"Oh, it's no use, my boy," he said; "it's no use; you can't fool your Uncle Isaac. You'd better 'ave taken his advice long ago —and been a good boy."

"That's all right," said Archie, a strange calm having come to him because of the change in his mental attitude, "but who got wise?"

Kouka looked at Quinn and smiled and then he said to Archie:

"Oh, what you don't know won't hurt you."

Then he had Archie taken back to the prison, but before they locked him up Kouka gave him a box of cigarettes. He had taken from a prostitute whom he and arrested the night before, and he left Archie should just close the door of the place smoking one of the cigarettes.

"What have they been doing to you?" asked a prisoner.

"The third degree," said Archie, laconically.

The knowledge which Kouka preferred to shroud in mystery had been obtained in a simple way. Glancing over the records in the detective's office, he had he chance come across an old report of the robbery of a hardware store. Kouka had taken the revolver found on Archie to the merchant, the merchant had identified it. That evening Mairiott read in the newspapers comprehensive accounts of the brilliant work of Detective Kouka in solving the mystery that had surrounded a desperate burglary.

The articles gave Kouka the greatest praise.

CHAPTER VIII.

THE United States courtroom had been closed every day except Saturday and Sunday in May, but when it was thrown open for the hearing of the case against Dillon and Mason and the rest, it was immediately imbued with the atmosphere of Federal authority. This atmosphere, cold, austere and formal, smote Marriott like a blast as the moment he pushed through the green baize doors.

The great courtroom was furnished in black walnut; the dark walls immediately absorbed the light that came through the tall windows.

On the wall behind the bench was an oil portrait of a former judge; Marriott could see it now in the slanting light—the grave and solemn face, smooth-shaven, with the fine white hair above it, expressing somehow the older ideals of the republic. The whole room was somber and gloomy, suggesting the power of a mighty government poised sternly above the petty affairs which were blots of authority and old precedents in that atmosphere.

The reason the room held this atmosphere was that the judge who ordinarily sat on the bench had been appointed to a position for life, and there was no real check on his power.

For twenty years before he had been appointed judge he had been the attorney for great corporations, had amassed a fortune in their promotion and development, as a result, his sympathies and prejudices were with the rich and the powerful. He knew nothing of the common currents and impulses of humanity, never having been brought in contact with the people; he almost unlimited power he wielded and had in world until he died, made him, quite naturally autocratic, and he had impressed the chamber on the room and on all who held official positions there.

The clerks, commissioners and assistant prosecutors whom he appointed imitated him and reproduced his habits of thought, for they received his opinions just as they received his orders.

The Prospect

Marriott sat at the table and waited, and while he waited looked about. He looked at Wilkison, the commissioner; the judge had appointed him to the place; the amount of fees he received depended entirely on the number of cases the district attorney and his assistants brought before him; consequently, there being two commissioners, he wished to have the good will of the district attorney, and always reached decisions that would please him.

Fairgrieve, the Assistant District Attorney, was a good-looking young man with a smooth-shaven, regular face that might have been pleasant, but, because of his new importance, it now wore a stern and forbidding aspect.

He was dressed in new Spring clothes; the trousers were rolled up at the bottoms as they came again into vogue. He wore a pink linen shirt of exquisite texture on this flannel shirt was a white linen collar. This combination produced an effect which was thought to give him the final touch of aristocracy and refinement.

When he was not talking to Wilkison or Kouka he was strolling about the courtroom with his hands in his trousers pockets. Once he stopped, drew a silver case from his pocket and lighted a cigarette made with his own fingers, on the page.

Marriott turned from Dalrymple with disgust; he looked beyond the railing, and there, on the widest benches, sat Gibbs and a fellow that made Marriott smile. They must have come up when Marriott was preoccupied, for he was surprised to see them.

Gibbs sat on the end of one bench, as uncomfortable and ill at ease as he would have been in a pew at church. He was shaved to a phalanx, his hair was combed smooth, and he was very solemn. Marriott could easily see that the atmosphere of the courtroom oppressed and cowed him; he had lost his native bearing and had suddenly grown meek, humble and afraid.

TO BE CONTINUED.

Hints on Health and Beauty

By the Professor

FOR SORE FEET

DEAR PROFESSOR:

Will you kindly give me some cure for sore and aching feet? I do very little walking, still when I get home from work I can hardly stand.

DEFIANCE.

YOU probably bathe the feet too much in hot water. It is the usual thing for one to plunge the feet in hot water to soothe them when an ache appears, but it only renders them more tender and more liable to future aches. Cool or tepid water should be used, and after it has been applied talcum powder should be sifted over and between the toes and on the soles. Alum water also will harden the flesh and render it less susceptible to irritation. Be sure that all perspiration is wiped from the feet with a damp cloth when you come in, and that the feet are treated to a little talcum powder and dry hose. Never put on the second time hose that have been damp with perspiration. Wear shoes a size larger, and do not cramp the feet, this interfering with the circulation, and I think you will have no further trouble.

PEROXIDE FACE BLEACH

DEAR PROFESSOR:

Will you please tell me how to use peroxide as a face bleach correctly.

M. L. K.

POUR a little into a saucer and dilute it one-half with water. Dab this on the face every night and if it irritates the skin use a cream first. Otherwise let the cream later after the peroxide has dried in. This is a powerful bleach and you should be careful not to let it get on the eyebrows or into the edge of the hair.

FOR THE COMPLEXION

DEAR PROFESSOR:

Please tell if horseradish placed in sweet milk for one hour and then drained is good to make my complexion white, and what quantity to use.

O. E. S.

YES, the formula is a good one and very whitening. Rub it over the face night and morning. There is no reason why you should not use it oftener if you desire, but this is usually all that is necessary.

Advice to Anxious Sweethearts

By Beatrice Fairfax

NOT A PLEASANT POSITION

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I wish you would answer these questions for me. I cannot decide for myself, so I ask you to come to my assistance. I met a young lady at the house of a friend of mine; it being late when the week found I escorted her home. From that day to this I have been keeping company with her; that's about three months. I first met her I loved her dearly being a case of love at first sight with her on. Now I find that I do not care for her any more than I do any of the other young ladies I know; but I hate to discontinue going with her, as I am acquainted with all her relatives. And whether this is a case I never should marry her, as I have a mother to support and I am the only one she has to depend upon.

AN ANXIOUS INQUIRER.

YOUR position is a very unenviable one.

You should have thought of all this when you told her that you loved her. You are not being fair to her or to your self in continuing to see her in this way. Now, Miss Fairfax, she says that she has told you that you are the only one she cares for, and you intend to get married. Do you think that I am not making a good match for myself? Do I think I can support her nicely on $27 per week. Shall I walk a mile home? I do not want to give this girl up? Any advice given by you will be greatly appreciated.

E. A. F.

I DO not think she really loves you, and that is the reason that she says she does not intend marrying. However, I think that in time you will win her. Your income and prospects are good. If I were you I would give up asking her for a while. Let her think that you have taken her answer for it. That will give her time to learn if she really does care for you. After a few months you could ask her again and see if she has changed her mind.

MAKES NO DIFFERENCE

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

About two months ago I became acquainted with a young girl. He likes me very much and I like him. He has been very attentive to me and we have been very kind to him in return. But now I find he is at present keeping company with another girl. I never told him, but I think if I did the friendship that existed between us would continue?

A CONSTANT READER.

THE difference between your ages is slight, and should make no difference in your friendship. It is best to be candid in such things, and if I were you I would casually mention the difference in your ages. Some one is sure to tell him some time, and then he might think that you were trying to deceive him.

HOW TO BROIL ON A GAS STOVE

HEAT the oven for about ten minutes before placing the steak in it, as steak usually becomes tough when placed in a cold oven, as well as poorly cooked and will not brown.

The oven door should be left open about four or five inches during the time of broiling. You can then watch it closely, keep it from burning, and the broiling is better done in a ventilated oven.

After searing the meat quickly on both sides let it broil from four to six minutes on each side, unless the steak is very thick in which case give it ten minutes on each side.

The thinner the steak, the closer it should be placed to the flame.

A steak one inch in thickness should be placed as close as possible to the flame without burning, a steak one and one-half inches thick or more should be placed three or four inches from the flame.

TOMORROW'S BEST BARGAINS IN BOSTON'S BIG STORES

Filene's will offer for fifty-nine cents in the underwear special sales department, a lot of ribbed knit corset petticoats made with full umbrella flounce. They are worth eighty-nine cents.

Women's $1 near-silk petticoats, extra full and made with a full, deep flounce, will sell at Conrad's tomorrow for only 65 cents.

Vorenberg's have reduced sterling silver perfume bottles from $1.25 to 75 cents for one day.

White and ecru lace waists, the $2.98 kind, will sell at Plummer's tomorrow for $1.75. They are well made with yoke and shoulder effects of lace and baby Irish insertion, the sleeves and collars are trimmed to match, and they are lined throughout with Jap. silk.

MacDonnell's will place on sale tomorrow morning a special lot of gowns and chemises at 98 cents each. This lot consists of excellent goods and they will be on sale in the lace centre counters in the down-stairs store.

At Jordan Marsh Company's tomorrow you can get for ten cents one pound of writing paper, in the Gladstone shape and blue tint. In the pound there are ninety sheets. The envelopes to match will be for five cents a package or twenty cents a hundred.

Warner's corsets—the regular $1 kind, up-to-date model, with garters attached, will be offered for 70 cents at Butler's, for tomorrow only.

Mothers of small boys should not overlook the bargain offered by A. Shuman & Co. for tomorrow. A lot of trousers which have been left over from $8 and $10 suits, in serges, cheviots, Scotch mixtures, etc., will be reduced to $1 a pair. They come in sizes 3 to 9 years.

Ladies' and misses' gray mixture tourist coats, 50 inches long, with velvet collar and cuffs, loose or half-fitted back, can be purchased at Starr's for $4.98. They are worth twice this price.

Wolff's, "My Clothier," offer you rain coats, the ordinary price of which is $15, for $9.98. They are made in tan, gray and gray plaid crepeverette, in full back, collarless style, with fancy braid trimmings, and are guaranteed shower proof.

Long crepe kimona gowns, dotted or plain, with fancy Persian borders, and shirred yokes will be on sale in the cotton underwear department at H. H. White Company's. They in white or red, lavender, white, yellow, pink, blue and black, and are made to sell for $2.

Cook Book Free For Choice Recipes

THE writer of every recipe oyster in. It is very nice and rich.

printed below receives a copy of the BOSTON AMERICAN Economy Cook Book, a substantial bound book of 210 pages, bound in heavy oilcloth, especially designed to preserve these recipe gems in permanent form.

BAVARIAN CABBAGE

One medium size cabbage cut as for cold slaw. Melt one tablespoonful of vegetable oil. Put in cabbage, salt and pepper to suit taste. Cover tightly, and steam one-half hour, turning frequently. When done take one cup vinegar, one-half cup water, and one tablespoonful sugar over cabbage, and cook slowly a half hour longer.

M. J. MALLIGAN.

No. 164 Main street, Medford.

CREAMED OYSTERS

ONE pint of cream, one quart of oysters, one half an onion, blade of mace, two tablespoons of flour, little salt and pepper. Potato border—eight potatoes boiled and mashed, one-half teaspoon of salt, one of butter, one-half cup milk scalded, one half-boiled egg. Make the cream sauce first, you would an oyster stew. Wash the potatoes, add butter, salt, milk and egg. Make a border around platter and turn

MRS. E. M. WILSON.

No. 15 Bayard street, Allston.

SOUR MILK PIE

One cup sour milk, half cup raisins chopped, one cup sugar, one egg, one teaspoon cinnamon, half teaspoon cloves, salt and a little nutmeg. Add citron if you like. Bake with one or two crusts, small pie.

MRS. A. C. CONLON.

No. 6 Washington street, Everett.

PERFUME FOR BUREAU DRAWERS

HAVE all these ingredients ground and mixed: One-half pound orris root, half ounce nutmeg, one-half ounce mace, one-half ounce cinnamon, one-half ounce beans, four ounces orris root. Inclose and cure in small muslin bags and place among the garments.

MRS. O. C. MACHAI.

Box No. 362, Monson.

FISH TURRET

ONE can salmon, picked up; one small onion grated, pepper and salt, one pint boiling milk, two eggs beaten light, two tablespoons flour and two tablespoons butter; cook milk to the boiling point, then stir while boiling. Put in pudding dish, alternately, salmon and dressing, cracker crumbs and small bits of butter on top. Bake one-half hour.

MRS. E. M. WILSON.

No. 15 Bayard street, Allston.

SOUR MILK PIE

One cup sour milk, half cup raisins chopped, one cup sugar, one egg, one teaspoon cinnamon, half teaspoon cloves, salt and a little nutmeg. Add citron if you like. Bake with one or two crusts, small pie.

MRS. A. C. CONLON.

No. 6 Washington street, Everett.

Aid Nature to Make the Baby Beautiful

NATURE may have cruelly decried the baby classic perfection of feature, but here are some things that can be done to improve the infantile adventurer into a world where beauty is a tremendous asset:

Troublesome ears can be made to lie close to the head if the child wears an ear cap regularly at night.

A nose that is broad and shapeless if gently massaged every day with thumb and forefinger, working always downward toward the point, can be improved in a few months out of all knowledge.

The baby eyebrows are very thin and skimpy rub in very gently twice a week a little vaseline. This encourages the growth, and as good eyebrows are an enormous improvement to even an otherwise good-looking face, they are quite worth taking a little trouble over.

Don't forget in the weekly shampoo, see that the child's hair is cut and set at least once in six months.

If the hair is at all inclined to be wavy do not on any account allow it to be crimped or curled, as this is almost sure to injure it.

FOUR PROVERBS FOR W

WOMEN and males obey— ressed than coerced.

The man who scratches matches does not wake.

Man is low, woman is fire and the devil blows the bellows.

The tears of women are worth much, though they cost little.

Handy Things for Housewives to Know

IF YOU are fond of making things, and especially of wood, you will welcome this recipe for liquid glue: Dissolve half an ounce of borax in a pint of boiling water and pour this mixture into a pint of hide glue, stirring it well until the shellac is melted. Then bottle and keep tightly sealed. This glue will not harden even when exposed to the air, and is applied by brushing on with a small camel's-hair brush. It is very valuable to any one who does small carpenter work, cabinet making, picture framing, etc.

* * *

When no bathroom is in the house a very nice substitute is to have an enameled bathtub placed in the corner of the kitchen. Over it have a wooden cover made. Have the two sides which are exposed to view waincoted, and on top place a lid, hinged on, which can be hooked up against the wall. This may have a nice cover and cushions on it, and when not in use for bathing it makes a very handy and comfortable seat.

* * *

The best way to dry an umbrella, and to preserve it, is to leave it open on the back door. Your nurse there is not sufficient room to allow that reverse the usual method

Your Ears

Do they stand out from your head, giving you a ridiculous appearance? Notice the appearance of others afflicted with outstanding ears and you will realize the importance of having yours made symmetrical and in harmony with your facial contour. Call or write Dept. K for information free.

THE John H. Woodbury Dermatological INSTITUTE
58 Winter Street, Boston.

THE EMPTY VAULT

Being the Eighth in a Series of Startling Adventures of Zara, Woman of Mystery.

One Chapter of This Story Will be Printed Every Day This Week Except Saturday. The next to the Last Chapter Will Be Published Friday, and the Solution Will Appear in Next Sunday's Boston American. This Gives You All Day Saturday to Write Your Solution and Try for a Share in the $100 Weekly Prize Offer.

BY ASA ROLAND.

Copyright, 1907, by American-Journal-Examiner

CHAPTER III.

"MR. SILVERS is engaged," replied the young man at the Sixteenth National Bank.

"When do you expect he will be at liberty?" I asked.

"I can't say," he replied; "several of us have been trying to get at him to sign routine papers, but he's locked himself in with one of the big depositors and left the rush out here to us."

And, indeed, there was a rush in the counting room. Scared-faced depositors, many of whom had come long distances, stood four deep before the desks and swarmed in the hall and clustered about the entrance to the building, a huddled crowd of men, anxious men and women.

Money was being paid out in thousands with cheerful alacrity. There was no nervousness among the clerks, who jested with depositors they knew, at their safety.

Evidently the collateral of the Insurance Company had been either pawned or thrown on the market. Money had been raised in some fashion, for it was certainly there.

The scene was so full of interest that I did not hear the door of Silvers's private office open, nor hear him when accompanied by his visitor, he entered the counting room. But as they passed, arm in arm, the banker bareheaded, and his visitor wearing a high silk hat, with a flat brim, saw Silvers nod cheerfully to such depositors as he knew personally and beam assurance upon the rest.

At the door as he and his visitor turned to shake hands, I got a good look at the latter.

Tall, broad shouldered, with a wasplish waist, dressed in ostentatious fashion in clothes of a foreign cut, from his pearl straw-colored mustache to the flat-brimmed high hat, he looked the Parisian fop. But by the high cheek bones and the florid complexion he was not French, but Russian or German. I was inclined to believe the former.

Parting

They parted in high good spirits and Silvers returned to his office with an expansive smile on his pleasant face.

The smile faded to a look of crafty watchfulness, when, in his office, I asked him for a statement, not, however, mentioning the impending panic I had described.

"This may interest you," he said, hand ing me a freshly opened telegram.

"Our man leaving El Paso," I read. "Hawthorne six hours ahead toward Montera. Millikon."

"Who is Millikon?" I asked.

"He's the agent for the insurance company, who is in charge of the pursuit."

"Where is he now?"

"Millikon is in charge of the State of Texas," he explained; "each State is guarded by a sort of policing system of the company."

"In that case," I began, "it seems strange that he could not have secured Hawthorne before he reached El Paso."

Silvers pondered a moment.

"So it would seem," he assented slowly. "But I was given to understand there were a number of trunks, differently marked, shipped by Hawthorne. They were more important than the man himself."

This was news. I hastened to follow the lead.

"So the plan of the robber consisted in shipping the money in different packages and leaving in an opposite direction?" I asked.

"So I understand from the report," said Silvers, curtly; "that really, I am very busy to-day, you must call at the office of the company."

"Have any of those trunks been found?" I persisted.

A Discovery

"Yes," Silvers rose abruptly, "it contained about $100,000. It was found consigned to H. W. Defree, Honolulu, Hawaii—"

"Who is he?"

"I don't know," he snapped; "I——"

"Where was it found?"

"At Vancouver, on the dock, waiting to be shipped."

"By express?"

"By express!" He hurried out of the room as rapidly as was consistent with his dignity.

But as he reached the door, it flung open, and he was alarmed back.

Zara stood on the threshold, her face flushed angrily, her big gray eyes almost black with fury, and her little hands clenched until the knuckles were ivory white.

By her side was the Japanese Consul, placid, doll-like as to expression, making a courteous bow to the banker.

"I want to speak to you," she said, her voice trembling with rage, addressing Silvers and ignoring my presence.

Strangely overwhelmed, he muttered an invitation to enter, for which she had not waited.

I yielded an impulse to remain and left to wait in the counting room for her exit.

(To be continued to-morrow.)

His Cigar Doesn't Taste Right

And Yet It Is the Same He Was Smoking With So Much Relish After Dinner Last Night. Out of the Very Same Box, Too.

ISN'T THE CIGAR—IT'S THE STOMACH.

Every smoker has experienced this peculiar condition of the stomach and liver, the result usually of imperfect digestion of food. And the blame is usually put on the cigar and not where it belongs.

KILL are usually high livers. MOR as mentally, living under HOM ent high draught, and a great deal to disorder under the liver torpid.

They should make it a practice to use some tried and reliable remedy like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, that will aid Nature and not force it and will take care of the sudden attacks of acute indigestion.

The use of these tablets is not to be confounded with the patent medicine habit. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a patent medicine, but are composed of the very elements which nature provides the healthy stomach to do the work of digestion—peptia, diastase, golden seal, etc. There is no secret in their preparation—they are absolutely pure and therefore all the world uses them.

No matter how disordered the stomach may be, it will right itself if given the chance. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest food where the stomach can't, give the abused stomach and intestines a rest, and offer renewed strength to the worn out glands and muscles.

Brain workers can rely on Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, no matter how tense the strain. All druggists carry them in the fifty cent packages, or if you prefer a free trial package can be had by sending your name and address today. F. A. Stuart Company, 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

"FLEISHER'S KNITTING & CROCHETING MANUAL" is invaluable to expert and inexperienced. Illustrations in text and explicit directions will enable you to make Teazles knitting and crochet for modest outlay. wash; easy by illustrated stitches. Mailed for 20 cents. S. H. & H. W. FLEISHER, Dept. 75, Philadelphia.

CONTEST CONDITIONS

THIS story will run through the week. The final chapter, in which the mystery will be solved, will be printed in next Sunday's BOSTON AMERICAN.

The only day on which no instalment of the story will appear will be Saturday. The next to the last chapter will be printed Friday, and then everybody will have until 5 p. m. Saturday in which to solve the mystery.

The person who solves the mystery most accurately will receive the first prize of $50.

If no one solves the mystery accurately, the one who comes nearest to a correct solution will receive the first prize.

REMEMBER

That this is a test of SKILL IN THINKING, not skill in writing. All you have to do to win first prize is to THINK OUT the solution of the mystery QUICKER than somebody else. The literary merit of the answers will not be considered.

That in case two or more answers are equally correct, the prizes will be awarded ACCORDING TO THE POSTMARKS ON THE ENVELOPES, the one mailed first receiving the first prize, etc.

That persons living at a distance from Boston have just as good a chance to win prizes as those who live right in Boston.

NO ANSWER POSTMARKED LATER THAN 6 P. M. SATURDAY WILL BE CONSIDERED.

Address all communications to PRIZE STORY EDITOR, BOSTON AMERICAN, No. 80 Summer street, Boston.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE AT PROVIDENCE

Thirteenth Annual Meeting to Be Held in Rhode Island City November 19 to 22.

IN NATIONAL CONVENTION

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 16.—The National Municipal League will hold its thirteenth annual meeting in Providence, November 19 to 22, in connection with the American Civic Association.

The invitation to hold the annual meeting in Providence was signed by the governor of Rhode Island, the Mayor of Providence, the President of Brown University, the Rhode Island Business Men's Association, the Rhode Island League for Social Progress, the Federation of Rhode Island Churches, the Board of Trade of Providence, the Economic Club of Providence, the Municipal League of Providence, the Providence Public Library, the Art Club of Providence, the Public Park Association.

The objects of the National Municipal League are:

First—To multiply the numbers, harmonize the methods and combine the forces of all who realize that it is only by united action and organization that good citizens can secure the adoption and enforcement of good laws and the selection of men of trained ability and proven integrity for all municipal positions, or prevent the success of incompetent or corrupt candidates for public office.

Second—To promote the thorough investigation and discussion of the conditions and details of civic administration, and of the methods for the selecting and appointing officials in American cities, and of laws and ordinances relating to such subjects.

Third—To provide for such meetings and conferences and for the preparation and circulation of such addresses and other literature as may seem likely to advance the cause of good city government.

BOSTON WOMEN HURT AS AUTO AND CAR CRASH

Chauffeur Takes Chance of Passing Trolley and Attempts to Cross Tracks.

ALL CUT BY FLYING GLASS

Mrs. W. C. Keen of No. 1,130 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, with Mrs. Worcester of Back Bay and Mrs. Keen's mother-in-law, narrowly escaped death when an auto owned by Mr. Keen and driven by C. J. Harding of No. 13 Pratt street, Boston, in which they were riding, met in head-on collision with a passenger gasoline car at Arlington. The elder Mrs. Keen is suffering from a long cut in her head. It is said that Harding tried to shoot by room to pass the trolley and attempted to cross the tracks just ahead of it. All of the women were badly cut by flying glass.

200,000 Trading Stamps are given away Free. A big allotment of prizes with next SUNDAY'S AMERICAN.

LYNN MAY HAVE A MURDER MYSTERY

LYNN, Oct. 16.—An autopsy performed on the body of James E. Kelley, who was found unconscious on Lampers Park, Lynn street, and who died at the hospital, revealed the man had suffered a fracture at the base of the skull and that eight ribs had been fractured, the entire chest being crushed in. The medical examiner declared that death had been due to violence.

FOR HIS SISTER'S SAKE

Clergyman's SonPays $2.60 for a Bottle of Fatherlohn's Medicine

Miss Lindell, daughter of Rev. Mr. bottle, which cost as follows:

Lindell of 5857 State street, Chicago, telegram ..... $0.85 ill, has gone to Las Vegas, New Mex- Express ..... 1.50 tico, in the hope of getting cured of con- other John's Medicine ..... 1.00 sumption. She is at the new "Frater- nal City," just outside of Las Vegas. Total ..... $2.40 where it is expected that within a year Mr. Lindell says that even at this 10,000 consumptives will be located, rice he would not be without the med- living in tents. one for his sister. Now the druggists

This lady had derived great benefit Las Vegas keep Father John's Med- from the use of Father John's Medi- icine in stock for the benefit of the con- cine, but when her brother tried tosumptive sufferers to whom Mr. Lin- purchase some of this old remedy forsell has recommended it. He says: her in Las Vegas, it was not possible Father John's Medicine will be the to do so. Her brother knew how im- means of health to thousands as soon portant it was that his sister should as it becomes really known here. You have Father John's Medicine every- are it brought to Canada by a friend, ywhere it to humanity to make this medi- day, so he telegraphed to Chicago for one known."

AMUSEMENTS.

NOW OPEN
A DIFFERENT SOUVENIR EVERY MORNING THIS WEEK
The Best 1000 value purchasing tickets between 10 and 11 A. M. at Exhibition Hall; and every 1000 entries a handsome souvenir.
NEW ENGLAND FOOD FAIR AND HOUSE FURNISHING EXPOSITION AT MECHANICS BUILDING
The Biggest 25 Cents Worth of Amusement Ever Given Anywhere
Where can you duplicate this Programme for thrice the money?
LAST WEEK OF THE U. S. MARINE BAND
OLD FASHIONED ONE RING CIRCUS FREE
MAMMOTH MIDWAY EXHIBIT FREE
PASSION PLAY (Motion Pictures) FREE
ILLUSTRATED SONGS FREE
CEYLON GUEST EXHIBIT FREE
MASSACHUSETTS STATE EXHIBIT FREE
CANADA GOVT. EXHIBIT FREE
WOMEN'S DEPT. FREE
This is "Women's Suffrage Day"
25c ADMITS TO ALL ALL SHOWS FREE.

KEITH'S
House Opens 1:30 P. M.
Seats Reserved (Except Sundays)
On Sale One Week in Advance. Phone Orders Held Until 2 and 7:30
"The Best Vaudeville—In the Past, At Present and In the Future"
NANCE O'NEIL
McKee Rankin and Co. in "The Idols"
(At 3:30 and 9:15)
KITTY THE TENTH
The Leading Exponent
GEYARD AND BAILEY
The Musical Comedians
PAULINETTI AND PIQUO
Classicalled Acrobatic Eccentrics
WATERBURY BROS. AND TENNEY
The Inimitable Instrumental Trio
HOWARD AND HOWARD
"The Human Boy and the Tramps"
FIVE NELSONS
Sensational Dancers
AND OTHERS
Next Week—"The Stowaway"

HOLLIS ST. THEATRE
Chas. Frohman, Rich & Harris, Lessees & Managers
Two Weeks Only—Tonight at 8:10
MATINEE TODAY & SAT. AT 2:10
ELEANOR ROBSON
(Liebler & Co., Managers)
in SALOMY JANE
BY PAUL ARMSTRONG.
Globe—"Mr. Armstrong's Salomy Jane is a great triumph."
Herald—"Miss Robson's interpretation is fascinating."
Journal—"Miss Robson is superb."
Transcript—"Miss Robson has brought a fine- ness to our time stage."

All the Way by Water BETWEEN BOSTON and NEW YORK THE METROPOLITAN LINE
New Express Triple-Screw Turbine Steamships
Harvard and Yale
An entirely new service—route via the Atlantic Ocean and Long Island Sound—fastest service—best service—to the metropolis of America—only direct line to New York Pier 45, N. R., foot West 10th street, some hours sooner than other city's o'clock following morning. Each ship has been furnished throughout with bath, cafe on turbine deck, lounging, reading and writing rooms, music a la carte, etc. Tickets and staterooms in either direction at Company's office, 170 State St., Boston, Mass. Tel. 460 Fort Hill. Express service for freight and automobiles.

TREMONT KLAW & ERLANGER
★ ADVANCED VAUDEVILLE ★
THE "PICCADILLY CHAPPIE," CLAIRE ROMAINE
"The best bill of its series; eminently satisfactory and pleasing all way through. Claire Romaine, her impersonations are a delight."—American.
LAST TIMES OF THE Dog and Monkey Actors
Seats on sale one week in advance.
Sunday, CONCERT; Monday, LONDON MODELS

BOSTON THEATRE
LINDSAY MORISON ..... Manager
UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS
EDWARD E. KIDDER'S
"SKY FARM"
MATS. AT 2. 25c, 50c
EVENINGS AT 8. 25c, 50c, 75c
Gallery 15c
OCT. 21—Second Week, "SKY FARM."
SUNDAY EVENINGS BOSTON'S BEST AND BIGGEST CONCERT.

COLUMBIA
The Jolly BRIGADIERS
The merriest band of laughing fun makers this season.

MAJESTIC MATINEE TODAY
First Joint Appearance in Boston of CECILIA LOFTUS
LAWRANCE D'ORSAY
—IN—
THE LANCERS
ALL-STAR CONCERT SUNDAY

MATINEE TODAY 25 50
THE FAVORITE IRISH TENOR
FISKE O'HARA
IN A ROMANTIC IRISH PLAY
DION O'DARE
"Miss O'Hara's Heart Stirring Role."
GLOBE EVENINGS 25-35-50-75
Next Mon.—Dorothy Rossmore at Hollis Hall
Sunday Night—Big 25-50c Concert

Castle Sq Tel. Tremont 5 Branch Box Office 15 Winter St.
Mats. Tues. Wed. and Sat. at 2
Evenings at 8
Bellini's Italian Grand Opera
LA SONNAMBULA
Prices $1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c
Oct. 21—FRA DIAVOLO

COLONIAL THEATRE
TO-NIGHT AT 8
ZIEGFELD'S GREATEST SHOW
Direct from Chicago
ANNA HELD in THE PARISIAN MODEL
As Played 400 Times in New York to the Largest Receipts Ever Known in Musical Attraction.
FASHION MATINEE SATURDAY

PARK THEATRE
Mat. Today and Wed. and Sat. at 2
Evenings at 8
"A revelation."—Herald.
CHARLES FROHMAN PRESENTS
MARIE DORO
The Morals Of Marcus
SEATS SELLING FOR 2 WEEKS.

ORPHEUM
Twice Today at 2 and 8
17 HUMAN FLAGS
MOORE, COUNTISS CO.
FRANK FOGERTY
Chas. Wayne & Co., Dick Lessen and Baron, Welch, Francis & Co., Orpheum Orch. & Arts.
Mat. 15 & 25c. A few at 50c.
Eve. 15 to 75c.

BOWDOIN SQUARE THEATRE
Every afternoon at 1:30. Every evening at 7:30. Before the regular performance and between the acts, on the stage, will be held moving pictures to Boston. Followed by the drama.
"WHEN THE WORLD SLEEPS"
Are said to be some Star.
Next Week—"Marked for Life."

HUB THEATRE
Washington and Dover Sts.
Miles Bros.' Stirring Pictures and Illustrated Songs
Take a Trip to Japan
The Heart's Bidding Making Pottery in Japan
Latest Comic Motion Pictures.
Program Changed Thursday
Continuous Show from 1 P. M. to 11 P. M.
LADIES' ORCHESTRA
Orchestra Seats 10c. Family Circle 5c.

Automobiles for Hire
ORIENT PIERCE ARROW CARS.
Limousine, 7 and 5 seated Touring Cars, Landaulettes, by the hour, day or month, with expert chauffeur driver. Rates from $2.50 per hour and upward. Open day and night.
K. A. SKINNER
Tel. 67 Tremont. 415 Clarendon St.

PALACE
Parisian Widows Burlesquers and Continuous Vaudeville.
1:30 to 10:30 P. M.

LYCEUM Rentz-Santley Co.
Daily 2:15 and 8 P. M.
Orchestra Seat 25c. Tel. Ox. 139

HOWARD
Bewitching Beauties of the Sam Devere Burlesque Co.
As witty and slick a bunch of skirts as ever tripped the trocker. Take your children. Always something doing from 1 till 11. Sunshine allowed.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE
Prices at 2, 25c, 50c, 75c. Tonight at 8, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00
THE GAMBLER OF THE WEST
Next Week—Child of the Regiment

Gas Radiators and Gas Logs

That Chilly Room

Is your bathroom or bedroom CHILLY these cool mornings?

Is your dining room COLD when you come down to breakfast?

Is there any other room in your house that you want made WARM and COSY?

Comfort

Don't start your furnace just to heat a few rooms to take off the morning chill, but put in a GAS LOG or a GAS RADIATOR, where it is needed, and be comfortable.

Office Heating

For OFFICES and STORES these GAS HEATERS are especially WELL SUITED. Almost always there is SOME part of your establishment which you CANNOT seem to KEEP WARM. One of these little heaters will make the room comfortable at LITTLE EXPENSE. The Shawmut Bank building is equipped with 37 GAS LOGS for the fireplaces.

Economy

They only burn a FEW FEET OF GAS while lighted, and the EXPENSE ENDS THERE—no care or trouble. The latest styles are odorless, of attractive design, and inexpensive.

FORTY REPRESENTATIVES await your orders. Send for one, or call at 16 West St.

BOSTON CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY.
Telephone 1690 Oxford. 24 West Street

BOOKBINDERS' STRIKE GAINS

A special meeting of the bookbinders of Boston and vicinity will be held Friday night to discuss the strike, at Paine Memorial Hall, when addresses will be made by prominent union men.

One of the leaders said this evening:

"Since the general strike of bookbinders of the United States and Canada was ordered a considerable has been effected with ninety-two per cent. of the firms involved, so that the striking men and women are either back to work or have arranged to resume employment soon.

"It is notable in this connection that the city of Boston, the very oldest bookbinding centre is the last to yield, many of the shops still holding out against the demand for a forty-eight-hour week.

"The strikers are, however, gaining ground in Boston and vicinity every week by week. At present 370 men and 275 out on strike in Greater Boston, asking for a reduction of hours per week from fifty-four to forty-eight.

"The girls from McDonald & Son's shop struck yesterday, out of sympathy with the men, who had previously struck.

WEDS SIX DAYS AFTER FIRST HUSBAND DIES

WHITINSVILLE, Oct. 16.—Wife, widow and wife again in six days is the record established by Hattie Lovell Bolton, now Mrs. Louis Tebo. A week ago Sunday the woman's first husband, John Bolton, was drowned. The widow went to the home of Louis Tebo to housekeep. Last Saturday, six days after her first husband's death, she became the wife of Tebo.

FOUR HURT IN AUTO CRASH

With the chauffeur powerless to check its speed, a big touring car, owned and driven by Henry Crowley of No. 31 Clifton avenue, Everett, and carrying three other persons, dashed down the steep hill on Congress street, in the upper section of Brookline, shot across a board walk, crashed into a stone wall, rebounded against the wall and then skidded into the road, landing on its side and throwing the occupants, unconscious, into the road.

Besides the operator, Crowley, there were in the car Irving K. Taylor, an importer of No. 29 Broadway, New York, and two friends, whose names he refused to give. To-day Taylor and the other two men are at the Massachusetts General Hospital suffering from severe injuries. Crowley passed the night at the Brookline Police Station, being the first of the autoists to recover consciousness.

HUNTERS SEEK MOOSE.

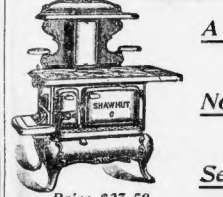
BANGOR, Me., Oct. 16.—Hundreds of hunters are thronging through the big woods to-day in search of moose, the open season on these animals beginning to-day.



A Range of Quality Noted for Its Good Service

Price $27.50

Our famous SHAWMUT C Range is made of the best combination of irons for strength and durability, beautiful in design and finish, has large mantel shelf and two swinging plate warmers, as shown in illustration. All nickel trimmings are removable, has deep base and roomy oven. Sold with our usual guarantee, no charge for pipe.

Our line of stoves and ranges is complete in every detail.

We sell for cash or on helpful terms of credit

Open Monday and Saturday Evenings

SEND FOR OUR FREE ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE

SHAWMUT FURNITURE CO.

267-269 Tremont St. Opposite Hollis St., Boston

A COMBINATION NEVER EQUALLED

A 20% Security and a 7% 1st Mortgage Gold Bond In Our Unparalleled Combination Offering

Our Combination offering of highly profitable Dividend paying stock and interest bearing Bonds, with a market value of $450.00, which we are privileged to offer to our customers at $300.00, is the greatest profit bearing investment ever emanating from a financial house. This Combination yields nearly 11 per cent. on the market value of the securities, $450.00 or 15 2-3 per cent. on the actual investment. This Combination offering is limited to 50 Combinations of $300.00 each, and is unparalleled by any financial house in America.

Our Combination Offering Includes:

200 shares of Boston-Idaho Mining Company's stock, a 20 per cent. dividend security, on par, or 13 1-3 per cent. on the present market price, $1.50 a share.

100 shares Paymaster Consolidated Mines Company Stock, par value $1.00 a share, market value $50.00.

One $100.00 7 per cent. First Mortgage Convertible 10 year Gold Bond of the Paymaster Consolidated Mines Company, interest payable Semi-Annually, February and August, market value of these Bonds $100.00. Trustee, State Street Trust Company, Boston.

The time on this Combination offering we regret to announce is limited, as this offering is a most remarkable one. It certainly will not last long. It is the most profitable safe investment that any financial house has been privileged to offer.

Boston-Idaho Mining Company's stock at $1.50 a share, the present price, will yield a net income of 13 1-3 per cent. annually at the rate of 5 per cent. quarterly on par, commencing next month.

In our opinion Boston-Idaho Mining Company's dividends will be largely increased before the end of many months, as the mill with its present capacity of 30 tons daily is earning a surplus over the dividend obligation of the Company, and as it has been determined by the directors to increase the mill capacity early next spring to 90 tons of ore daily, which is three times its present capacity. It necessarily follows that the dividends and surplus will be three times greater than at present.

The Capitalization of the Boston-Idaho Mining Company is $200,000. There are no bonds or preferred stock to have priority. It is all common stock and the profits go to the common stockholders. The stock being offered today at $1.50 a share has a book value of over $2.00.

The Paymaster Consolidated Mines Company owns not only the Paymaster group and its extensions, consisting of twenty claims, on which eight shafts have been sunk, varying from 40 feet to over 300 feet in depth. From most of these shafts ore has been shipped in the past averaging in carload lots as high as $90 to $160 per ton, amounting to $640,000. This property is equipped with a 120 H. P. boiler and a 50 H. P. hoist, besides surface equipment.

The Paymaster Consolidated Mines Company owns also the Olive, North Prosperity group with their extensions. Four tunnel shafts on the Olivette claim from which high grade ore averaging upwards of $200 per ton was shipped to smelter.

The Paymaster Consolidated Mines Company is a shipping and producing Company. While as yet no dividends are paid on the stock, it has a market value of 50 cents a share.

Such famous engineers as Kempton & McCoy, Percy Williams, E. M. and Douglas Gray have examined and filed most favorable reports.

References by Permission—Ex-Gov. L. C. Hughes, Tucson, Arizona; Mayor Chas. F. Lummis, Tucson, Ariz.; Hon. J. Knox Corbett, Tucson, Arizona; Consolidated National Bank, Tucson, Arizona; Arizona National Bank, Tucson, Arizona; Sydney F. Squires, 101 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Reference by Permission to Boston-Idaho Mining Company, First National Bank, Hailey, Idaho; U. S. Depository.

As there is a time limit to this offering of the greatest combination of profit-bearing securities of the past or present year, we urge all interested in securing one or more of these Combinations to act promptly in filling their order. We reserve the right as is the custom of our office to withdraw or discontinue this offering at any time without notice.

Make all remittances payable direct to our order.

L. DIAMOND COMPANY,
1137-38-39 OLD SOUTH BUILDING,
BOSTON, MASS.

WHOLE WORLD OF SPORTS COVERED FOR THE BOSTON AMERICAN BY ITS CORPS OF EXPERTS

Chicago Boxer Makes Fine Showing

BARRY STAYS THE LIMIT

Jim Barry, the Chicago boxer, is the gamest middleweight ever seen in the ring, was the conclusion of the 900 members of the Winthrop Athletic A. C. last night at the end of the ten-round bout with Sam Langford, who is the toughest fighter of his weight in the country.

There was good reason for showering praise on Barry, who is the only white man who ever came here and made Langford really fight. Though beaten, he certainly made his dusky foe travel as he has not done before in a long time in his career.

Knowing the terrible haymaker which Langford possesses, there were some bets made that Barry would not last the limit, but those who were on the losing end were satisfied after watching such a game exhibition as Barry displayed.

Scarcely twenty years old, Barry made a favorable impression the first time he appeared in the local ring that left no doubt of his sudden jump to popularity. Husky as a young giant, Barry came on hard and able to hit with either hand with the force of a trip hammer. It was no wonder that Langford was on the alert to keep out of range of his fight, much had sent him to the mat in their last meeting in New York. That Barry has a future with the proper handling there was every evidence, and that he received a hard training from the punishing Langford was also obvious. His face was cut up and his eyes split open, while the raw spots on his abdomen showed where Langford's gloves had ruffled up the skin.

Barry Was the Heavier.

He had some weight on Langford—at least fifteen pounds—and his quickness in footwork made him avoid the biggest Negro position which Langford has tackled. The white man was always sparring in with awful clouts to the body, and in the early stages swung rights over which put a momentary stop on Langford's anxiety to mix it.

Three times Barry went to the mat from the force of Langford's punches. As early as the first round Langford shot over his right and then flashed a straight left which toppled Barry over, but he was rushing back without an instant's let-up. The same operation came in the second round, but Barry weathered the gale. Only once did Barry take the count, and that was in the sixth when Langford crossed his lighting right to the jaw with the usual result.

Barry made his best impression in the first five rounds, and from that point to the end it was a case of Langford trying for a knockout with Barry beating him to it and showing a kick at the most unexpected periods.

The body pounding Barry took in the last half of the distance was terrific. Langford drove crushing rights to the kidneys when close up and fought till tied up completely by Barry clinching.

That Barry was in distress as the bout terminated was apparent by the difficulty the referee had in breaking him apart. It was Barry's only safeguard to last the journey, as Langford had taken all of his steam by pounding his mid-section and was constantly trying to land the sleep producer, missing by inches several occasions.

Langford Scores Knockdown.

Barry opened up well and his sturdy appearance immediately caught the admiration of the fans. They had hardly been in action when Langford shot over his right and followed it up with a left hook to the jaw which sent Barry to his haunches. He got set immediately and sailed into Langford, sending a right to the head, but Langford was measuring with his left for the finish. Barry again was forcing in the second round, hooking his right to the body, but Langford again sent his left hook and topped Barry, who refused to stay down, and was up sending in rights to the body. At the bell Langford reached over a right cross and Barry was taken to his corner.

Barry was in front in the third round and also in the fourth, when he caught Langford with a couple of heavy rights to the head, which caused the colored wonder to close up and do a few seconds' stalling. Barry tried to keep up his good work in the fifth by sending Langford's left and counting with his right to the body, and the pile-driving rights held Langford in check, and he was satisfied to resort to straight left with a couple of lights.

Barry did not recover from the knockdown he received in the sixth, yet he always had a rally left him. The next three rounds were all in Langford's favor, and the crushing body blows he delivered on nearly made Barry's knees crumble beneath him.

Langford was sick to his stomach after the bout and Barry's right was disabled as he strained the muscles of his forearm early in the bout.

In the first preliminary Charley Haigher of Lowell made Clemens of Medford stop in the fourth round. A sizzling bout was the semi-final of the six rounds between Babe Grace of Vernon and Alfred Anderson, the Terrible Swede, a pupil of Steve O'Donnell's. They were a couple of lightweights and it was business with them all the way. It was a fighting mill and Anderson had very little the best of it.

CHANCE TO BUY SHOPWORN TIGER SKIN---BY TAD.

Osborne Plays on Second Eleven

CRIMSON DRIVEN HARD

With C. Gilden Osborne, the big English cackle on the second team, the Harvard football players had the hardest practice of the year. The Varsity and "Seconds" lined up for thirty-five minutes and the former won, 16 to 9.

The work began as usual with the elementary drill in catching punts and kicking for the backs, tackling and running down under kicks for the ends and breaking through for the linemen.

Newhall and Gilbert did the punting and the former got off some very good kicks. Wendell, Starr, Amolon, Gregory, Haldeman, Cutting and Gray caught the kicks.

The end work was decidedly poor. The varsity end squad was sent down in pairs under Coach Lewis' kicks against two scrub backs, who caught the kicks, and the exhibition they gave was by no means creditable to Harvard's grade less than a week before the first hard game. The men failed to tackle properly, were slow in getting down, and very weak in recovering the punts. Only a few backs juggled.

The elementary individual work was shorter than usual, and the men were soon formed into teams. There were a few significant features in the makeup of these teams which may indicate changes in the Harvard lineup. Hoar, who has been playing tackle all along, was moved to guard yesterday, playing at right guard on the second work and also in the scrimmage. He was playing in Waldo Peirce's place.

Apollonio in Form.

Apollonio ran through signals and seemed in fine shape. He is now very likely to be in the Harvard lineup against Annapolis. Rand was put through the signal drill at fullback, as was Gray, a player who was seen a good deal at fullback last year.

Kennard, who has been steadily at end, and who played the position on the team last year against Yale, was shifted to left tackle. Kennard has taken on a lot of weight during the past Summer. He now weighs considerably over 180 pounds and is ideally built for a tackle. His experience at end should stand him in good stead now, as end and tackle are becoming more and more nearly alike. Kennard was a little slow for an end, but should make a fast tackle.

Teddy Out Once More.

Teddy, Jr., whose injury has proven to be less serious than at first supposed, was on the field, much to the surprise of his teammates. He showed good courage by being willing to go into the scrimmage, but was only there but a few minutes.

The lineup for the scrimmage was: Varsity—Dove, Foster, l. e.; Burr, Kennard, l. t.; Brock, Peirce, l. g.; Grant, Nourse, c.; Hoar, r. g.; Fish, Inches, r. t.; Mooney, r. e.; Newhall, Starr, q. b.; Cutting, l. h. b.; Gregory, r. h. b.; Gilbert, f. b.; Rand, Gray, f. b.

Seconds—Roosevelt, Pirnie, r. e.; Jones, Osborne, r. e.; Coburn, r. g.; Dore, c.; Gilbert, c.; Welles, l. g.; Gilbert, l. t.; Rogers, l. e.; Gallatti, q. b.; Harding, r. h. b.; Bird, Wendell, l. h. b., and Somes, Hodman, f. b.

MIDDIES HOPE TO BEAT HARVARD TEAM SATURDAY

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 16.—The Cadets have high hopes of tying and perhaps defeating Harvard here Saturday. The Middies' eleven is in strong condition and there's good reason for high expectations.

Douglas is in excellent shape, better than he has been at any time for the last three seasons, and the team is other wise strong, except in the position of one tackle.

Northcroft is on one side of the line, but none of the men (Simpson, Pierpol, Magruder and Leighton) who can play tackle last season are available for next Saturday. Simpson has sprained and Pierpol will not play on account of a bad knee. Magruder was in football clothes this afternoon for the first time since he sprained his arm, but will hardly be in condition next Saturday and Leighton joined the squad only in obedience to an urgent call.

Dr. Hallock's

Remedies Cure All Diseases and Weaknesses of Men.

$1.00 Box FREE

Dr. Hallock's Electric Pills, a cure for nervous debility, exhausted vitality, unfitness for marriage, lack of mental energy, impotency, nocturnal emissions, dark rings under the eyes, wasting vitality, pimples on the face, bashfulness, sunken cheeks, failing memory, loss of manly power, unnatural discharges, lame back, kidneys and bladder, and all weaknesses of the sexual organs, whether caused by indiscretion, overwork, exposure, or contagion. Will restore you to perfect health and manly vigor in a few days, middle-aged or old men. I will send a regular $1 box free, by mail, to any man who writes for trial by mail only, on receipt of 10 cents to pay postage.

Dr. Hallock's Elixia Capsules is a positive and speedy cure for Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Spermatorrhoea, Seminal Emissions, Impotency, Nervousness, Lost Manhood, Stricture, Varicocele, Syphilis, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Inflammation, Pain in the Back, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs. Will cure yourself secretly at home. $1 at office or by mail in plain wrapper.

All acute and chronic private diseases and weaknesses of men and women, whether caused by exposure and all diseases of the nervous system, blood and skin, such as Nervousness, Debility, Nervous Prostration, Loss of Manhood, Impotency, Nervous Debility, Failing Memory, Pimples on the face, Blotches on the body, Falling Hair, pains in the back and kidneys, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis, Contagious Blood Poison, Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder troubles, Nervousness, Sexual Decay, Varicocele, Piles, Fistula and Rectal troubles, and all private diseases and weaknesses of men should be cured by Dr. Hallock's Electric Pills. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Telephone Oxford 1070-2. Consultation free. Write for symptom blank and free medical advice.

DR. HALLOCK CO.
114 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Office, Second floor, opposite Scollay Square, between Cornhill and Court and Scollard sts., between Bowdoin and Court sts., and Cornhill and Court sts. Entrance by Square, Oxford, most modern and most reliable in the country.

YALE AND HARVARD CAN'T AGREE UPON OFFICIALS

Another conference between the Yale and Harvard football men will be held within a week to select officials for the annual game in the Stadium, November 23.

The meeting at Springfield Monday night apparently was fruitless.

It will be remembered that just before the game last year there was a similar misunderstanding between the coaches, and it was charged then that Harvard had practically bullied Yale into accepting a set of officials under the threat that if they were not accepted by a certain hour Harvard would not go to New Haven. Yale accepted the officials, but the undergraduate feeling was strong for cancelling the game.

Walter Camp, Yale's advisory coach, declined to make public the nature of the meeting between the Yale and Harvard football managers at Springfield.

Mr. Camp said that no statement in regard to the meeting would be given out, and that it was a case of Yale and Harvard to discuss the meeting.

It is understood, however, that the object of the meeting was to settle the question of eligibility rules for the big game. Yale and Harvard did not renew their football agreement last March and the question now arises under what rules eligibility will the games be selected this Fall. It is understood that each university is to draw up its own rules and that no new agreement will be entered into.

Head Coach John Cutler of Harvard refused to be interviewed upon the Springfield conference. Manager Gutterson of the Harvard Football Association declared that he was not authorized to make any statement on the subject. He said, however, he would not admit that there were any differences between Yale and Harvard in references to officials.

COLIN'S LAST RACE WILL BE RUN TO-DAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—James R. Keene's great colt Colin will end his racing season to-day. The peerless two-year-old, now undefeated, is entered in the Champagne Stakes, which will fall for his best speed and endurance, as the distance of the race is seven furlongs. If he should win this race it will make twelve straight victories for him and will bring his winnings for the year up to $191,000.

While Colin is regarded as the greatest two-year-old we have ever had on the American turf—faster than Hamburg, Sysonby and Artful, a trio of the speediest youngsters ever seen—his winning of 12 victories will be a record. Tremont, the black walrlwind that carried the red and blue colors of the Dwyer brothers, won eleven straight races. Domino won ten.

He failed to start as a three-year-old.

BIG BASKET GAME.

A combination of the two East Boston basketball teams will meet the Holy Name Club of South Boston in the opening game of the basketball season at Lyceum Hall, November 9. The preparty of the game will be given to Carney Hospital. On the East Boston team will be Jim Crowley, Jack Doherty, Johnny Brett, Jack Ahearn and Jack Cummings.

ROSS AND CANNON WILL TRY FOR AUTO RECORDS

By J. C. KERRISON.

Whether or no there is a motor carnival at Ormond-on-the-Beach next Fall, it is a fact that George Cannon and Louis Ross will visit the sea-washed coast of Florida and attempt to capture the one-mile straightaway record. The special Ross speed car, now being constructed by the Newton man, is rapidly reaching completion, and no later than yesterday it was emphatically stated that the car would be sent South and an effort made to secure the record honors. The car is being constructed with the idea of getting the mile pretty close to twenty seconds, and if it is eligible for the contest that may be determined upon in the carnival proper it will be entered, not alone for the short, but likewise for the long distance events, both Ross and Cannon being confident that the car will be able to travel 200 miles or more at high speed.

Expect to Make Records.

In speaking of the matter yesterday Louis Ross said: "The car will be finished within the next two months, and will be entered for every event to which it is eligible. If there is any disposition to bar the consumer car of the contests, as well and good, we will remain out of the game, but one thing sure, and that is that the car will be sent for record, even if it is necessary to take a special crew of officials to the beach to watch and time the trials. Cannon is just as determined to get the mile straightaway as myself, and we are confident that the car will do the trick. I have always found the Florida east coast people perfectly fair in all their racing matters, and do not for a moment imagine but what they will schedule events which will be just as fair to steamers as to gasoline cars.

"The Electric Department of the City of Boston has contracted for a forty-horse power Ross car to be used in its work in this city. The contract was secured by A. F. Underhill of the Reed Underhill Company, and the car will be equipped in much the same fashion as the famous car in the Springfield Fire Department. The body will be constructed according to the requirements of the work for which the car is intended and should make a sensation when it appears on the streets of this city. The new Protector wagon will be delivered to the Department within the next two months.

* * *

An observing person who tours extensively should be able to write quite an interesting chapter on the signs set at the roadside by village officials. In monmouth county, New Jersey, there is a sign reading: "Automobiles must be moderate. By order of the Freeholders." There is nothing to indicate whether moderation in drink or speed is meant. Up in the Catskill mountains in New York, road overseers are suddenly confronted by a sign saying: "Blow your horn here" and nothing more. The motorist knows that this is meant for him, but it must be disconcerting to those who have no horn. In northwestern Pennsylvania, it has been thought worth while to try politeness, and the sign reads: "Please go slowly here." That "please" appeals to almost everyone behind a steering wheel, and does speed. On Long Island, there is a perplexing sign saying: "Automobile Beware." The speed limit will be strictly enforced, I guess, for I saw the police on the Glidden tour. Probably an interstate tourist could gather enough interesting samples for a book.

COVE FOUGHT WITH BAD ARM MANAGER SAYS

The following letter to the Sporting Editor from Percy Cove's manager explains itself:

SPORTING EDITOR:

In connection with the failure of Percy Cove to show his true form against Albert Delmont at the initial meeting of the Cooper Social and Athletic Club, on Monday night, an explanation in favor of Cove is in order.

In his bout with Tommy Langdon, at Philadelphia, on Saturday night, he wrenched the ligaments of his left arm, thereby causing the arm to swell badly. The arm bothered him Sunday, but not feeling the extent of the injury, we tried to rub it out with a liniment.

It grew worse, and on Monday we reached Boston Sunday night he could not bend the arm. We took him to the Emergency Hospital and had the arm treated, to avoid publicity I entered him as "Charles Cove" instead of Percy Cove, his right name.

Dr. Orton treated him and diagnosed it as badly sprained, and urged us to call off the bout.

In view of the fact meeting of the club I did not care to ask for a postponement, but insisted on Cove to go on, although he was minus the use of his best hand. It called for him to use the arm at all through the bout.

In view of the handicap under which he labored, and the gameness he displayed in going on under the crippled condition, I think he is entitled to a return meeting. He will be ready in two weeks.

BILLY McCARNEY, Manager.

WHEN IN DOUBT, MEN, COME TO ME

Medical Training and Experience of a Specialist. I am a graduate of Harvard Medical School, Boston, and Bellevue Hospital, New York, and visiting physician to St. Mary's Hospital, Boston. I have cured the most Severe Cases in the shortest time. Consultation, examination and opinion of your case free. I have successfully treated thousands of cases of Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, Contracted Diseases, Private Diseases, Kidney and Bladder Diseases and Blood Poisons. All cases resulting from early excesses and indiscretion. Terms to suit.

DR. ROTHFUCHS
7 PARK SQUARE, Near Boylston Street. Hours 9-5, Sun. 10-1

FITS
EPILEPSY
OR FALLING SICKNESS

can be relieved, and quickly too. If you suffer, or have children that do suffer, call at once. Do not spoil if others have failed. Consult the well-known specialist,

Dr. Joseph Grady
238 Tremont St., Boston

Hrs. 10-12, 2-5, 7-8. Sun. 10-12. Advice Free.

MEN FREE ADVICE

Come to me and I will tell you honestly what ails you and how you can be cured—without charge. All diseases of men treated. Consultation free. Medicines furnished. Dr. Killory, 91a Court St. Hrs., 9-5. Sun., 10-1.

BLOOD POISON

is the most serious disease on earth. Don't fool with Mercury and Potash Mixtures. You KNOW WHAT TO DO. Send for Book of Advice. Do it now. Book sent on the side, secure from observation. Contains many helpful hints, home papers, testimonials, etc. Sent free. Address, Dr. Brown, 939 Arch st., Philadelphia, Pa. Medicine for sale by druggists everywhere. Dr. Brown's Blood Elixir, $1 a bottle, or six bottles, $5. Sold in Boston only by Lewis & Co., 143 Washington st.

A wise, safe and certain cure for men's private diseases, ghest and quickest.

Knight's Pharmacy
97 Court Street.

Klein's Pharmacy, cor. Boylston and Tremont Sts., Boston, Mass.
Mail Orders Filled.

GLOVER DRAWS WITH QUILL

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 16.—Billy Glover of South Boston had all the better of his bout with Johnny Quill of Brockton for nine rounds. Quill then rallied and made a good showing till the end of the bout. The decision was a draw.

Willie Reilley and Kid Freeman, both of South Boston, gave a lively display of fighting for eight rounds. Reilley getting the better of it. Johnny Kane of Roxbury won over Denny Ryan of Cambridge in a six-round go.

ELBERFELD MAY BE TRADED

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Norman Elberfeld, the Highlanders' scrappy shortstop, will likely be a Senator next year.

If Jake Stahl decides to join Griff's team, Hal Chase will go to the outfield and Conroy will play third.

Elberfeld has been in bad repute ever since he was suspended by Griffith for indifferent playing last Summer. A large slice of his salary was lopped off for a fine, and he played like a wooden man afterwards.

Notes of the Diamond

Ed. Cleveland writer's opinion that Harry Niles of St. Louis would beat his record in a fielding way if he had to play in the Polo Grounds or Fenway Park. Niles doesn't make the turns at the bags with the ease of a veteran.

The American League color scheme will be materially altered by Connie Mack's decision, who has been trapped by the St. Louis Browns, and by Frank Navin's decision, who has been captured by the Chicago Whites. Green was called by the Detroit club, and the switch undoubtedly will follow him to the Johnson organization.

The Giants are the latest acquisitions of the baseball years. Starting with a record with a zero, they have strengthened with every year before, then went all to pieces, winding up at last place. Philadelphia is the Giants' club.

The Cubs won this season as they did before—by perfect team play. The same machine was employed with a little more speed in the field and less in the opposition of the other clubs with out fattened at the gate.

The Pirates made a great rally in the first part of the season, but the Cubs were too much for them, and the Pittsburg dropped the Giants out of second place.

Counting that Mathewson is very fairly bound to better teams in Chicago and Pittsburg, the same cannot be said of Brown, who has failed to land in third position. It looked like a plain case of quit, and the Cubs' manager refer to which Mr. Mugge McGraw assumed fines he evidently knew all about.

Hughie Jennings of Detroit is authority for the statement that he will not be in baseball another year. He says he is through with baseball, but he has said so before and he left-handed will right-handed it again next season.

Umpire Tom Connolly of the American League has a brother Francis, who officiated in the New England League last season and did good work.

Manager Hanlon of the Cincinnati baseball team, and one of its best scatters, is but twenty-seven years old. He began his baseball career with Pittsburg in 1897, coming to the Reds nineteen years old, and one of the baseball cubs jumped to the Tigers. Hanlon is a great scout both at the bat and in the field.

Heinie Berger ought to be a star performer next year. Heinie has arrived late, but in good style.

Cleveland has had twenty players on the list of injured list during the season.

Joe Lake and Fred Olmstead each picked up two good men in Pitchers Bailey and Keith of the Texas League.

Case Patten wants to play in New York. Can't blame him one bit for wanting to be in the White Way.

The team of Hadlyme, Ct., has had a remarkable career on the baseball field. It is the home town of the person of William Becker, who weighs more than 300 pounds. Becker has played with the team every contest and always plays a good game. He is also at the bat, and his fielding is the real goods because of his good nature.

Ed Konetchy, another young ball player, will manager "Billy" Murray of the Phillies, and he will be back to the Cards next year. Konetchy's season. He has failed to live up to the promise he showed in his first year, and his record would be a big one if he had not had the disadvantage of Spring training.

Barry McCormick and Elmer Stricklett will have to give up their plan of playing with the Stockton club on the coast this Fall, and have been warned to that effect. Stockton is harboring contract jumpers and the league will not have them robbed himself ineligible to perform in the National organization. Umpire Evans of the National Association will make a report and a warning on this subject within a few days.

Young Peter Jackson is still hanging around out West in search of a match. He has been playing on the Coast don't seem to care for his game. Jackson used to be one of the pupils of Jimmy Thomas or Young Kelcshall, and will do 158 pounds for them. Jeffries is also a pupil of Thomas.

Charles Harvey is thinking of sending Jimmy Sheehan to the Coast to do up with Frankie Neill. Harvey has been willing to bear from some of the New England boys who have been trimming Walsh or Mosier, but they are slow coming through. Harvey will send Sheehan to Frisco as soon as Coffroth gives the word. The Industrial and Wonderful Sheehan will be matched with Joe Mosier and Young O'Toole, the Quincy bantam, and a match between the two might be made before the fans in Frisco Bay.

There is a possibility of Jimmy Coffroth pulling off a fight between Tommy Burns and Jack Johnson on Thanksgiving Day, now that Burns has consented to fight Johnson. The $25,000 offer by Coffroth looks good to Tommy, and with all the other beauties on the Coast, he is afraid he will lose his title if he would rather fight Johnson than Young Peter Jackson, when this wanted to back Jeffries against Burns in a recent round or two. Jeffries is willing to fight Johnson for $50,000 a side, but Jack Johnson, his street Burns up in action and he says in order to convince the public that he is not afraid of him he will take Johnson on.

When Battling Nelson was training at "Smiling" Mesger's place at Larkspur, California, for his fight with Joe Gans, he had Dave Barry, who is to fight Al Kaufman Friday night, training him, and Barry Finn was at the camp training for Tommy at the same time. Metzger went out riding one day and Nelson, Barry and Finn went with him. Metzger had loaned them a horse apiece, and Finn, Barry and Foley, on entering the place Metzger saw Foley and Finn riding on the hips of a thoroughbred and he began to bet with bands to their horses. Finn got there first by the place of that.

"Some folks don't believe I am once more carrying for the championship of Maine," declares Bob Wells. "Well, I am, and I've got $1,000 that says I can beat any man in the State, 145 pounds or under, at 153 pounds, or weigh one or two hours before the fight. I'll bet $500 to $250 that I can beat any man in the State, 158 pounds or under, at 153 pounds or less and I'll bet $500 to $250 that

BOY REPAYS CITY THEFT

WORCESTER, Oct. 16.—Another nickel has been added to the city's conscience fund by a boy who says he stole apples from trees on city property. This is the third contribution of five cents to the conscience fund received by Mayor John T. Duggan recently for apples. This raises the city's special conscience fund to $4.50 now in the hands of City Treasurer DeWitt Clinton. An order may be introduced into the City Council to transfer the money to the School Department for current expenses, according to the accompanying the contribution reads:

Dear Mayor Duggan: I have read in the papers of the boys and girls who have stole apples belonging to the city. I, too, am one who has stole apples, and I have felt grieved ever since. I am old enough to know better, but I feel so much grief that I send you five cents to pay for the apples I took. Yours truly,

Mayor Duggan withholds the name of the conscience-stricken boy.

200,000 Trading Stamps are given away Free. A big allotment of prizes with next SUNDAY'S AMERICAN.

HORSES AND CARRIAGES.

MUST SELL AT ONCE.

BLOND bay horse, weighs about 1,075 lbs., age 5 sound in every way, will road 10 miles an hour and pull a ton or to a wagon; has nice style, long tail and mane, is safe for women or children to harness or ride; is fearless of all objects; a child make a nice horse on a farm or for business purposes; also set of spring wagon harness; also coated demount wagon, newly painted and in perfect condition; also 1 set of heavy team harness, one collar and breast blanket and one 300 lb. heat bar and five ins. of rope; $100 cash buys the whole property; horse is now working. I purchased an automobile and I hope that some gentleman of a search of a good, trustworthy horse to keep will buy him, as I would like to set him to work myself. I will allow the horse to be driven separate if desired; can be seen any day on leaving at my residence, 21 Hooker st., Roxbury; take Union st. car from Sullivan sq. square.

75 STALLS TO LET

AND AMPLE wagon space; located in South Boston, opposite Municipal Building; long lease; low rent. Address H 848, Boston American.

10 STALLS

WITH WAGON ROOM, near South Station, paid rent, $1.50 per week; monthly lease basis. Address H 304, Boston American.

STABLE to let; stalls, close to Mattapan sq., Neponset bridge. Address J 668, Boston American.

LEGAL AND PUBLIC NOTICES.

RIVERBANK SUBWAY

WESTERLY ENTRANCE

CHAPTER 575 of the Acts of the Legislature of 1907 provides for the laying out of a subway for public travel from the Riverbank Court in the City of Boston, to be designated as the Riverbank Subway, together with such approaches thereto as may extend to a point or points in said embankment and on the land of Harvard College, and for the improvement and across public ways and lands to a point or points on the line of Western Avenue in Allston Bay Front, or to such point or points in Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton, as may be laid out by the Board of Commissioners of the Riverbank Subway, and for the taking of land and other property necessary therefor, as by said act more particularly appears. A public hearing thereon is hereby given to all persons interested and a public hearing thereon will be held at the office of the Board of Commissioners of the Riverbank Subway, No. 18 Ashburton pl., Room 9, in said Boston, on Thursday, October 24, 1907, at 11 o'clock A. M.

By order of the Board of Commissioners.

E. LEROY SWEETSER, Secretary.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator on the estate of JOHN DUGGAN, late of Boston, in the County of Suffolk, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond as the law directs. All persons having claims upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to the undersigned. Boston, this 1st day of October, 1907.

JOHN J. DUGGAN.

NOTICE—I am retiring from the firm of Maino & Co., and will not be responsible for bills from this date. P. E. MAINO.

FURNITURE.

$100 WORTH FOR $10.00.

LOANS, $2.00 a week for $100. Or, extended weekly payments for 6 months (with interest) when desired. Furniture, an elegant bedroom suite, selected, $16.97; a handsome parlor suite, $19.97; a massive oak dresser, $7.97; a full-size white enamel bed, $2.98; soft top mattress, $1.99; a store full of bargains to suit your own requirements. MORRIS, 1,211 Washington st. Fair and Square Manufacturers; take Harvard or Dover st. cars; location 40 years.

CASH or on time for furniture, carpets and house and offices generally; write, call or telephone for catalogue. THE CLOSING OUT CO., 42-44 Eliot st.

HIGHEST CASH PRICES paid for all kinds of furniture and merchandise; send postal. SHAW, 81 St. Washington st.; tel. 1862-2 Rich.

WE PAY the highest cash for furniture, safes, store fixtures and more. OLMAN & FRIEDMAN, 104 Friend st.; tel. 1,000 Haymarket.

BEFORE selling your furniture be sure and get our prices. BLANCHARD & PRIDE FURNITURE CO., 510 Washington st.

OLD FEATHER BEDS bought; we buy double or single quantity of either bolsters; drop postal. AMERICAN FEATHER CO., 177 Friend st., Boston.

HIGHEST prices paid for furniture, carpets, stoves. WM. A. SMITH FURNITURE CO., 200 Causeway st., Boston.

CLOTHING.

RADICAL REDUCTIONS to make room—Men's and ladies' clothing, suits, overcoats, waists, children's clothing; suits reduced from $10 to $5; pants from $3 to $1.50; overcoats from $10 to $5; waists from 98c. to $2. CHARLES & CHARLES, 1 to 5 Temple pl., near Dudley st. terminal. Tel. 1909-2 Roxbury.

$1 BUYS $2 suit, evening and stage dresses for sale or to let; 50 vests, $1. DE LEON, 1,211 Washington st.

FOR SALE—Ladies' black chevrot, satin-lined jacket, Hollander's, nearly new, three-quarter length, sizes 34 to 36; $15. 633 Shawmut av.

BARGAINS in ladies' and gents' slightly worn clothing. 7 Church st., near Tremont.

INFORMATION WANTED.

DOMESTIC troubles, without everybody knowing it, quickly private; advice free. SAWTELL MORAN, 6 Ward st., Boston; tel. 2,000 Main.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES handled promptly and correctly; private; attorney's advice free. A. J. KENNEY, 6 Ward st., Boston; tel. 2,000 Main.

MISSING PERSONS FOUND in all parts of the world. Address Lock Box A716, Boston, Mass.

Where to Dine

HOTEL HIGHLAND—Boulanger's famous cuisine; table d'hote dinner, 5:30 to 8:30 p. m., $1 p. m.; private dining rooms; cuisine; try it once, you'll come again. Tremont st.

MONEY BACK if not satisfied with HIRES' root beer. 25c.

SEWING MACHINES.

IMPROVED SINGER, perfect order, attachments $6. ISA Warren st., Roxbury.

THE SINGER, good as new; only $5, at 36 Warren st., Rox., next to Hunt's house, corner.

WHITE sewing machine, used 800 hours; $25. Call 217 Somerville av., Union sq., Somerville.

FAMILY leaving; must sell almost new, latest style Singer, $16.00. Y 909, Boston American.

MONEY TO LOAN.

FEDERAL INVESTMENT CO.—Money loaned salaried people without security; easy payments, confidential. 31 State st., room 1.

SALARIED people, if annoyed by creditors or dunning letters, see us; we help. Boston Credit Association.

TALKING MACHINES.

RECORDS WANTED—Highest prices paid for all kinds of second-hand phonograph records; no letters answered. BARNEY, Room 601, Wash. st.

WANTED.

5,000 OLD GEESE feathers bought, we guarantee to pay double for each bed. BOSTON FEATHER CO., 157 Fourth st., Chelsea; tel. 289 Chelsea.

TYPEWRITERS.

LARGEST stock all makes, exchanged and sold, $10 to $50; rented $2 to $4 per mo.; good condition; cash or time; call, examine or write. Tel. 168 Main. THE TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE, 86 Bromfield st.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.

ROXBURY STORAGE SALESROOMS WHERE PIANOS ARE SACRIFICED

Fighting the Piano Trust

The name "Piano Trust" sounds big, looks powerful and frightens a great many small piano dealers. They wouldn't dare to cut the price on a "Piano or Organ" sentence. We have been cutting the prices for months—cutting—cutting—and the Trust is slaughtering their prices. The Roxbury Storage Piano Trust represents 1,000 pianos every week. Every piano must be sold. We are making no money dealing it, but we are still in the ring, and selling almost any make of high-grade pianos, new or second-hand, at prices that make the big Piano Trust wince.

A Piano Sale here is always a sacrifice, always a large sale, always a mark-down sale. The very nature of the business, as the public knows, is one of sacrifice. The business here is not conducive, like the business of a regular Piano Salesroom, where they are expected to make a profit on each piano—where they get their profit DIRECTLY out of the sale of pianos. We don't let any piano half stand on the floor of the Roxbury Storage Salesrooms—it comes in HERE

TIME, a sacrifice tag is clapped on to it, be it a high grade, low grade or middle grade, and it is sold to the first buyer or caller. The sacrifice price is then marked on the tag—and a cash sale is the result. The prices here on the Roxbury Storage Salesrooms' "Piano or Organ" tags are so low, that when let the accounts out clean and clear without regard to profit as you can see easily by this statement how these sales must seem to the sacrifices. Remember it is for your gain.

| | |
|---|---|
| Mason & Hamlin Upright, $69. | Chickering Upright, $70. |
| Hallet & Davis Upright, $59. | Chickering Upright, $30. |
| Chickering Upright, $63. | Ivers & Pond Upright, $70. |
| Vose Upright, $85. | McPhail Upright, $40. |
| Vose Upright, $60. | Knabe, $110. |
| Steinway Piano, $50. | Webber Upright, $60. |
| Emerson Upright, $85. | Merrill Upright, $90. |

$5 DOWN, $1 WEEK

2 MOR. LESSONS FREE to everyone buying a Piano or Organ at this store. Free piano instruction possible.

Roxbury Storage Salesrooms

2111 Washington St., Roxbury (Boston) Open Mon., Thurs. and Sat. nights till 9, with Take any car going up Washington st. to Williams st.

J. P. COLLINS, Prop.

GEO. H. CHAMPLIN & CO.

181 TREMONT ST.

Ten Piano Bargains

FOR THIS WEEK!!

(1)
STEINWAY Baby Grand piano, 3 pedals, all latest improvements, faultless condition; will be sold at exactly half price to settle an estate.

(2)
STEINWAY Parlor Grand—Has had professional use by one of our most noted singers; cost new $1,000; our price $250.

(3)
THREE Chickering uprights at half price; very nearly new; absolutely perfect condition.

(4)
IVERS & POND mahogany upright, fine condition and tone; cost $425; our price $160.

(5)
HALLET & DAVIS Upright, not six months old; has been used only a few weeks; cost $375; our price $195.

(6)
HENRY F. MILLER, 7 1-3 octaves, upright, has been used only by prominent Brookline family; cost $375; our price $175.

(7)
KRANICH & BACH Upright, 7 1-3 octaves; second-hand, but a remarkably fine piano; cost $450; our price $190.

(8)
SMALL Upright Piano, very nice tone indeed; good action; cost $300; our price $100. We recommend the piano; our price $75.

(9)
GOOD cabinet organs and square pianos $10 $15 and $20.

(10)
15 GOOD UPRIGHTS returned from summer use; will be sold at a sacrifice rather than the chance to save storage.

The above pianos may be viewed and will be afterward exchanged with any purchaser. Kranich & Bach. Boudoir grand a new

KRANICH & BACH PIANOS

Most beautiful in the world. Guaranteed for a lifetime. Upright and Grands. See them! Hear them! Compare them! Write to us for catalogue.

GEO. H. CHAMPLIN & CO.

181 TREMONT ST.

BOARD AND ROOMS.

PEOPLE'S PALACE HOTEL

COR. WASHINGTON AND BROOKLINE STS., 200 rooms, steam heated, sunshine in every room, plenty of hot and cold shower and tub baths; rates, single rooms, $2.50 per week; suites, parlor, bedroom and writing rooms; $6.50; and 50c. nightly. Take any up electric car.

$1 SIDE ROOM. Apply at 3 Hanson street, off Tremont.

APPLETON ST.—Strangers visiting Boston should find elegant rooms by the day.

APPLETON ST., 44—Elegant rooms by the day for traveling people; quiet, perfectly kept house.

BEACHMONT—Large, well-furnished rooms, all modern improvements; most desirable location; reasonable rent. 179 Bebington st., Beachmont.

CENTRALLY situated to let, furnished, five minutes' walk from Mattapan sq. Address J 609, Boston American.

FURNISHED front and back parlor, connecting or side by side; suitable for gentlemen. 1,211 Washington st.

MEDFORD, 32 Almont st.—4 rooms, bath, $11; 39 min. to Scollay sq.

TO LET—Large front rooms day or week, $4. GILLMAN, 614 Columbus av.

TO LET—Handsomely furnished or unfurnished rooms; lodgers may use light housekeeping and use services of first-class cook; rates reasonable. 1,211 Washington st.

TO LET—Large, light, sunny front room, with or without board; all conveniences; private family; references exchanged. 1,211 Washington st.

TO LET—Large front room, h. c. water; also side room. 4 Lawrence pl., near Blossom st.

TO LET—Large, sunny front room; also single room; table board. 16 Carver st.

TO LET—Large front room, clean room; also side room; rates floor $2 and $3 per week.

TO LET—Sunny side front room, with heat, piano; $3 inc.

TO LET—52 APPLETON ST.—Most desirable rooms in Boston; private; convenient.

TO LET—61 APPLETON ST.—Warm desirable room at $3 per week; also single room, $2 per week.

TO LET—69 WARREN AV.—Parties visiting Boston will find pleasant warm rooms, $4 per week.

TO LET—91 WARREN AV.—Furnished rooms by day or week; every convenience; tel. 2201-2 Rich.

TO LET—192 W. SPRINGFIELD ST.—Front parlor, newly furnished; bath; gas; $3 weekly.

TO LET—348 SHAWMUT AV., cor. Pelham—Furnished sunny room, first floor; housekeeping privileges if desired; rent reasonable.

TO LET—370 COLUMBUS AV.—Front parlor, alcove room, front basement room, h. and c. water; tel. con.

TO LET—1,211 WASHINGTON ST.—Choice and Newly furnished house, all modern improvements; parlor, suitable for gentlemen.

HOUSES AND APARTMENTS.

TO LET—A modern Colonial house of 12 rooms and bath; first-class repair; estate contains 22,000 feet of land, orchard, shade and fruit trees; rental at No. 97 Morton st., Forest Hills, and lives in basement entrance. Possession Nov. 1. Apply to Washington Trust Co. $5,000 per year; will also sell.

TO LET IN ROSLINDALE, near everything; new house, all modern conveniences; take Hyde Park car to Dedham line; Dedham to Canterbury st., owner there, 272 Canterbury st. Rose wood Surgeon c. 13.

FOREST HILLS—Three pretty rooms furnished for housekeeping; bath; gas and stove; $12. Beautiful location. 162 Wachusett st., suite 1.

ASTROLOGY.

LET ME TELL

YOUR FORTUNE FREE

SEND me your full name (Mr., Mrs. or Miss), date of birth and 10c. silver, and I will cast your horoscope and tell you a thousand of events in your life, and I will reveal your past, present and future so correctly that you will be amazed, and to prove it and you write me; I have devoted a third of my lifetime to this work and have helped thousands. PROF. EDSON, Dept. 9, Binghamton, N. Y.

POULTRY, PIGEONS, ETC.

WANTED—Eggs for Los Angeles; eggs are scarce and high; highest prices paid for same; 5,000 are used annually, at an average price of 35 cents per dozen; we pay express charges; most profitable to some Massachusetts farmer; eggs are needed; some poultry raisers are needed; send for booklet. Market of Quality, 1,211 Washington st. Our great opportunities by sending 10 cents for copy of Pacific Poultry Journal, edition of 100,000 copies. California, to be published Dec. 12.

42 PIG HOSKERS for sale, $35. JOHN H. HOWARD, P. O., Littleton Corner, Mass.

AUTOMOBILES.

WILL EXCHANGE
Land for Automobile.

1 Will exchange some good house lots in Boston suburbs for a touring car in good condition. 363, Boston American.

AGENTS AND SALESMEN.

WANTED—Experienced salesmen of personal appearance, capable of earning $3,000 to $5,000 per year, who can give results and references showing that they have been successful in high characters and good education, who are willing to work to establish themselves in permanent position; we have one of the finest and most attractive propositions ever offered to high class salesmen; no knowledge necessary. BENNETT MANUFACTURING CO., 189 West Monroe st., Chicago, Ill.

AMBITIOUS men and women to paint oval prints; no talent required; a child can learn by our correspondence method; we show you how; no trick to make $6 to $10 a week at home; send 2c. stamp for particulars. THE PHOTOGRAVURE ART CO., Dept. 1, Battle Creek, Mich.

WANTED—Ambitious men who are willing to prove their ability to earn $2,000 to $5,000 a year; write for particulars. H. C. DUMONT & CO., 1,211 Washington st., Chicago, Ill.

HELP WANTED—Male.

R. H. WHITE CO.

REQUIRE SALESPERSONS
In the Following Departments:
Drapery & Upholstery.
Watches & Jewelry.
Kitchen & Wooden Ware.
Millinery & Silks.
China & Glassware.
ALSO:
A1 Demonstrator of Drugs.
Sewers on Draperies & Cushions.
Pressmen on Women's Garments.
100 Boys and Girls, from 14 to 17 years of age.
Apply between 8:30 and 10 A. M. to D. B. STRICKLAND, Supt.

MARINE ENGINEERS WANTED

With chiefs and assistant engineers' licenses, to come running and fitting for steamers; must be out of every 19; easiest berth on Atlantic coast; wages, $75 and $80 per month. Apply to SPRAGUE & SON, 70 Kilby st., Boston, Mass.

BUCK BAY AUTO SCHOOL

257 COLUMBUS AV.—Men wanted to become professional chauffeurs, great demand for chauffeurs; we teach you how; positions secured; day and evening lessons; 5 cars in use.

WANTED AT ONCE

MEN to call and see our pencil and machine, $1 down, $1 week. LOUIS SONNABEND CO., Inc., 15 Elm st., 18-20 Bristol st., near Quincy House.

WANTED AT ONCE

MEN to call and see our pencil machine, $1 down, $1 per week. LOUIS SONNABEND CO., Inc., 15 Elm st., 18-20 Bristol st., near Quincy House.

LEARN WATCH REPAIRING AND ENGRAVING.

DAY AND EVENING COURSES. HODGDON BROS., 6 Hamilton pl.

SHOEMAKERS WANTED.

LASTERS, finishers and all-round turn work good prices. L. B. EVANS SHOE CO.

6 HIGHEST PRICED and most money-making vacuum cleaning agents; hours, 9 to 5; no vacancies in Boston; no canvassing, experience or collecting; age, height, weight; premium, $100 monthly, income eighteen days, $75; fifty-two days, $175; machine delivered on trial; $25 guaranteed weekly; position permanent. ELECTRIC VACUUM CLEANER CO., 27 Pearl st., Brockton, Mass.

BRIDGE AND FOREMAN wanted. Apply at once by letter or in person to NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY CO., 214 Washington st., Room 1, Tel. 1,000 Main.

BOILERMAKERS for out of town; also, an helper and board; free transportation. Inquire at 75 Sudbury st.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF PIANO TUNING; day and evening classes; terms easy. 162 Boylston st.

HERE'S A POSITION FOR YOU—100 men wanted to learn barber trade; tuition reduced; $10 to $25 a week guaranteed when competent; 6 weeks' course; 1,000 graduates; 50 shops. MALE'S BARBER SCHOOL, 162 Boylston st.

LINEMEN—3 experienced; England to Hopkinton; also Holliston to Framingham; 2 TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO., Employment Bureau, 125 Milk st.

NEW WANTED AT ONCE to learn to drive and run automobiles; positions secured; $25 to $50 a week; corresponding course for out-of-town students; write for catalogue. MOTOR MECHANICS' SCHOOL, BOSTON AUTO SCHOOL, 543, Tremont st., Boston. Tel. 1,000 Oxford.

MEN WANTED to take our course in building, running and repairing automobiles; we have the running and repairing automobiles; we have the largest and most extensive auto school in the world; 1,000 graduates; 50 shops. MOTOR MECHANICS' SCHOOL, 543 Tremont st., Boston.

MAINSPRINGS, 30c., per in waiting; watches cleaned, $1. HODGDON BROS., 6 Hamilton pl.

TELEGRAPH SCHOOL, day or evening. MORSE SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, 18 Boylston pl., Boston, and Lowell, Mass.

WANTED—For the U. S. Marine Corps, men between the ages of 21 and 35, who are citizens of the world. For full information apply in person or by letter to 178 Federal st., Boston.

WANTED—Railway mail clerks; $18 weekly; examinations soon; specimen questions and information free until supplied. FRANKLIN INSTITUTE, Dept. 1, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—Two good loom fanglers married men to work in Lowell; steady work; good wages. WM. COUPE & CO., South Attleboro, Mass.

WANTED—Two good second hand hands, also 2 to THOMAS J. RIND, 19 Milk st., between 9 and 2.

WANTED—One stenciller, also one plumber at once. Apply to JOHN HANCOCK, Hancock st., Quincy.

25 PRESSMEN wanted at once; good pay. Apply to LEWANDOS & SONS.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Male.

A NEAT appearing young man, graduate of high school, desires position as bookkeeper or assistant; salary reasonable; best of references. WILLIAM KANE, 1,211 Washington st.

A YOUNG MAN would like work of any kind; has had experience in the grocery business. RICHARD DIMITRAKIS, 1074 Somerville av.

A YOUNG MAN would like to take position as a coachman or any other position, with the best of references. Y 910, Boston American.

A YOUNG colored man would like work in a laundry. 1,211 Washington st.

BAKER—Wishes an honest, reliable, safe and steady job. BAKER, 1,211 Washington st., Roxbury, Mass.

BOOKKEEPER wants position; gasoline or steam. No commission. Wife, good housekeeper, wants position in private family. Address Good Canadians for the Winter, Box 41, Boston.

CHAUFFEUR would like position in private family; married; good experience; best of references; no objection to country; wife would like position as cook; children preferred. Address A. M. V., 748 Tremont st., Boston.

CHAUFFEUR—A desires position in private family; married; good experience; wife would like position as cook; children preferred. Address A. M. V., 748 Tremont st., Boston.

ENGINEER—2nd class, wants situation; drives automobile; reference; business; not closed, 2 years; married; reference; business; not closed, 2 years; married; reference; business; not closed. 2 PERRY st., Dorchester.

ENGINEER, third class, sober, temperate, can run and repair automobile; references. 5 HARRISON, MAY st., Boston.

HELPER, colored man wants chores, janitor work, all kinds of work; will go anywhere; will do fine work; prices reasonable; Cambridge preferred. HARRIS, 1,211 Washington st.

SITUATION wanted as waiter; can take full charge; good reasons for leaving; best of references. A. M. V., 748 Tremont st., Boston.

SALESMAN or manager for grocery and provision store; 20 years' experience; best of references as to ability. T. H. FELLEY, JR., 54 Trull st., Somerville.

SWEDISH COACHMAN wishes a situation in private family; good driver; understands care of horses; $25 week and room per month. ANDERSON, 1,211 Washington st.

STUDENT (colored), wants day's work; any kind; will work cheap. 1,211 Washington st.

WANTED—Situation as groom or coachman; graduate of veterinary college. JOHN KINGALL, 1,211 Washington st., suite 3, Roxbury.

WANTED—Position as steward, first-class; best of references; either high, low end; 20 years' experience. Y 906, Boston American.

YOUNG colored man wants position, gentleman's janitor, porter, messenger or doctor's office; strictly honest; $15 to $18 weekly; best references. 1,211 Washington st., Boston.

YOUNG MAN (19) would like position with some traveling. L. E. M., 9 Leon st., Roxbury.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Male.

YOUNG MAN wants a position as order or shipping clerk in any mercantile house; would accept a position in a woolen house; has had 2 years exp. M. E., 8 Eaton st.

YOUNG INTELLIGENT colored man will make himself generally useful; wants position as porter, cleaner (has references); wages no object; will work. J. C. THOMAS, 40 Holyoke st., Cambridge.

YOUNG MAN 22 years old, strong and used to horses and farming, wants employment and feed of horses. Address Y 905, Boston American.

HELP WANTED—Female.

200 GIRLS WANTED
TO LEARN DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY
IN ALL BRANCHES, UNDER CONDITIONS
We claim superiority in DRESSMAKING including designing, cutting and making of all kinds of garments, from the simplest to the most elaborate; guarantee. EVERYTHING IN MILLINERY, including making shapes, frames and wires and finishing; also REGULAR WAIST, SKIRT AND SUIT DEPARTMENT. FIRST-CLASS TEACHING. Hours from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturdays, 1 p. m. SCHOOL OF MODERN DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY, 1,211 Washington st., Boston. MOST RELIABLE DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY COLLEGE IN BOSTON at present. Day and evening dressmaking. THE LADIES' TAILOR AND DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY COLLEGE, 241 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

SPECIAL DISPLAY of Paris models and New York patterns; also of fancy skirts, waists, shirt waist suits and coats; our perfect-fitting patterned dressmaking system; taught in a few lessons; cutting, fitting, making and tailoring in fact, everything pertaining to the trade; we not only teach it in a good position or start in business; our pupils are in demand; we have the largest, most successful and perfect fitting by McDowell's perfect system; we have the largest dressmakers and tailors' school in the world; perfect patterns sent out to fit; send for catalogue and terms. McDOWELL'S SCHOOL, 2 Winter st., Boston.

CHOCOLATE DIPPERS.

NEW FACTORY, with light, dry and airy workrooms; steady employment; good wages and short hours.

TOURAINE CONFECTIONERY CO., 251 Causeway st.

GIRLS WANTED.

GIRLS to spin paperarns, both experienced and those to learn; good wages. EDWARD BRIGHTON.

BOOKBINDERS.

WANTED—Experienced operator on Smyth sewing machine. EPHRAIM ADAMS & SON, 260 A st.

APPRENTICES wanted to learn dressmaking and millinery; also good positions guaranteed; short hours and evenings. Call or write MME. LITCH-FIELD, 1,211 Washington st.

AT HOTEL HELP ASSOCIATION, 4 Allen pl., Boston, Mass., telephone 2,000 Main, help wanted.

BRIGHT GIRL, assistant housekeeper $2.50; experienced waitress; Brookline. C. GR. BOSTON American Co.

HOUSEWORKER and cook wanted. THURSTON LIBERTY OVERALL MFG. CO., 24 Beach st.

INEXPERIENCED WAITRESS, THURSTON DINING ROOMS, 24 Beach st.

LADIES, our home work is profitable; stamp for particulars. ROYAL MFG. CO., Boston.

TEACHER WANTED at once in each town, $75 per month; experience unnecessary. C. E. HAMM, Sanbornville, N. H.

WANTED—Agents to call on ladies' garments. Apply to M. SMITH, 815 E st., So. Boston.

WANTED—Girl for cook and assist housework. Telephone Somerville 690, or apply 50 Highland st., Somerville, Mass.

WANTED—Woman to clean small apartment in the morning; must be neat and reliable; $4 a week; 3 in morning. Address B 344, Boston American.

WANTED—Young girl to assist in small family. M. MECHABER, 31 Walnut st., Dor.

WANTED—Young girl to assist in office; good pay. Apply to LEWANDOS, Watertown.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Female.

A FIRST-CLASS colored laundress wishes laundry to take home; very reference, satisfaction guaranteed; will call for and deliver. Y 911, Boston American.

A COLORED WOMAN would like day's work in or out of city; good references; will meet you at any time. Address 227 Bunker Hill st., Charlestown, Mass.

A COLORED woman would like day's work for Tuesdays and Thursdays in the city or out of town; good reference. Y 907, Boston American.

A GERMAN desires position as housekeeper in family of two or three adults; business man preferred. Address 1,211 Washington st.

A MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN wants a position as housekeeper in a widower's small family; is of a quiet disposition. Y 908, Boston American.

A YOUNG colored woman would like a situation as housekeeper in a widower's small family in or out of city; wages, $2.50 per week. Y 912, Boston American.

A YOUNG colored woman would like washing to take home; good reference; will call for and come at city.

A YOUNG, neat, reliable colored girl wants morning chamber work or apartment; office or room work. Address 1,211 Washington st.

A COLORED girl would like day's work of any kind; 25c. per hour. 162 Hanover st., room 2.

A WOMAN would like work by day. Call or write, 49 Hillsboro st., Dorchester.

A YOUNG WOMAN wants work by the hour, 15 cents; can furnish references. Y 913, Boston American.

BY AMERICAN Protestant widow as caretaker of rooms or offices; will clean and do any suitable preference. Address M. W. R., 209 Columbus av., Boston, Mass.

COLORED WOMAN, good worker, wants work by the day; washing and ironing preferred. Address B. A., 129 West Brookline st., suite 2.

COLORED WOMAN wants work by the day; washing, ironing, cleaning and chamber work, home duties, or sewing with dressmaker; references; terms, $1 per day. 1,211 Washington st.

A NEAT COLORED GIRL wants place in a small family; good reference. Address MISS THOMPSON, 100 Allen st., Roxbury.

COLORED WOMAN wants work, day or hour, 73 Rugglos st., suite 3, Roxbury.

DRESSMAKING and plain sewing. A. HOLMES, 24 Gaston st.

DRESSMAKING by the day; reasonable; best of references. Call or write Mrs. A. M. SMITH, 1,211 Washington st., Roxbury.

DRESSMAKER wants situation; best of references; terms reasonable. Address 54 West st., room 34, Tel. 2826-1 Ox.

EXPERIENCED woman wants situation; best of references; terms reasonable. Address 1,211 Washington st.

EXPERIENCED woman would like place to work by the day; washing preferred. HANNAH, 1,211 Park Road, West Roxbury.

EXPERIENCED waitress for afternoons and other fancy laundry work, to dress and press. Call or address 1,211 Washington st., Boston.

FIRST-CLASS stenographer with several years experience in real estate and insurance offices; rapid, neat and accurate; best of references. F 619, Boston American.

FIRST-CLASS LAUNDRESS wants place; reference; will go out of city. 1,211 Washington st., suite 3, Roxbury.

HOUSEKEEPER, widow, 35, refined, educated; some situation as widower's home; small hotel preferred; would not object to one child; good cook; best of references; will go anywhere; can give reference as to character, etc.; commercial traveler preferred; would not object to one child; state particulars. GERTRUDE STEVENS (R. F. D. No. 1), Lynn, Mass.

HOUSEKEEPER — Woman widow, position; would like to keep house for gentleman; best of references given. K. A. L., 4 Putnam st., Cambridge.

KEEP HOUSE, nurse care for motherless children; good reference; city or country; no objection to country home. F 870, Boston American.

LAUNDRESS wishes work by the piece, send woman; would prefer second work or care of gentleman's clothes; best of references. Y 914, Boston American.

LAUNDRESS desires position to sew linings to coats with dressmaker or tailor; also plain hand sewing; best of references. 1,211 Washington st., Parker st., Boston.

LAUNDRESS wishes an mothers helper or companion to young lady or elderly lady, by a refined young woman; will go to the country; would like to help do work; best of references. E. W. B., 1,211 Washington st.

WIDOW (45) would like position as housekeeper in widower's family; no children; is a good cook; best of references. MRS. M. DALE, Lynn, Mass.

WOMAN would like work by the day; washing, ironing or cleaning by hour. MRS. M. KENNEDY, 1,211 Washington st.

WASHING and IRONING to take home; call or address 1,211 Washington st., suite 2. MRS. H. LAWSON.

WORK WANTED—By the day; cleaning, by the hour. MRS. BUTLER, 1,211 Washington st., Roxbury.

WASHING AND IRONING to take home, and plain sewing; best of references. 1,211 Washington st., rear house. MRS. L. HARRIS, city.

WASHING and IRONING to take home; also chamber work; best of references. 1,211 Washington st., Roxbury.

WORK WANTED by the day, in city or out; best of references. 1,211 Washington st.

WANTED—Laundry to take home. MRS. V. BLACKWELL, 1,211 Washington st., Roxbury.

WANTED—Laundry work to take home. C. JOHNSON, 19 Northfield st., city.

YOUNG WIDOW, with child, employed between 8 and 5 a. m., wants work from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.; will do sewing; address with particulars 81 Bradford st., suite 3, MRS. H.

DOGS, PETS, ETC.

WANTED—A white Persian cat, with pink eyes only. MISS EDSON, 636 Columbus av., Suite 4.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Male.

YOUNG MAN wants a position as order or shipping clerk in any mercantile house; would accept a position in a woolen house; has had 2 years exp. M. E., 8 Eaton st.

YOUNG INTELLIGENT colored man will make himself generally useful; wants position as porter, cleaner (has references); wages no object; will work. J. C. THOMAS, 40 Holyoke st., Cambridge.

YOUNG MAN 22 years old, strong and used to horses and farming, wants employment and feed of horses. Address Y 905, Boston American.

HELP WANTED—Female.

200 GIRLS WANTED
TO LEARN DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY IN ALL BRANCHES, UNDER CONDITIONS
We claim superiority in DRESSMAKING including designing, cutting and making of all kinds of garments, from the simplest to the most elaborate; guarantee. EVERYTHING IN MILLINERY, including making shapes, frames and wires and finishing; also REGULAR WAIST, SKIRT AND SUIT DEPARTMENT. FIRST-CLASS TEACHING. Hours from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturdays, 1 p. m. SCHOOL OF MODERN DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY. MOST RELIABLE DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY COLLEGE IN BOSTON at present. Day and evening dressmaking. THE LADIES' TAILOR AND DRESSMAKING AND MILLINERY COLLEGE, 241 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

CHOCOLATE DIPPERS.

NEW FACTORY, with light, dry and airy workrooms; steady employment; good wages and short hours.

TOURAINE CONFECTIONERY CO., 251 Causeway st.

GIRLS WANTED.

GIRLS to spin paperarns, both experienced and those to learn; good wages. EDWARD BRIGHTON.

BOOKBINDERS.

WANTED—Experienced operator on Smyth sewing machine. EPHRAIM ADAMS & SON, 260 A st.

APPRENTICES wanted to learn dressmaking and millinery; also good positions guaranteed; short hours and evenings. Call or write MME. LITCHFIELD, 1,211 Washington st.

AT HOTEL HELP ASSOCIATION, 4 Allen pl., Boston, Mass., telephone 2,000 Main, help wanted.

BRIGHT GIRL, assistant housekeeper $2.50; experienced waitress; Brookline. C. GR. BOSTON American Co.

HOUSEWORKER and cook wanted. THURSTON LIBERTY OVERALL MFG. CO., 24 Beach st.

INEXPERIENCED WAITRESS, THURSTON DINING ROOMS, 24 Beach st.

LADIES, our home work is profitable; stamp for particulars. ROYAL MFG. CO., Boston.

TEACHER WANTED at once in each town, $75 per month; experience unnecessary. C. E. HAMM, Sanbornville, N. H.

WANTED—Agents to call on ladies' garments. Apply to M. SMITH, 815 E st., So. Boston.

WANTED—Girl for cook and assist housework. Telephone Somerville 690, or apply 50 Highland st., Somerville, Mass.

WANTED—Woman to clean small apartment in the morning; must be neat and reliable; $4 a week; 3 in morning. Address B 344, Boston American.

WANTED—Young girl to assist in small family. M. MECHABER, 31 Walnut st., Dor.

WANTED—Young girl to assist in office; good pay. Apply to LEWANDOS, Watertown.

SITUATIONS WANTED—Female.

A FIRST-CLASS colored laundress wishes laundry to take home; very reference, satisfaction guaranteed; will call for and deliver. Y 911, Boston American.

A COLORED WOMAN would like day's work in or out of city; good references; will meet you at any time. Address 227 Bunker Hill st., Charlestown, Mass.

A COLORED woman would like day's work for Tuesdays and Thursdays in the city or out of town; good reference. Y 907, Boston American.

A GERMAN desires position as housekeeper in family of two or three adults; business man preferred. Address 1,211 Washington st.

A MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN wants a position as housekeeper in a widower's small family in or out of city; good wages. Y 910, Boston American.

A YOUNG colored woman would like washing to take home; good reference; will call for and come at city.

A YOUNG, neat, reliable colored girl wants morning chamber work or apartment; office or room work. Address 1,211 Washington st.

A COLORED girl would like day's work of any kind; 25c. per hour. 162 Hanover st., room 2.

A WOMAN would like work by the day. Call or write, 49 Hillsboro st., Dorchester.

A YOUNG WOMAN wants work by the hour, 15 cents; can furnish references. Y 913, Boston American.

BY AMERICAN Protestant widow as caretaker of rooms or offices; will clean and do any suitable preference. Address M. W. R., 209 Columbus av., Boston, Mass.

COLORED WOMAN, good worker, wants work by the day; washing, ironing and chamber work, home duties, or sewing with dressmaker; references; terms, $1 per day. 1,211 Washington st.

A NEAT COLORED GIRL wants place in a small family; good reference. Address MISS THOMPSON, 100 Allen st., Roxbury.

COLORED WOMAN wants work, day or hour, 73 Rugglos st., suite 3, Roxbury.

DRESSMAKING and plain sewing. A. HOLMES, 24 Gaston st.

DRESSMAKING by the day; reasonable; best of references. Call or write Mrs. A. M. SMITH, 1,211 Washington st., Roxbury.

DRESSMAKER w

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE BOSTON AMERICAN BOSTON, OCTOBER 16, 1907

THE BOSTON AMERICAN

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, OCTOBER 16, 1907

THE RIVAL STRANGLERS

And How to Stop Them

Mr Moynahan, one of the serious-minded young men in our picture-making department, has drawn the cartoon that you see adjoining this column.

Mr. Moynahan has heard testimony on both sides in the contest to determine who is the Democratic candidate for Governor, and he has shown in black and white, as only an artist can show it, WHY THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IS DYING in Massachusetts.

Already the party's life was being slowly choked out by the trusts, which, through the hand of political CORRUPTION, sought to control it for their own purposes. Then came the VIOLENCE of the Springfield convention, which added its grip about the throat of the party to the grip already established by the hand of corruption.

The two forces that clutched the throat of Democracy at Springfield are BOTH GUILTY. The testimony shows that NEITHER SIDE INTENDED TO GIVE THE PARTY FAIR PLAY. The votes at the primaries cut no figure whatever in the convention, and would have cut no figure, no matter which side had control of the organization.

Both factions were out to win, REGARDLESS OF METHODS AND REGARDLESS OF CONSEQUENCES.

Such scenes as were enacted at the Springfield convention are a disgrace and a menace, not only to the Democratic party, but also to the State of Massachusetts.

That disgrace cannot be wiped out by voting for Henry M. Whitney, who stands back of the hand of corruption which has its grip about the throat of Democracy.

It certainly cannot be wiped out by voting for General Bartlett, whose supporters were willing to ruin the party in order that they might control it.

The one sure rebuke that every citizen can administer to the men who disgraced their party and State at Springfield will be a vote for a man like Thomas L. Hisgen, who represents the principles of REAL Democracy, but who had no part in such scenes.

Republicans and Democrats and Independents alike can unite in administering that rebuke.

Mellen Wants Guild Elected; Guess Why.

He Also Wants the Merger. Are You Going to Vote for this Combination, Mr. Republican?

Copyright, 1907, by American-Journal-Examiner

Yesterday, in this column, we told the Democrats a few reasons why this year they should vote for Hisgen and Brown as a protest against conditions in their own party. We promised to tell the Republicans to-day some reasons why the Independence League ticket is a good ticket for THEM to vote, also.

In the meantime, President Mellen of the New Haven Railroad has come forward with an argument which we had not expected, showing why ALL Republicans, who are interested in maintaining principles such as those upon which their party was founded, should refuse this year to vote for the candidates nominated by Senator Lodge.

Mr. Mellen, while declaring his "pleasant personal relations with Mr. Whitney" and his "earnest belief in his advocacy of tariff reform and Canadian reciprocity," declares that if he, Mellen, were a voter in Massachusetts this year HE WOULD SUPPORT THE CANDIDATES OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

In the same letter from Mr. Mellen, made public yesterday, in which he said he would support the Republican party in Massachusetts, he makes known the fact that he STILL DESIRES TO ANNEX THE BOSTON & MAINE RAILROAD.

Evidently Mr. Mellen isn't worrying much about Mr. Lodge's wise and judicial attitude of examining carefully into the merger question before acting upon it.

Mr. Mellen obviously is WELL SATISFIED with Mr. Lodge's attitude on the merger question. Mr. Mellen knows very well that Lodge and his Republican party will vote to let the New Haven road have the Boston & Maine. Otherwise, Mr. Mellen would NOT be supporting the Republican ticket in Massachusetts this year.

Reason enough for any Republican to vote the Independence League anti-merger ticket this year!

Mr. Mellen wants a railroad monopoly. No Republican who recalls the great struggle that Abraham Lincoln made against the slave power in the United States desires to establish a GREATER power in control of the State governments and the industries of New England.

No Republican who supports President Roosevelt in his fight on the Trusts wants to establish for all time a railroad Trust here in New England.

Lodge's hypocritical pretence of reviewing the merger question judicially and then acting on it as seems wise in view of all the facts, NEXT YEAR, is SHATTERED by Mellen's frank declaration that the New Haven Railroad president wants to see Guild elected.

It is bad enough for Republicans to be led around by the nose by Mr. Lodge and to have no voice in the selection of candidates on the Republican ticket, but it is worse to be cajoled and cheated by Lodge into voting for candidates who, next year, without allowing the voters to have a voice in it, are evidently going to saddle a railroad monopoly on the State.

There are other reasons why you should vote the Independence League ticket this year. One of them is Lodge himself. Another is Guild. Another is Draper. Another and a very important reason why you don't want to vote the Republican ticket this year is DANA MALONE, the candidate for Attorney-General, who received Mellen's undisguised approbation when Mellen said to Senator Vahey, "Perhaps your desire to enforce the law against the railroads is one of the reasons why you are not Attorney-General."

Next year the Republican party, with the permission of Senator Lodge, will choose new candidates. This year, if we may judge by Republican speeches and editorials, the Republican party DOESN'T NEED your vote.

Very well, then. This is a good year in which to show Mr. Lodge that it is about time to allow the voters in the Republican party to have some voice in the selection of its candidates and in the adoption of its policies.

Whitney's Pathetic Position

(From the Newburyport News.)

THERE is something almost pathetic in the spectacle of Henry M. Whitney stumping the State for reciprocity and tariff revision.

The Springfield Convention demonstrated how much the Democratic party was interested in any issue.

The party that named John B. Moran last year, and this year is given over to anarchy and violence, cannot be expected to warm up to a discussion of issues.

The fact is that Mr. Whitney will be more likely to find Republicans more responsive than Democrats to his pleas for tariff revision—as for the Democrats, they have got to the state where logic ceases to appeal and argument is wasted.

If Mr. Whitney would eliminate himself as a political factor and make a lecture tour through the State he would do more for the cause which has so much at heart than he can possibly do as a candidate.

Little Editorials from the People

OBJECTS TO RECKLESS DRIVING TO FIRES.

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Reckless driving is as much a crime whether the guilty party is a cab driver or driver of a steam engine responding to an alarm of fire. There is too much "grand stand" work on the part of our firemen. Lives are endangered, property destroyed and timid persons frightened by the "playing to the galleries" of some of our engine drivers. I am a little old-fashioned, perhaps, but I would rather see several buildings burned than to see one life lost, and I suggest a reform NOW.

"SAFETY."

A STRANGLE HOLD

MR. JACK

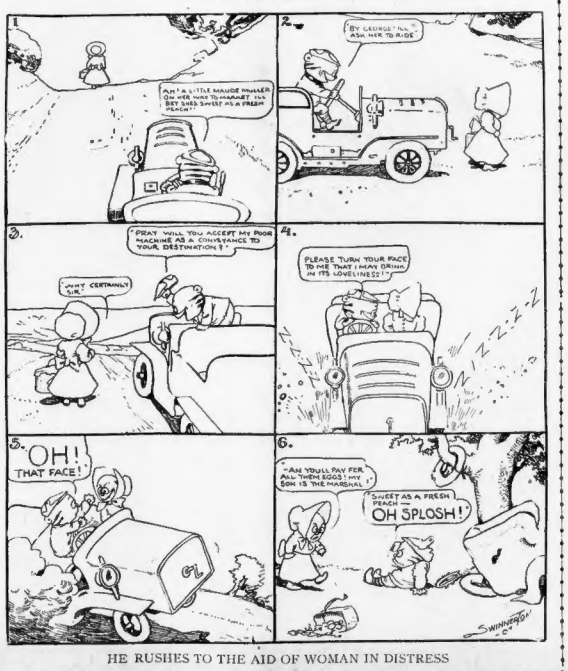
BY JAMES SWINNERTON

Copyright, 1907, by American-Journal-Examiner



1
AH! A LITTLE MAUDE MULLER ON HER WAY TO MARKET. I'LL BET SHE'S SWEET AS A FRESH PEACH!
2
BY GEORGE! I'LL ASK HER TO RIDE
3
"PRAY WILL YOU ACCEPT MY POOR MACHINE AS A CONVEYANCE TO YOUR DESTINATION?"
4
PLEASE TURN YOUR FACE TO ME THAT I MAY DRINK IN ITS LOVELINESS!"
5
OH! THAT FACE!
6
"AH YOU'LL PAY FER ALL THEM EGGS! MY SON IS THE MARSHAL!"
SWEET AS A FRESH PEACH — OH SPLOSH!
SWINNERTON

HE RUSHES TO THE AID OF WOMAN IN DISTRESS

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

She Explains Our Right and Wrong Days, and How They Happen to Us, in Spite of Ourselves

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Copyright, 1907, by American-Journal Examiner

DID you ever notice that there are certain days when (saving yourself) nobody but stupid and thoughtless people are out?

You tell the usually reliable and trustworthy maid to put certain memoranda and cards and addresses in your portmanteau, and you sally forth, a little late, to accomplish a lot of errands.

The first thing you discover on entering the street car or omnibus is that your maid has forgotten your memoranda and your addresses; but you think you can remember the most important ones, so you go on, telling the conductor to be sure and inform you when your reach Blank street, as you must change there.

You speak twice to him about it, and he looks hurt and offended the second time at the mere suggestion on your part that he could forget.

Yet he takes you a mile past your corner, and is only sullen at your reproaches, and you get off in a state of mind not to be recorded here.

You hunt up a police officer, who knows nothing about anything, and is glad of it, and you find another, who seems to know everything in the world save the one fact you desire, and you approach a third, who directs you with the most minute care to the place you are looking for—a dressmaking establishment.

You change cars twice to reach there and walk half a mile, and find a stable.

Disappointment

BEING tired and nervous, you stop somewhere for refreshments and order a cup of tea and a chop.

The waiter brings you cold ham, which you never eat, and coffee, which you never drink after breakfast.

You sally forth discouraged and decide to give up all your plans save a purchase or two at a shop, so you make them—a tea gown and some evening gloves, which you order sent home.

After you have dropped down on the divan to repose your shattered nerves and are about to fall into a quiet sleep the maid taps on the door and tells you a package has come.

You feel the woman's desire to look at your purchase immediately—and you open it to find a suit of gentleman's underwear and a pair of suspenders!

Another day everything goes like clockwork. You set forth to make a long city journey to see a friend and find her at your gate, coming to see you. You have a sample of goods two years old you want to match, and you find it on the first counter you look at.

All Goes Well

AN address which you have mislaid and worried over a chance acquaintance mentions in your presence, and from dawn till dark everything happens just as you would wish it to.

There are days when you see nothing but beautiful faces on the street.

Wherever your eye roams it falls on something to please it; and again they are ugly-women days—when it seems as if the houses of the homely had been raided and all the ugly duckling had flown into the street.

I have encountered a score of lame people in an afternoon in different parts of a city, and all these experiences lead me to think there may be some truth in astrological science which tells us that certain conditions of the solar system affect certain classes of people and cause them to be stupid, or bright, or to go out, or to stay at home.

When one stops to ponder on the wonders of that mighty system anything seems possible which may be said of it.

Dinkelspiel and Cousin Oscar!

By George V. Hobart

Copyright, 1907 by American-Journal Examiner

HOME, Dis Veek.

WEIN LIEBER LOOEY—Ve haf receifed your letter from Inchunappleus und ve vas glat to heeret it dot your health is still gifing rebates to your constitution.

Ve vas all vell at home mit der eggception dot your mother is got vun of her cousins from Milvaukee stopping at our house for der name of Oscar Stottlebauer.

Meibbe, Is, Looey, you doan'd heerd your mother speak much about dis Oscar because he is a cousin vunce removed mit also long bunches of trained hair flowing chently ofer der shoulders from der apex of der noodle downwards.

Your mother's cousin is a moosician und he has come to Boston from Milvaukee mit a opera vich is only slightly concealed in public.

Ever since Oscar arrifaind der atmosphere of our vunce peaceful home is full mit shrieking C-sharps und der trail of der cadenza is ofer it all.

You remembrance dot leedle openface piano vich vas in der sitting-room, Looey?

Vell, it has came upon bitter days, poor thing!

Oscar has rattled its feet und trompled its pedals so much dot I doan'd tink it vill efer be quite der same piano again.

You know, Looey, our leedle piano has nefer been supeckted to der hardships of a two-handed performer, because your mother only uses it to pick out "Columbia, der Gem of der Ocean" mit der thumb und fairet finger, und vunce in a great vile I sit at it und by pressing my kennuckles on der black keys I can sqveeze from dem der tune called "Should Old Acquaintances Be Forgotten!"

You can darefore understoot it, Looey, vot a shock it must be to a shy, timid, home-luffing leedle piano to haf a strange man mit uncouth hair chump at it suttenly und begin to beat opening choruses und ensembles ouid of it mit his two cast-iron thumbs und eight aluminus fingers all vorking at vunce.

Abould der moosic vich Oscar's cheeuns has gathered up in bunches I haf nuddings to say.

Sometimes it sounds like Richard Wagner, sometimes like Sebastian Bach, und sometimes like Helen Blazes—mostly like Helen.

Anyvay, I doan'd see how Oscar can be such a goot moosician, because he mit luff has such a poor memory.

He vas eggsplaining to me der udder day abould dis inflictionment.

"Vot vould you suchchest, Dinky, he set. "Mit faces I haf a memory, but mit names I haf a forgettery. Now here is in Boston a young lady vich I vish to sing der sopranoess moods in my opera py der name of Miss Chelsea, but yust der moment vot I step in her presence her name vill become emitted from my mind und I vill begin to shiver from pit to dome mit embarrassings."

"Vot is der lady's name?" I inkvired.

"Miss Chelsea," he set. "You see I can remembrance it all right till I meet her, but der moment she speaks to me my memory gets up und leaves der room."

"Miss Chelsea," I set. "For der improvement of der memory dit you efer try der assassination of ideas?"

"No," set Oscar, "I doandt much believe in patent medicine."

"Dis ain't medicine," I eggsplained. "Dis is fizzyological. Der assassination of ideas is vare you take someding vich you always forget und chain it to someding vich you always remember, den ven you begin to forget it der memory of der udder idea begins to short-circuit der brain cells und der result is knowledge."

"Dot sounds reasonable," set Oscar.

"Let us took der case of Miss Chelsea," I went on. "Vot is der assassination of ideas mit Miss Chelsea?"

"Der centre of der stage, der star dressingroom und much vages veekly," set Oscar.

"Better yet," I set, "better yet for dis purpose if ve take a ferryhouse for der assassination of ideas mit Miss Chelsea. If you cannot remember Miss Chelsea you can recollection Chelsea ferry, can't you, Oscar?"

"Sure," he set.

"Vell, dare is it," I responded. "Dare is der assassination of ideas vich cures der memory. All der vay up in der cars to der house you say to yourself, 'Der ferryhouse! der ferryhouse!' Den ven you meet her you say vunch more to yourself internal, 'Der ferryhouse!' und eggsternally comes forth from der assassination of ideas der vords, 'Pleased to meet you, Miss Chelsea!'"

Und der next day Oscar called on der lady und eggsclaimed, "Wie gehts Miss Revere!"

But vot can ve eggspect from a man dot uses up all der inside of his head as an anchorage for his hair? Yours,

D. DINKELSPIEL.

Per George V. Hobart.

Investigations

By James J. Montague

WE'VE investigated deeply into life insurance graft,
And discovered just exactly how the populace is gaffed.
We've confirmed our dark suspicions that a lot of crafty crooks
Got the plums of public plunder while the public got the hooks.
Having nabbed them with the goods on, like a sneak-thief in a flat,
We've expressed our indignation—and we let it go at that!

Oh! they're raking in our ducats in the good old-fashioned way;
Premiums are getting higher, and there's more of 'em to pay.
Same old grafters, same old skin-games trim as daily as of yore.
And, if anything, they're rawer than they ever were before.
But, though robbed and fleeced, we murmur, as clear, easy victims should:
"Didn't that investigation do an awful lot of good!"